JUNIPER CLUB

Mrs. Carlos Linville, president of the Juniper Garden Club for the past year and a half, has resigned her position. The Linvilles have returned to Portland. Carlos Linville helped to organize the Bank of Klamath Falls, and has been the manager of that institution since its beginning.

Mrs. Glen Ferguson, vice president, will finish out the term for Mrs. Linville. A special meeting of the executive board of the Juniper Club was held on Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Ferguson on Lakeshore Drive. Mrs. Linville's letter of resignation was read and accepted with regret by the group. Mrs. Linville has done a great deal to build up the membership and interest in the club.

An evening affair on Monday, Nov. 21, at the Shasta Community Hall on Madison and Shasta Way, featured Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, who showed slides of her recent trip. Mrs. O'Connor's subject was "Wings Around the World."

The past presidents of the club were honored and the members of the Evergreen Garden Club were special guests.

Other activities of the Juniper Club during the months of October and November included attendance of several of the members at the fall district meeting of the Klamath District garden clubs, and a workday at Ward Park to finish cleaning out the iris beds.

ALTURAS CLUB

ALTURAS—Mrs. William Rush was the November hostess for the Alturas Garden Club at her attractive home on Main Street.

Mrs. Leo Gloster acted as president in the absence of Mrs. Richard Daft, and Mrs. Ralph Laird, secretary in the absence of Mrs. Guy Young.

Roll call was answered by the members telling their new ideas and plans for the coming Christmas idea show.

Most of the business centered around plans for the Christmas holidays. The theme for this year will be "The Sugar Plum Tea and Christmas Idea Show." It will be held on Friday, Dec. 9, at the St. Timothy Hall of the Catholic Church, and will open at 12 noon for the convenience of those who keep working hours.

Four members of the Alturas Club attended the Christmas Idea Show held last week in Oakland. Mrs. Fred Huffman, Mrs. H. G. Helms, Mrs. Guy Young and Mrs. C. W. Carstens. Mrs. Carstens gave a very interesting report to the club.

The Garden Club will sponsor the Christmas outdoor lighting again this year. On Monday, Nov. 28, Paul Golden of Copco will show colored moving pictures of outstanding Christmas indoor and outdoor lighting scenes taken from previous prize winners over a period of years. This will be held at the high school at 2 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Sponsorship of a Girl Scout troop was again voted and the money sent to Mrs. Clarice Lee, treasurer.

Mrs. L. J. Austin reported on the district meeting held recently at Midland. Both Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Rush stated that the meeting was a great success with Mrs. Chester Main, district director, in charge of the business and Mrs. M. England in charge of the demonstration program.

The members of the Alturas club are working diligently to bring the very newest and most artistic Christmas ideas in table settings, tree trimmings and other Christmas ideas to the people of Alturas and vicinity. The "Sugar Plum" idea offers a wide field for the expression of artistic achievement.

OLDEST INSTITUTION

Bethesda orphanage, in Savannah, Ga., was opened in 1740 and is the oldest such institution still in operation in the United States.
