BETA SIGMA PHI

The lovely home of Mrs. Rolfe, 1424 Eldorado, was the setting for the formal pledge ritual held by the Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Tuesday, Nov. 1. Delores Balcom was the only pledge receiving the ritual this year. Following the program, several members enjoyed a swim in the Lungreen swimming pool. Refreshments were served. The Beta Phi members and their husbands enjoyed an evening of bowling at Lucky Lanes Bowling Alley, Saturday night, Nov. 5, at 8 o'clock. After bowling all members gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lukes, where barbecued hamburgers with all the trimmings were served in the covered patio.

BIG GAME HUNTING in the Canadian Rockies, as experienced by Dr. Ralph Stearns and Victor O'Neill, is the subject of their film and commentary at the next AAUW meeting Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. in the Willard Hotel. Prior to the meeting a gun exhibit, furnished and explained by Walter Phillips, Western representative of the Winchester Rifle Company, will be on display. The dinner meeting is open to all members and their husbands and other guests. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. James Creswell, TU 4-3692. Three good friends who have hunted and fished together for many years are shown with handsome trophies on a recent hunt in British Columbia. Left to right, Dr. Stearns, W. Y. Meade and Vic O'Neill.

Orion Club

The social room of the YMCA was attractively decorated with ceramic turkeys and fall flowers on the evening of Nov. 3 for the Orion Club turkey dinner. Mrs. Myron Murray gave devotions.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Biehn and Fredric; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ring, Larry Woods, Jerry Finchum, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Baker, Steve and Julie; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Murray, Mrs. Sady Janssen, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. York and Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. James Sweett, Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, Lee Anne and Ronnie; Beverly Esgate, Mrs. J. L. Van Pelt, Roy, Virginia and Beckie; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wachter and Vince; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Cofer and Barbara; Joan Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Paddock and Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. Al Nanneman and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hartwell, Mrs. Robert Pryor, Joyce and Linda; Mrs. Carl Perinotti and Margo; Mr. and Mrs. Neil McEachern and Ginger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Judy Paddock, Mrs. Charles Wachter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Teater and Oran. During the dinner Mrs. Myron Murray was presented with a birthday gift. Following the dinner, the Orions and their guests enjoyed the instrumental music of Sharon Russell, Barbara Mathis, Gale Hallack and Joe Bispham, all of whom are Klamath Union High School students.

Dinner Fetes 86th Birthday

SUMMER LAKE—Ralph C. Foster, a life-long resident of Summer Lake Valley, was feted on his 86th birthday Monday, Nov. 7, with a dinner at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie Henderson. His wife, Princess, was also present.

Although he has been inactive for several years as the result of a hip injury sustained in a fall at his home, he still continues his ranch operations with assistance from his two sons-in-law, C. A. Ankney and C. L. Henderson.

Ralph Foster is the youngest son of James and Elizabeth Foster who were among the earliest pioneers in Summer Lake. They came from the Willamette Valley in 1871 and established the ranch which is now operated by William Schmidt.

He and his sister, Lulu Schmink, of Lakeview are the only surviving children of this pioneer couple who had a family of 15.

Merrill VFW Initiates One

MERRILL—Elected to membership and initiated into the Merrill VFW Auxiliary on Wednesday, Nov. 2, was Ester Bowsby. Marge Hodges, president, conducted the meeting attended by 24 members.

Myrtle Rippe reported the kindergarten float won first prize in the youth organization and Bertha McKoen reported the auxiliary float won first in the comic division.

The Halloween costume party on Oct. 29 was reported a success by Norma Wilson. Mary Lou Swisher reported on the rummage sale.

Other business under discussion was the forming of a "because we like you club." The purpose of this club would be to invite non-members to participate in the social meetings, the first one to be Nov. 16 at 8 p.m. in the VFW Hall.

Appointed to the committee for the next Lions dinner were Joan Trotman, Hazel Deboy, Frances Brandenburg, Grace Walker, Edna Hunnicutt and Harriet Batty. All members are urged to save their coffee bands for the purchase of a new percolator. Nellie Fleck is chairman.

Donations were made to the VFW cancer and hospital funds. Cancer bandages are to be rolled at the meeting Nov. 16.

Clara Cannon, district president, will visit the auxiliary Wednesday, Nov. 30, a special meeting to replace the regular meeting of Dec. 7.

Mary Lou Swisher was presented with a corsage and gift for holding the office of department conductress. A short skit in her honor followed.

The buffet table covered with a lace tablecloth served as a background for a cake, decorated with the auxiliary emblem and red, white, and blue ribbons, and other refreshments served by Myrtle Rippe.

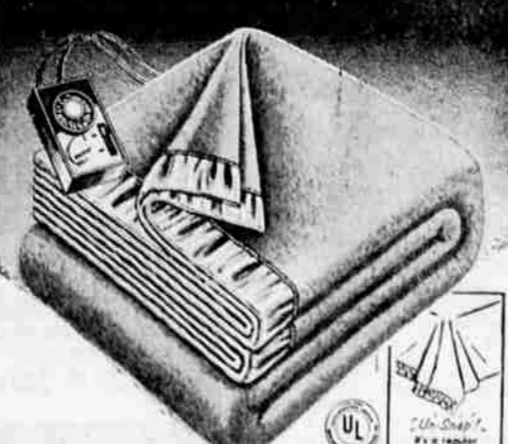

Nancy Hugelmann, honored queen, read a poem, "And Yet We Judge," and Esther Deen, librarian, reviewed the book, "The Ugly American," by Lederer and Bardick.

Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Gus Vlahos, associate guardian, complimented the betheon for their work at the previous meeting.

All officers were asked to be present for practice on Monday, Nov. 14, at 4 p.m. and to remember the date of Nov. 21 for the official visitation.
