TO VISIT ALGERIA

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle will go to Algeria to explain his plans for the rebellious territory on Dec. 8 if it was announced today after a Cabinet meeting.

The Cabinet did not set a firm date for the national referendum on De Gaulle's policy of giving Algeria a self-government, but agreed to do so at next week's meeting.

Information Minister Louis Terrenure said, however, that Jan. 6 was the most likely date.
