German, Scot Will Test US

NEW YORK (UPI)—Chic Calderwood of Scotland and Erich Schoeppner of Germany, Europe's two unbeaten lightheavyweight contenders, will test their weapons on two former American contenders in European rings this week.

Top-ranked Calderwood, champion of the British Empire, meets Sonny Ray of Chicago in a 10-rounder at London's Wembley Arena Tuesday night. Calderwood seeks his 29th straight victory.

Schoeppner, champion of Europe but rated fourth among world contenders by the Ring Magazine and third by the National Boxing Association, engages the apparently washed-up Clarence Hinnant of Washington, D.C., in a 10-rounder at Frankfurt, Germany.

On this side of the Atlantic two heavyweight fights command the most attention.

Contenders Mike DeJohn of Syracuse, N.Y., (No. 6) and Billy Hunter of Detroit (No. 10) meet in a nationally televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden, Saturday night. Robert Cleroux of Montreal defends his Canadian heavyweight crown against George Chuvalo of Toronto in a return fight at the Montreal Forum Wednesday night. Cleroux outpointed Chuvalo at Montreal in August.

Meanwhile, matchmaker Teddy Brenner of Madison Square Garden is trying to arrange another tv fight in February for Gene (Ace) Armstrong, who won an upset unanimous decision over middleweight contender Henry Hank of Detroit in Saturday night's nationally televised garden bout.

"I'll try to match Armstrong with contender Joe Giambra for a tv fight in February," Brenner said. Giambra hails from Buffalo, N.Y.

Clever Armstrong of Elizabeth, N.J., weighed 158¾ pounds to slugger Hank's 160¼ as he gave the Detroiter a boxing lesson. Armstrong was unranked among contenders when he entered the ring but his surprise victory doubtlessly boosted him into the top 10.

Hank was favored at 2-1.

Bally Ache, the 3-year-old who died last October, earned $454,545 during 1960.

McKeever Earns Line Award

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Marlin McKeever of Southern California today was named the Big Five's "Lineman of the Week" for his spectacular performance on both defense and offense against the UCLA Bruins.

The award was announced by AAWU Executive Director Tom Hamilton.

McKeever lead the Trojan tacklers who contained UCLA's vaunted offense and brought USC a 17-6 upset victory Saturday. The win earned the men of Troy second place in the big five race.

The husky senior also stood out at his offensive end position, as he snagged three passes for 50 yards and one touchdown. McKeever also punted three times for 108 yards.

Gridders Shock Troops Of Athletics

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK (NEA) — Football players are the shock troops of athletics.

To even don a shoulder-padded uniform, a lad must have the courage of a paratrooper, the determination of a Seabee and the deadly skill of a Marine in combat. To wear football armor with the highest honors, a youngster must have all the attributes of a Congressional Medal of Honor hero. He has to be dead game.

Football is the only game in which the combatant has to suffer. The football player really learns what sacrifice is. He pays the highest price.

Inside linemen are even denied the right to score. Yet thousands of youngsters are overwhelmed by a burning desire to play a highly intricate team game in which they can be gang tackled, double teamed, trapped and otherwise manhandled—more often than not without recognition.

An All - America basketball player has to beanstalk into the air like a Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain to be remembered from one year to the next, but football All-Americas live forever. Willie Heston, for example, closed his skyrocket career at Michigan in 1904, yet old-timers speak of him as though he played yesterday.

Walter Eckersall, Tad Jones, Jim Thorpe, George Gipp, Red Grange and the Four Horsemen strikingly illustrate that prominence in football is a tremendous step toward genuine immortality. So do Don Hutson, Otto Graham, Doc Blanchard, Glenn Davis, Johnny Lujack and Doak Walker, names established indelibly.

Enough of the superlatives. Allow me to describe the 1960 Newspaper Enterprise Association All-America in a sentence. They could all play with the pros and most of them will.

Again it is a rare privilege to name the brilliant stalwarts adjudged the finest in the college game at their respective positions and elected by the nation's coaches and football writers to the 1960 Newspaper Enterprise Association All-America team:

ENDS—Marvin (Danny) LaRose, Missouri, senior, 21, 6-4, 221 (Crystal City, Mo.) and Mike Ditka, Pittsburgh, senior, 20, 6-3, 215 (Aliquippa, Pa.)

TACKLES—Merlin Olsen, Utah State, junior, 20, 6-5, 240 (Logan, Utah) and Bob Lilly, Texas Christian, senior, 21, 6-5, 250 (Throckmorton, Tex.)

GUARDS—Tom Brown, Minnesota, senior, 23, 6, 243 (Minneapolis) and E. J. Holub, Texas Tech, senior, 22, 6-4, 210 (Lubbock, Tex.)

CENTER — Roy McKasson, Washington, senior, 22, 6, 198 (Tacoma, Wash.)

QUARTERBACK — Jake Gibbs, Mississippi, senior, 22, 6, 185 (Grenada, Miss.)

HALFBACKS — Joe Bellino, Navy, senior, 21, 5-9, 181 (Winchester, Mass.) and Pervis Atkins, New Mexico State, senior, 24, 6-1, 190 (Oakland, Calif.)

FULLBACK — Bob Ferguson, Ohio State, junior, 21, 6, 217 (Troy, Ohio.)

Baylor Hot; A New Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elgin Baylor, the phenomenal sharpshooter of the Los Angeles Lakers, seems intent on setting some sort of record almost every time he goes on the floor for a National Basketball Association game.

Last week he set a league record with 71 points against the New York Knickerbockers. Sunday night he set a mark for the San Francisco Cow Palace by registering 52 points as the Lakers downed the Detroit Pistons 135-131 in the game on a neutral floor.

In the other NBA game on Sunday's schedule the Boston Celtics crept within six percentage points of the Philadelphia Warriors' leaders of the Eastern Division, by defeating the Cincinnati Royals 120-103. In Saturday games the Warriors defeated New York 121-111, Boston downed Syracuse 114-94, St. Louis beat Cincinnati 121-120 and Los Angeles whipped Detroit 130-122.

OXFORD, England (UPI) — Pete Dawkins, former Army football All-America, won a berth on the Oxford rugby team for the second straight year. He will play right-wing in the traditional clash against Cambridge Dec. 6.

Myrtle Point Whips Champs

SEASIDE (AP)—Myrtle Point struck for touchdowns in the first and final periods as it eliminated defending champion Seaside in a semi-final game of the Oregon class A-2 high school football playoffs, 12-0, Saturday night.

Halfback Rich Armstrong was the game's standout. He carried the ball 30 yards for 169 yards. Armstrong got the first score on a 2-yard plunge.

Rich Daniels scampered 10 yards for the final touchdown.

The victory puts Myrtle Point into the championship final next weekend with Central Union of Monmouth-Independence.

Siletz, St. Marys Set For Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Siletz and defending co-champion St. Mary's of Medford Saturday night won the right to play for the Oregon class B high school football title next weekend.

Siletz defeated Harrisburg 14-0, scoring in the fourth period after recovering fumbles. Jim Powe plunged 3 yards to the first touchdown and Jim Sweet swept 17 yards to the other.

St. Mary's, which shared the 1959 championship with Yoncalla, downed Umatilla, 6-0, on Dick Evans' 19-yard touchdown pass play to Don Jacobsen.
