Senior Citizen Plans Formulated

MOUNT SHASTA — The Mount Shasta Soroptimist Club and directors of the recreational district met in a joint session Sunday evening in the Mount Shasta City Hall to formulate plans for a coordinated council to aid senior citizens in any way it is needed. Twenty people attended. Prof. Carl Hoberg, superintendent of Siskiyou County Union High School, and James Simmons, College of the Siskiyou, each promised to aid in any adult studies required in this campaign.

George Goodrich, regional chess champion of Northern California, volunteered to teach this interesting game to any who wished to be instructed. Other aids in education, entertainment, health problems and social activities were suggested. A community center is being advocated.

Another meeting is slated for the city hall Sunday, Jan. 15. In the meantime the Soroptimist Club will conduct a survey of all who fall into the senior citizens group. A coordinating council will be formed to work out any plan that will benefit those who have reached the golden years.

Interim officers are Mrs. Bertha Lanthier, president, and Mrs. Eileen Simmers, secretary.

LITTLEST QUEEN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — As beauty queens go, Cindy Traver is unusual. She stands 3-feet-4, weighs 40 pounds and measures a voluptuous 23-23-33. Cindy, 4 years old, took top honors in a Dayton school playground beauty contest. The prize—one lollipop.
