Frosty Frolics
Job's Dance Theme

"Frosty Frolics" was the theme for the first fall formal of Belhel No. 61, Order of Job's Daughters, held on Saturday evening, Oct. 22, from 8:30 to 11:30 at KUHS.

Colors of blue and white predominated in the hall with a sparkling snow scene around a large snow man and woman at the end of the room. The rest of the background was formed by frosted fir trees, colored lights and glittering stars hanging from a ceiling of blue. The dance was open to all Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls and Order of DeMolay, and was attended by a large crowd, colorful in formal dress.

Music for the affair was furnished by the Fredrickson Trio. Parents of the members were hostesses and chaperons, with Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Gus Vlahos, associate guardian of Belhel No. 61, in charge.

The refreshment table and punch bowl was attended by Barbara Cofer and Jean Bispham.

Chairman of the gala affair was Barbara Vinson. Mrs. Everett Ball was in charge of the decorations.
