

College Coed Loves To Jump

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)— "It was wonderful. I loved it," said Jackie Venable, 18, a 108-pound college coed, moments after her first parachute jump.

"I didn't even feel a jerk," the pig-tailed blonde added. "It was just great."

Her parents were less enthusiastic about Jackie's leap Sunday from 2,500 feet in the air. Her mother couldn't watch, though her father, Doyle Venable of North Little Rock, joined about 2,000 bystanders.

Her parents had agreed to let Jackie jump just once with the Arkansas Tech Parachute Club, a group of sky-divers who bail out of airplanes for fun. It was the club's 100th jump and the first by a girl.

Said Jackie, "I'm going to try to talk my parents into letting me do it again."
