

"DENNIS THE MENACE"

CAN I HAVE A PIECE OF C-A-N-D-Y THAT DAD HID IN THE HALL C-L-O-S-E-T?

THIS IS NEW Klamath Unitarian Fellowship meeting house on the Lakeview Highway. Members will observe Day of Thanksgiving at 11 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 20.

Unitarians Move Into New Meeting House Sunday

The Klamath Unitarian Fellowship which was organized in 1957 and which has been meeting since in the old Klamath Art Center and the Congregational Church will move services Sunday, Nov. 20, to the new meeting house in the Pine Grove District.

The building, a landmark for many years on the Lakeview Highway, was once the Pine Grove School building. Consistent effort to retain the distinctive character of the building was made by the late Sheldon Brumbaugh, architect, who remodeled it for use as an office.

The Klamath Fellowship is one of 205 lay-led Unitarian groups

HONORS THREE UNIONS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three entertainment unions were honored by the government today for providing talent and music to the Voice of America during the last 20 years. The agency's distinguished service award went to the American Federation of Musicians, the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, and the American Guild of Musical Artists.
