

Go to the CHURCH of your choice this SUNDAY

MRS. LARRY WHYTAL and daughters, Suana, 13, and Linda, 11, were on their way to worship services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on a bright fall day when Herald and News photographer came by. The family home is at 432 North Tenth.

Seminar Features W. Huss

An all-day seminar will be conducted by the Freedom Crusade of Portland, Saturday, Nov. 26, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the city library, Fifth and Klamath, in Klamath Falls. The seminar will be under the direction of Walter Huss, Freedom Crusade director.

Modern means of audio and visual aid will help to graphically present information on communism from an anti-communism point of view.

Local students and the public are invited to attend. There will be no registration fee.

Huss is becoming widely known throughout Oregon as he is heard on the Freedom Crusade broadcasts now being carried on three radio stations in Oregon.

WALTER HUSS

Included on the program for the Saturday seminar will be the newly released sound, color film strip entitled, "Communism on the Map." This film traces the growth of international communism, the encirclement and planned take-over of the United States, and carries a dramatic message for young and old.

The sound film, "Operation Abolition" will be shown at Klamath Temple at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, following the seminar. The public is also invited to view this startling film.

Pastor Harry M. Strachan of Klamath Temple will fill the pulpit at both services Sunday, Nov. 27. The morning sermon theme will be on "Reaffirming Our Faith." The Sunday evening service which starts at 7 p.m. will have an evangelistic message, "Almost Persuaded." The public is invited to all the services.

ENSHINED

England honored Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the poet, by placing a bust of him in the Poet's Corner in Westminster Abbey, an honor given to no other American.

Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Choir

Golden Gate Choir Presents Concert

The 21-voice Chapel Choir of Golden Gate Baptist Seminary, Mill Valley, Calif., will present a sacred concert at First Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 27, at 11 a.m.

The choir will present sacred numbers ranging from Negro spirituals to classics. Dr. Carlyle Bennett, director, stated. A quartet, women's ensemble, and men's chorus are also featured on the program.

On the tour, the choir will give nine concerts in seven days in California, Oregon, Washington, and Vancouver, B.C.

Last spring the choir presented 26 concerts in 11 states, as far east as Tennessee.

Dr. Bennett, professor of voice, conducting, and music administration, served on the faculties of Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Fort Worth, and California Baptist Seminary, Los Angeles, before coming to Golden Gate in 1953.

Mrs. Orine Suffern, instructor with the choir.

Reina Ann Hurlburt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hurlburt, Route 3, will be present with the choir.

Appreciation

Mr. and Mrs. John Pederson, superintendents of the Klamath Gospel Mission and their assistant, Jack Wright, express appreciation to all those who assisted in donations and preparation of food for the annual Thanksgiving dinner Thursday.

Seven turkeys, innumerable pies and cakes, vegetables and other items for the big dinner for those men without homes or money to eat, were prepared.

More than 100 men were served following Thanksgiving Day services in the chapel. John Pederson was in the pulpit.

Many individuals, civic and church groups helped with the dinner.

Best wool comes from the shoulders and sides of sheep. Wool grows coarser and less desirable farther back and lower down.

Willie W. White, well known Oregon Evangelist, will begin a series of meetings Sunday, Nov. 27, at the Suburban Christian Church, 5835 Shasta Way. Services will be held each night except Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m.

During the weeks of Nov. 27 through Dec. 4 and Dec. 11 through 18, there will be no services in the intervening week when the church will engage in a program of visitation. Mr. White will also speak at the 11 a.m. services each Sunday during the meetings.

A graduate of Northwest Christian College, he has had 10 years' experience in the work of evangelism, including a meeting with the First Christian Church of this community. He formerly ministered to congregations in Dufur, Sweet Home, Eugene, and Newberg.

A special program of music will be presented each week night of the meetings beginning at 7:25 with instrumental duets and featuring vocal numbers by individuals and groups from both the Suburban and First Christian churches. Congregational singing will be led by Charles Uhlig, with Mrs. Uhlig and Mrs. Fred Peters at the organ and piano.

Meet At Bly

BLY—Members of the Assembly of God churches of the Klamath Falls District will gather at the Bly Assembly of God Church on Dec. 5 for their sectional fellowship meeting which will start that afternoon at 2:30. An evening meal will be served by the host church at 5:30. Evening service will start at 7:30. There will be guest speakers from the different churches.

Save $5 - move yourself

RENT a new U-DRIVE truck

Local or Long Distance

- PICKUPS • VANS
- FLATBEDS
- Parts, Tires Available
- Beehive System

BEACON

SERVICE STATION

1201 E. Main TU 4-8394

Salvation Army Lists Assistance

In October the Salvation Army in restaurants, lodging in local area, including shoes, mattresses, grocery orders, a rent order for needy persons.

Maj. M. Lewis Kendall in reporting the expenditures said 259 transient men, seven local men, two single women, 18 transient families and two local families were assisted.

There were 85 single repeaters, two repeating families and 24 rejections.

The services of the Army also included 25 employment placements, six long distance telephone calls, 28 on cleanup of building and two referrals to the White Shield Home.

The corps officer gave 86 hours of counseling and 22 home calls were made.

Figures determined that the number of applications for assistance were eight per cent greater than for the same period last year.

The Thrift Shop gave away 276 garments, 22 pairs of shoes and a mattress valued at $88.

All aid is given without consideration of race or creed. When there is a need the Salvation Army endeavors to meet that need.

THE ATTRACTIVE new church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Mount Shasta was dedicated Oct. 23 with Elder Howard W. Hunter officiating. Hunter is one of the church's 12 Apostles. He was aided by resident manager Flake Willis of McCloud and Shasta manager, Warren W. Pugh, San Francisco. The building accommodates a sanctuary, kitchen and dining room. Some 200 members attended the dedication ceremony which is never held until all costs of construction have been met.

—Photo by J. O. McKinney.

Advent Workshop Planned

A second annual Advent Workshop is planned by the Sunday School staff of the Congregational Church at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 27.

The staff will meet with families in the joy of sharing Christmas ideas used in homes as family projects, including the making of decorations and the sharing of worship together in the home. The group will make decorations from a variety of materials including plaster casting and candles.

Participation in family groups is requested. There will be a charge to help pay for materials. Refreshments will be served. For further information call TU 4-4472 or TU 2-3278.

SOLDIER'S SUPPLIES

During World War II, for every soldier sent overseas, the U.S. Army initially sent six tons of equipment and supplies and an additional ton of supplies was sent overseas each month for his maintenance.

• People Read
SPOT ADS
— you are

Friendly
Helpfulness
To Every
Creed and Pursue
Ward's Klamath
Funeral Home
Marguerite M. Ward
and Sons
925 High TU 2-4404

First Church of Christ, Scientist

A Branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Mass.

Sunday Service 11:00 a.m.
Sunday School 11:00 a.m.

Wednesday Evening Testimony Meeting 8:00 O'Clock
Lesson-Sermon Subject, November 27
"ANCIENT AND MODERN NECROMANCY, ALIAS MESMERISM AND HYPNOTISM, DENOUNCED"

Golden Text: Matthew 24:4. Take heed that no man deceive you.
Nursery facilities available during church services.

treat your friends

as good as your family

MILK

is for moderns

TAKE A HOLIDAY FROM HOUSEWORK...

... "Make Your Home Happier With A New Appliance!"

A new appliance is your passport to more leisure—with time for relaxation and family fun. Best of all, this holiday lasts all year, and for years to come. So stop dreaming and start a gleaming new appliance working for you. It's easy. Just shop the pages of this newspaper for your best appliance values—then stop by your local appliance dealer's and make your selection. "Make Your Home Happier With A New Appliance"—today!

Herald and News