

FIFTY SIX members of the Golden Age Club had the "time of their lives" at the recent hard times party. Shown are three, from left, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reeves and Mrs. Daisy Stanton.

"YOU DON'T SAY," exclaimed Mrs. Fran Stuart, left, as Mrs. Mildred Marten tells of the hard times party, that is, staged recently by the Golden Age Club in the Klamath auditorium. Mrs. Marten, president of the club, urges other residents to join the weekly get-togethers. The first Wednesday of each month members enjoy a potluck at 12:30. On other Wednesdays a variety of entertainment is provided starting at 1:30 p.m.

Washington Rites Unite Couple

WEED — Double ring wedding vows were exchanged Oct. 8 in Grandview, Wash., by Jean Marguerite Desmarais of Mabton, Wash., and Robert George Cates, Yakima, and formerly of Weed.

Father Maurice Muleahy read the ceremonies at 11:30 a.m. in the Blessed Sacrament Church at Grandview.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Desmarais of Mabton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hazel Cates of Weed and Norman Cates of Redding.

White and pink chrysanthemums and Esther Reed daisies decorated the church. A white aisle carpet led to the altar.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown was of satin, in traditional white. Lace inserts embroidered in seed pearls decorated the bateau neckline. An imported French crown of seed pearls held her illusion veil. She carried a white orchid on a mother-of-pearl prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's attendants were her five sisters, Rosemarie, maid of honor; Mary Kay, Ann and Paula, bridesmaids, and Edelle, flower girl. They each wore ice blue crystalline dresses with full puffed sleeves and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums.

James Hampton served as best man. Jerry Maxwell, Tulelake, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Michael Desmarais, brother of the bride, and J. T. Moore, a family friend, were the ushers. Timer at the Desmarais home and a wedding dance followed at the Civic Center.

The bride was graduated from St. Joseph Academy at Spokane and the St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing at Yakima.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Weed High School, Shasta Junior College and Montana State University. He is presently with the Yakima Firing Center in Yakima, where the newlyweds are residing following their honeymoon trip to Yellowstone National Park.

Canton Crater

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 was honored by the official visit of Lady Frances Munsell, president of the Association of Ladies Auxiliaries Patriarch's Militant Department at Oregon, at the regular meeting on Thursday, Nov. 10, at the IOOF Hall.

Preceding the meeting members and honored guests enjoyed a potluck dinner served at 6:30 p.m. with Lady Stella Dryden as chairman. The tables and decorations were in charges of Ladies Helen Blanas and Helen McCornack.

The hall portrayed the president's theme of "thankfulness" and her flower, the pansy, was displayed by handpainted murals at each officer's station.

The meeting was conducted by President Lady Zelma Howard who welcomed the following guests: Lady Frances Munsell, association president; Lady Elmira Douma, vice president of the association; Lady Mae Anderson, association past president; Lady Iona May Wells, left aide to president; Lady Harriette Estes, honor guard, and Lady Vera Fritsch, state publicity chairman.

The annual auxiliary inspection was held by Lady Frances, with Lady Elmira Douma, reviewing officer and Lady Helen Blanas, vice president of Crater No. 7 in charge.

Mustering-in ceremony was conducted with Lady Frances honoring the auxiliary as a courtesy candidate, and all officers participating.

The regular business meeting was held by Lady Zelma Howard, and tentative plans formed for a Christmas party in December. Election of officers was held with the following results: president, Margaret Biden; secretary, Harriette Estes; and treasurer, Mae Anderson.

Lady Frances and Lady Elmira spoke on the inspection and gave instructions on uniform regulations and degree work. A gift from the auxiliary was presented to both ladies by President Lady Zelma. A group of chevaliers of Canton No. 7 were present and introduced during the ceremonies.

The next regular meeting is Dec. 8.
