

Scholarship Plan Discussed

GRENADA—A proposed scholarship plan was the major point of discussion held during the October meeting of the Grenada Parent Teacher Association. The proposed scholarship would be presented to a graduate of the Grenada Elementary School upon his or her graduation from high school.

The idea for the scholarship plan was presented by Mrs. Dennis Broderick, with the suggestion that the plan be sponsored and supported by the Grenada PTA. Ways and means on the selection of the recipient were outlined and discussed.

Further action on the matter was tabled until the next meeting on Nov. 17.

All residents and interested persons are urged to attend this meeting in order to express their opinions on the matter.

Mrs. Broderick was appointed chairman of a committee to draw up a workable plan of the proposed scholarship.

It was disclosed that as of Oct. 20, 65 members had joined the Grenada PTA.

The Grenada unit set Nov. 19 as the tentative date for its annual PTA dance with Mrs. Harold Silver appointed as chairman.

Program for the evening consisted of the showing of colored slides by Mrs. Sedg Nelson, taken by the Nelsons during their trip to Alaska last summer.

Refreshments were served by the eighth grade room mothers.

Couple Wed In Texas To Reside In Klamath

The First Baptist Church of Raymondville, Texas, was the scene of the Saturday evening Oct. 29, candlelight wedding of Carolyn Rose Pentecost and Lt. Raymond B. Tucker, who is presently assigned to the 322nd Fighter Squadron at Kingsley Field. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pentecost of San Perita and Mrs. Thelma Tucker of Paris, Texas.

The Rev. Bill McDaniels officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony before an altar lighted with six candelabras holding tapers decorated with feather fern at the base. Twin baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and fern trees completed the altar decorations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white Chantilly lace dress fashioned with scalloped hemline and Sabrina neckline. Tiny buttons fastened the back of the bodice with sequins and seed pearls outlining the lace floral motif of the sculptured bodice. The long sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. A crown of seed pearls held the fingertip veil of silk illusion. The bridal bouquet, a white orchid surrounded with stephanotis, was carried on a white Bible, gift of the maid of honor.

Mary Jean Pentecost, a Baylor University student, was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Harriett Coburn, the bride's cousin; Barbara Flores, Beverly Haynie and Mrs. Delores Hankins Young. They wore wedge-wood peau de satin frocks with matching crown hats accented with a rose and tulle veil. Each carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

Jill Saxon was the flower girl and Brad Saxon, the ring bearer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pentecost wore a royal blue silk sheath dress with shell white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a toast brown lace dress with matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Best man was Fred E. Ganshaw of San Antonio, the bridegroom's uncle. Groomsmen were Gary M. Clark, Leroy Erskine, Talton Williams and Ronald G. Kaylor of Klamath Falls.

The wedding reception was held in the reception hall of the church immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a white net skirt over taffeta and accented with a silver punch bowl, silver candelabra and the bridesmaid's bouquets. The four tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses, love birds and swans.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a brown net cloth over brown taffeta and centered with yellow roses and a double ring chocolate cake.

A large wedding candle lighted the guest book. Fern and other greenery formed the background for a white rice tree holding bags of rice fashioned from blue tulle.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a brown wool suit with champagne beige accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will visit Grand Canyon and San Francisco on the way to Klamath Falls where they will make their home at 2066 Leroy Street.

The bride is a graduate of Baylor University where she was a member of Beta Beta Beta, Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Lambda Delta and the honor council. She has taught high school science for the past two years in the Victoria, Texas, school system.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Baylor University, is a radar observer at Kingsley Field. He is a deacon in the First Presbyterian Church and is adviser for the Westminster Youth Fellowship.

GET READY, GET SET, go to the Sadie Hawkins Day dinner dance at Reames Country Club on Nov. 19. This is the invitation extended to members and guests by Jonnie (Daisy Mae) Ritter and Clyde (Lil Abner) Ritter, chairman of the fun party. The Fred Dallas Trio will play for dancing. At the starting line waiting for Preacher Marcia Murray's signal to go are, left to right, Dorothy Kerns, Jonnie Ritter, Pat Bradshaw and Priscilla Card.

Lakeview Girl Scouts Observe Founders Day

LAKEVIEW — The education building of the Presbyterian Church was the scene of the Girl Scout Council Juliette Low Founders Day tea on Saturday, Oct. 29.

The tea table was attractively set with silver tea services and a bronze flower arrangement. Dr. J. H. Robertson and Mrs. Rudy McLain, both of whom have been active in the local Girl Scout Council, presided.

Mrs. Garth Thornburg acted as moderator and presented the certificate of appreciation and adult pins to Mrs. Bill Van Cleave, Mrs. Frank Brosius, Mrs. C. J. Clause, Lakeview; Mrs. Ruth DeWitz, Bellingham; Mrs. Forrest Jones of Portland and Mrs. Chester Bell of Paisley. These are the people who helped start the local Girl Scout Council and who have maintained it through the years.

Deceased recognition was given to Barbara Dykeman, one of the first local Girl Scouts; Mrs. Marie Harlan, who helped with the first local camping; Ken Stoll, who was the first man on the local Girl Scout board, and Mrs. Lois Cory, a Brownie leader.

The first local Girl Scout leader was Mrs. Frank Brosius, and the first committee included Mrs. Lois Cassidy, Mrs. Mildred Farrell and Mrs. Walter Dykeman.

The first Girl Scout Troop in Lake County included Edna Burford Barrington, Doris VanKulen Switzer, Barbara Dykeman, Joan Smith, Zola Dykeman White, Lois Clause Patterson, Vodie Cassidy Paxton, Gwendolyn DeVore Mercer, Betty Combs Walker, Bernice Gunther Wallace, Dorothy Peat Trapitt and Ruth Graham Mercer.

During the afternoon Mrs. Paul Kiewer, Lake County Girl Scout Council president, gave the welcoming address.

Troop 1, whose leaders are Mrs. Garth Thornburg, Mrs. Glen Plato and Mrs. Arthleen Samples, gave an enlightening "Scouts Own" on the life of Juliette Low. The girls who took part were Judy Bereth, Linda Samples, Nancy Murphy, Gara Thornburg, Len Flynn, Terry Allen, Ruth Augustine, Jan Plato, Hope Edwards, Robin Lancaster, Rene Efrid, Debbie Bratton and Susan Dollar.

WARM PEACH TOPPING
Heat canned cling peach slices with tart orange marmalade for a luscious warm topping over plain or toasted cake. Be sure to save the peach syrup to flavor gelatin desserts.

ALMOND RICE RING
A handsome pimiento-almond rice ring is an exciting way to serve rice. Mix seasoned cooked rice with butter, chopped pimiento and slivered almonds. Pack into well-buttered ring mold and bake in moderate oven about 20 minutes. Loosen edge with knife and turn out onto warm serving plate. Fill center of ring with bright green parsley. Delicious served with a seafood newburg or chicken a la king.
