

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen

Klamath Falls, Oregon

November 13, 1960

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR of the fall season was the coffee given last week by Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson and Mrs. John H. Houston. Rich autumn colors in simple decorations complemented the decor of the lovely new Thompson home at 1975 Huron Street. The hostesses, shown in the picture at left, Mrs. Houston, left, and Mrs. Thompson, right, chat with Mrs. Bob Mest.

MRS. WYATT PADGETT, left, is served by Mrs. George Myers. Others are Mrs. A. F. Blockinger, center, and Mrs. Howard Pernel.

MRS. LEWIS JONES, left, and Mrs. Richard Newman were coffee guests.

A NOTE of pleasant informality were the two small round coffee tables, one set in the living room before the fireplace and one at the large window of the dining area. Mrs. K. A. Moore, above, serves, from the left, Mrs. Cliff Molatore, Mrs. Harry Molatore and Mrs. Dick Miller.

THE DEPARTURE of one of Klamath Falls popular residents was the incentive for four of her close friends to be tea hostesses Nov. 3 in her honor at the home of Mrs. M. E. Robinson, 841 Pacific Terrace. Mrs. E. M. Raymond left this week to make her home in Seattle. She is shown at far right with the hostesses, from the left, Mrs. Andrew Honzel, Mrs. M. E. Robinson, Mrs. Ed Brosterhous and Mrs. L. D. Stephens.

PRESIDING at the pretty tea table above is Mrs. Fred Hoagland, chatting with Mrs. Robert Gotshall, left, and Mrs. Frank Tarr. Tall pink tapers in silver candelabra complemented the centerpiece, a lovely cut glass and silver epergne filled with pink carnations.

MRS. BOB CHEYNE, left, and Mrs. Lloyd Drew were among those to bid farewell to Mrs. Raymond at the tea in her honor.

— All Photos by Guderian

