

Sportsmen Opposing City Dam

SEATTLE (AP)—A sportsmen's group announced Saturday it will ask the state to start court action aimed at blocking completion of the city of Tacoma's Mayfield Dam on the Cowlitz River.

The move was reported after a meeting Friday night of the Washington State Sportsmen's Council.

The council acted after Tacoma announced it planned to complete the dam despite passage by the voters Nov. 8 of Initiative 25, prohibiting construction of high dams on nine tributaries of the lower Columbia River.

Tacoma contends it has prior state and federal approval to build the 185-foot-high Mayfield Dam. It is one of two dams planned by the city for power production.

The council voted Friday night to ask Atty. Gen. John J. O'Connell to start court action. It also will ask O'Connell to appoint Joseph Mijich of Seattle as special assistant attorney general to represent the state in the case.

Mijich is a council member who has represented the group in its intervention in the Nez Perce and High Mountain Sheep dam projects on the Snake River.

Robert E. Colwell of Seattle, chairman of the council's fisheries resources committee, said the chief purpose of the council's move is to test validity of the new initiative.

"The outcome of this case is of key importance," Colwell said. "This is a vital area in a part of the fish sanctuary created by the initiative."

He said the rivers involved provide about 40 per cent of the Columbia's Chinook salmon runs, 60 per cent of the silver runs and 100 per cent of the dog salmon runs.

Durno Plans Roving Aide

EUGENE (AP)—Rep.-elect Edwin Durno, D-Ore., wants former newspaperman William M. Tugman to conduct a roving office in the 4th Congressional District.

Durno said Friday that Tugman is willing to take the job which would require his traveling around the district to find out what are the people's problems.

The job apparently will depend on whether Durno can spend part of his $37,000 office expenses to pay for it.

Durno left Friday for a two-weeks vacation in Southern California.

Tugman is a former editor of the Eugene Register-Guard and the former publisher of a weekly newspaper at Reedsport.

Battle Seen For Minority

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There probably will be at least two candidates for the job of minority leader of the Oregon House of Representatives when GOP legislators hold their caucus at Salem Dec. 3.

The present minority leader, Rep. Robert L. Ellstrom of Salem, is convalescing from an illness and has not yet announced whether he wants the job again.

Rep. Harry C. Elliott said he will seek the post if Ellstrom bows out. Rep. F. F. Montgomery of Eugene said he will be a candidate regardless.

Rep. Robert Duncan, D - Medford, is expected to be re-elected speaker of the House. Sen Harry D. Botvin of Klamath Falls, said he has enough pledges to elect him president of the Senate.

Charges Filed In Bomb Case

BEAVERTON (AP)—Two men, accused of bombing the Beaverton sewage disposal plant a year ago, have been freed after posting $1,000 bail.

Charles Kornahrens of Beaverton and Jack Dean Pettibone of Portland, both 21, were charged Wednesday with injuring property by explosives.

Damage from the Nov. 1, 1959, blast was estimated at $1,500. Police said the explosion was caused by a bundle of dynamite sticks on a long fuse which was dropped into a manhole at the plant.

BURGLARS BURROW LONGMONT, Colo. Burglars here found a new way to gain entrance to a market, ing the doors, windows, walls and roof. Emulating moles, they got under the floor of the market and used a brace, bit and saw to cut an opening and gain entrance. Stolen were 50 cartons of cigarettes.
