Bly Youth Feted At Party

BLY—Members of Bly Grange and the community's teenagers gave "Buckshot" Cummings a cheery sendoff to Navy recruit training here recently. Cummings (Ronald C. Cummings, officially) is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cummings and the brother of Mrs. Ralph Biles and Cecil Nicholson, Klamath Falls. For the party, the grange hall was decorated with red, white and blue streamers. His family, friends and grangers presented gifts. He attended Bly school most of his life. Chaperons were Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Biles, Mrs. Basil Hall, Mrs. Martin Melsness and Mrs. Donald McGee.

Yule Decor Shown To Garden Clubs

YREKA — More than 250 gardeners and flower lovers gathered at the flower and holiday arrangements demonstration presented Oct. 29 at Winema Hall at the Siskiyou County Fairgrounds under joint sponsorship of Shasta Valley Garden Club of Montague and the Yreka Garden Club, featuring Marvin Black of Salem as demonstrator. During the morning of the demonstration, Black created effective arrangements with the use of chrysanthemums and native greenery with rocks and figurines. He used many appointments featuring driftwood with flowers. Arrangements for the holiday season, demonstrated during the afternoon session, included table and mantel pieces featuring the quieter tones of greens and browns with Madonna figurines and candles, to the gay concept of Christmas with its colorful ornaments and tinkle. Mrs. Black assisted her husband. A noon luncheon was served by members of the Iona Council, Degree of Pochontas. Marvin Black, a graduate in horticulture from Oregon State College, operates a small nursery in Salem and teaches adult education classes in addition to giving demonstrations for garden clubs and other organizations.

Duplicate Play Winners Listed

Mrs. Grace Kresse, director of duplicate bridge in Klamath Falls, announced the winners of 12 tables of master point play on Thursday evening, Nov. 10, as Mrs. Lena Smith and Mrs. Bob Sproat in the north-south position and Mrs. George Myers and Mrs. Guy Hancock, east-west. Second place in the north-south position went to Mrs. Emil Albrecht and Mrs. Gertrude Tolle and third to Mrs. Harold Cloake and Mrs. Lois Serruys. East-west second were Mrs. G. W. Nelson and Mrs. Norman House and third, Mrs. Guy Merrill and Mrs. Helen Mueller. Eight tables played in the master point tournament Tuesday morning, Nov. 15. North-south winners were Mrs. Lena Smith and Mrs. Loyd Goble, Mrs. H. O. Juckeland and Mrs. Robert Thompson were second.

NEW TABLECLOTH

A new spot-resistant tablecloth is finished so that mealtime spills "bead up" on the surface and can be blotted up with a sudsy sponge or cloth before they do damage. What's more, this rayon-and-acetate cloth can be machine-washed without affecting the finish, and requires little or no ironing.

Yacht Club Affairs Planned

Dates to be remembered by members of the Klamath Yacht Club were announced following a recent meeting of the board of directors. Opening the fall social season will be the Harvest Ball, Nov. 9 at the club starting at 8 p.m. Members are urged to invite guests and arrive early for the dancing at nine o'clock. Music will be furnished by the popular Sound Truck Trio from Kingsley Field. At 11:30 a turkey buffet dinner will be served. Making arrangements for the party are Vice Commodore and Mrs. Gene Byrnes, past Commodore and Mrs. Ray Byrnes and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunter. The next date to be circled on the calendar is Sunday, Dec. 11, and the annual wild duck dinner. Serving will begin at three o'clock and reservations are a must. Dec. 18 is the date of the annual Commodore's Tom and Jerry party. Details on the December events will be announced later.

Two Mark Date At Dinner Party

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metler were honored on their 38th wedding anniversary with a dinner at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metler Jr. of Klamath Falls, on Nov. 17. A social time followed the dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Yancey and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Keady and daughter, and the host and hostess and their three children.
