

Homestead Club Honors Members

TULELAKE — Homestead Club members and their husbands honored Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox at a housewarming at the beautiful new home on the California side of the state line Sunday, Nov. 13.

Places were marked for 29 guests for a 5 o'clock pollack supper. Tables were centered with bronze chrysanthemums and pyranthas arranged by Bea Schweitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox were presented with a money tree made by Mrs. Silver McFall and presented by Mrs. Otto Haynes, club president. Colored slides of a recent trip to Hawaii taken by Mr. and Mrs. Schweitzer and of the last parade in Tulelake were shown.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam

Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McClymonds, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Street, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holzhauser, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neuffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bradbury, Mrs. Hildur Larson, Mrs. Marguerite Dayton, Mrs. Henry Stevens, Mrs. Carl Jensen, Mrs. Silver McFall, Mrs. Bee Schweitzer, Mrs. Fanny Ryckman.

Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Street and Mrs. McClymonds arranged the affair.

RUG ORIGIN

"Rug" comes from the Swedish "Rugg" meaning coarse hair. Today high fashion art rugs made with acrilan by Swedish designers are decorators' and homemakers' favorites in the United States.

Christians of the world are divided into three great families: Roman Catholic, Protestant and Eastern Orthodox.

Naomi Shrine

The 14th birthday of Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, was celebrated by honoring charter members at the meeting on Nov. 12 at the Masonic Temple. Luella Chilcote, WHP, and Frank McCormack, WOS, presided in the East.

Eleven charter members present were Stella Dryden, Vera Clemmens, May Phinney, Bess Hunt, Minnie Grizzle, Ethel Henry, Betty Hunter, Louise O'Brien, Neil Retterath, Blanche and Jack Schulze. The original charter was displayed by the WHP, with early history recounted by Jack Schulze. Neil Retterath related the history of Shrine gifts and paraphernalia as well as other interesting facts. All of the charter members were escorted to the next meeting.

District deputy, Helen McCormack, was also introduced and a large group of past WHP and WOS were honored by escort to the East.

Birthday greetings were sung to Naomi Shrine as Stella Dryden lit the candles on a large birthday cake made by Mrs. Chilcote. The December meeting was changed to the first Saturday, Dec. 3, to accommodate Masonic installations. The annual Christmas party will be held at that time, and sojourners are asked to bring a gift valued at one dollar for a gift exchange. Ceremonial plans are indefinite and sojourners are to be informed soon on phernalia as well as other interesting facts. All of the charter members were escorted to the next meeting.

Traditional birthday refreshments were served by the com- Carl and Josephine Young. The mittee, Vera Fritsch and Nell dining hall and tables portrayed Retterath, chairmen, assisted by harvest and Thanksgiving themes.

MR. AND MRS. ROSS RAGLAND and their children, Martha, David, in back, and Andy, right, left last weekend by plane for the East. Ross Ragland, recently elected to the National Board of Christian Education, attended meetings this week in Philadelphia. He will join his family in Falls Church, Virginia, where they are visiting Mrs. Ragland's sister, Mrs. Thomas (Carolyn) Larson, and her family. The Raglands will travel to Washington, D.C., and New York City before returning to Klamath Falls.

Lakeview Students Fete Swedish Girl

LAKEVIEW — Ann Furuskog, Onetta Elle, Marian Angele, Karin Windle, Sheila Gilbert, Linda Duhose, Kerry Adams, Sherrain Arzner, Carole Tainter, Carol Kelson, Sherry Jarman, and Mavis Kiewer, a junior class member. Games were enjoyed following dinner.

A frantic week of fund raising through ticket sales, car washes and food sales was climaxed the evening of Friday, Nov. 4, with the announcement that the sophomore class had raised the most money and their candidate, Judy Elder, was consequently named Queen of the Varsity 1.

That evening, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kiewer, where she is a guest for the school year, Ann was surprised with a dinner party by her host-parents.

Senior girls who were invited included Terry Lincecum, Mary Lee Scoville, Sharon Drinkwater, Ruthie Troxell, Margery Blair, Claudia Harris, Mary Jo Deely.

The evening's activities opened with the annual variety show in the high school auditorium with Kenneth Conn as emcee. The program included the ballet, "Swan Lake" by Lynda Baker; trumpet trio by Dale Vandergaw, Dwaine Taylor and Craig MacKay; a pantomime skit on the song, "Young Blood," by FHA girls; monologue by Pete Kimzey; a solo, "Autumn Leaves," by Susan Jones; a clown tumbling act by

Students and adults moved to the gymnasium where the carnival was enjoyed for the rest of the evening.

The Continental Congress first considered a monument to honor George Washington in 1783.
