

Court Klamath Schedules Meet

Court Klamath, Catholic Daughters, will hold their regular business meeting, Monday, Nov. 14, at 8 p.m. in Sacred Heart parish hall.

Mrs. Dean Howell will present a speech on Mary, which won honors for her at the district meeting of Toastmistress. Following, the delegate sponsored by the Court Klamath to Girls' State will report on her activities there.

Prior to the meeting, from 7:30 to 8 p.m., representatives from the Academy will have Christmas cards for sale to those interested.

Refreshments for the evening are chairmanned by Mrs. Angelo Gasparini.

Library Club Meets Monday

The Klamath Falls Library Club will hold its next meeting Monday, Nov. 14, at 2 p.m. in the City Library club rooms, according to Mrs. R. T. Lindley, president.

Special musical numbers will be given by Jan Gipponi on the flute and by Jerry Jensen on the clarinet.

The program for the day will be given by Mrs. Elmer Harnden who will present slides and give a talk on her recent trip to Hong Kong and Japan. Mrs. Harnden, a past president of the Klamath Falls Library Club, has been active in community affairs heading the Girl Scout Area Council for a number of years and is now president of the Sororist Club of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Bert Thomas and her committee will be in charge of the tea and Mrs. Joy Walker and her committee will act as hostesses for the day.

Plans are going ahead rapidly for the annual benefit bridge set for Saturday, Jan. 28, at the Willard Hotel under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. John Ashley. For the past several years the proceeds from the tea have gone for books and needed equipment in the children's section of the City Library.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

SUMMER LAKE — Mrs. Delmar Hand honored her son, Lawrence, with a party on his sixth birthday, Thursday, Nov. 3, after school. All of the children from the Ana River School were invited for ice cream and cake. While the youngsters watched television the mothers, Colleen Maw, Juanita Vance, Barbara Clark, Fernette Weaver and Patsy Carlson, visited with Mrs. Hand.

College News

Nancy R. Layman of Klamath Falls is one of 14 civil engineering seniors at Oregon State College selected to receive special undergraduate research participation grants. Each of the students selected will receive $150 for research assistance on a civil engineering department research project this year.

The grants from National Science Foundation are designed to stimulate interest among outstanding students in research careers. Each student will work directly under the supervision of the faculty member in charge of the project.

Patricia Sept of this city, a sophomore in elementary teacher education at Southern Oregon College, has been announced as the recipient of a scholarship which is the result of the joint efforts of Delta Kappa Gamma and the Klamath County Retired Teachers Association. The scholarship was established in memory of a former member, Stella Bowne.

Fred Lee Tedrick was one of seven new members recently initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history fraternity at Wayland Baptist College.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Ledema Ivie to John Robert Hartley of Denver has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivie of Wocus. The wedding will be an event of November 24 at South Denver Baptist Church. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and Grand Canyon College. For the past four years she has been employed in the state office of the Southern Baptist Convention. Her fiancé is a postal clerk in Denver. — Photo by Columbine Shop, Denver.

Yreka WSCS Plan Bazaar

YREKA—During an all-day session of the Yreka Women's Society of Christian Service, plans were made for the bazaar, food sale and merchants lunch, an annual event sponsored by the organization, which will be held this year on Nov. 18.

The Tuesday session in the social room of the Methodist Church was conducted by the president, Mrs. James Sullivan, who named which circles would be in charge of the different booths. The food sale and bazaar will open at 10 a.m., with lunch served at noon, at the church.

Mary Martha Circle reported that table mats for the David Margaret Children's home at La Verne, Calif., are being made by members. The home is for orphans, children from broken homes and maladjusted children.

Members of the Yreka WSCS received an invitation from the Montague WSCS to join them in a joint meeting on Jan. 13 to hear a missionary from South America speak.

Mrs. James Elsea of Montague gave the devotions for the Tuesday meeting.

A break in the day-long session was marked when members paused to enjoy a sack luncheon. Decorated birthday cakes honored members observing birthdays during September, October and November. The cakes were baked and decorated by Mrs. Harold C. Coleman and Mrs. Don Clements.

Mrs. T. M. Deter was program chairman for the afternoon. In charge of the missions for the WSCS, she showed and narrated a film, "Assignments in Unity," on the World Council of Churches.

Couple Tell Wedding Plans

Betty Hromada and Ralph A. Hill disclosed to their many friends this week the news of their engagement and forthcoming marriage. The ceremony will take place Nov. 23 at Mt. Laki Church. They will spend their honeymoon in Hawaii.

The bride-to-be is a deputy in the county clerk's office. The future bridegroom, member of a pioneer family, is engaged in ranching operations in the Henley district.
