Girl Scouts Honor Founder

Approximately 125 mothers and daughters attended the tea staged by the Girl Scouts of Falcon Heights neighborhood area Oct. 30 which honored the 100th birthday of the founder of Girl Scouts of America, Juliette Low.

Troops taking part in the event were 111, 112, 110, 101 and 108. The Halloween theme was used for decorating the Kingsley Field Officers Club for the party. Plans for the tea were made by Mrs. Ethelyn Kipping, neighborhood chairman at Falcon Heights. She was assisted by Mrs. Marge Nelson, Mrs. Jo Cook, Mrs. Lucille Bohnstedt, Mrs. Martha Davis, Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, Mrs. Eleanor Bell and Mrs. Irene Jeffcoat.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. Marge Nelson, Mrs. Pat Grimshaw and Mrs. Jo Cook. Girls assisting were Patsy Phipps and Roberta Bussell.

Mistress of ceremonies was Ellen Prybyla.

The flag ceremony was presented by Janies Barlow, Cara Jean

Kipping, Marcia Mast, Vicki Pradach, Christine Gruye, Karen Bell and Paula Ney.

Two young scouts, Ellen Prybyla, daughter of M. Sergeant and Mrs. Anthony F. Prybyla, and Christine Gruye, daughter of Major and Mrs. Curtis R. Gruye, were presented pins for five years participation in the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Harriet Brotherhood, national chapter representative to the Klamath Falls Council, made the awards.

Pins were also presented to new leaders and a number of one year scouts.

ALMONDS GRACE A CAKE

Spread a luscious coffee-cream frosting over white or chocolate angel food cake. Combine 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon instant coffee with 1 pint whipping cream in chilled bowl. Whip until stiff and spread over cake. Cover with chopped or slivered California almonds and shaved chocolate. So easy and so elegant.

Pioneer Couple Wed 50 Years

BONANZA—Mr. and Mrs. John McFall of Bonanza celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a dinner at Lucca's Cafe in Klamath Falls the evening of Nov. 11. Their guests were their two sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McFall, Lorna and Leah, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McFall, Nondice and Linda. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and Marie Raymond.

The table was centered with a three tiered white and gold decorated cake topped with a golden 50.

Mrs. McFall wore for the occasion a brown trimmed gold knit suit. Her four granddaughters presented her with an orchid corsage and her husband with a gold boutonniere.

Mrs. McFall is the former Mattie Brown, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown, moved to Bonanza from Woodburn in 1904. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McFall, who came John Marshall, appointed Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court in 1801, also wrote a five-volume biography of George Washington.

Bethel No. 61

Bethel No. 61, Order of Job's Daughters, was honored by the visitation of grand officers and guests at the meeting on Nov. 21, held at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Evelyn Sult, deputy grand guardian, and L. R. Manning, associate grand guardian of Oregon, were present for an official inspection. They were escorted to the East to be introduced by the honored queen, Nancy Hugelmann. Other guests presented were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Linda Heyden, honored queen and Joan Wizer, senior princess of Bethel No. 61; Patricia Anderson, past honored queen, Bethel No. 61; Helen Crapo, guardian, Bethel No. 61; Lorene McCollum, worthy matron and Dale Howell, worthy patron of Manzanita Chapter, OES, and Gus Vlahos, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge.

The ceremony of initiation was performed with Janell Telanga, Sally Jo Peace, and Nancy Wiehrdt becoming new members. The associate grand guardian extended greetings from the grand guardian of Oregon and presented the honored queen with a gift from her. The deputy grand guardian, Evelyn Sult, complimented the Bethel on the excellent work they were doing, and explained the details of the proficiency test now required by supreme. Honored Queen Nancy presented each of the grand officers with gifts from the Bethel. Esther Deen, librarian, read an appropriate poem, "Forget Not All His Benefits" by Della Leitner. Senior Princess Carolyn Osborn announced her project of a rummage sale, scheduled for Dec. 3 at the American Legion Club building.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall by Mrs. Bertha Neece, Mrs. Freda Sexton and the girls on the committee.
