

Speculation Still Exists On Shift In Election Result

If the Illinois recount were to shift the state into the Nixon column, Kennedy would lose 27 electoral votes and bring his total down to 273, just four more than the majority needed for victory. That slim hold on victory then would be in grave danger. If Illinois shifted—and that's the big if—there might be enough southern electoral votes in question to create doubt over Kennedy's victory. Kennedy's electoral vote majority would be threatened if two things happened:

—A recount gave Illinois Vice President Richard M. Nixon instead of Kennedy.

—Southern Democratic electors decided to withhold their votes from the Democratic candidate.

As of today, the electoral vote stands:

Kennedy 300; Nixon 223. Needed to elect, 269.

Eight electors in Mississippi are unpledged and six in Alabama are in doubt.

The Reverend Richards of the New Methodist Church delivered a special address to Klamath Union students assembled in Pelican Court for a Thanksgiving Assembly Wednesday morning.

The assembly was put on by the school's YMCA sponsored Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs and was keyed to the tone of the serious side of Thanksgiving.

After a short skit featuring the "Great Turkey" portrayed by 6'8" Bruce Brickner, the program opened with a Thanksgiving reminder speech by Pat Anderson, chaplain of Tri-Hi-Y, and a scripture reading by Bruce Campbell.

KU's a cappella choir, directed by Dale Hallack, followed with several numbers, and Jack Riley, president of Hi-Y, read the Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The assembly also featured another singing group, the Madrigals, made up of selected members from a cappella choir.

The chaplain of Hi-Y, Charlton Currin, closed the program with a Thanksgiving prayer.

Students returned to classes following the assembly to finish out the day, which was the last day of school this week due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

WINS HIS CASE

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Leroy Witherspoon, 32, pleaded innocent Tuesday to a drunk driving charge but admitted he was involved in an accident and was drunk when police arrived at the scene.

Witherspoon told Judge E. Leroy Van Roden he was cold sober when the accident happened and got colder waiting for police so he stepped into a nearby saloon and was drunk by the time they got there.

Van Roden accepted Witherspoon's explanation and found him innocent.
