Two Honored At Coffee Hour

Mrs. Kenneth Lambie and Mrs. Everett Dennis were hostesses at a coffee Nov. 29 at the Lambie home, 2545 Homedale Road, in honor of Mrs. Roderick Hinman and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend.

Mrs. Hinman, who have been in the ranching business most of their 11 years in Oregon, are moving to Turlock where he is now associated with the Turlock Community Hospital. Mrs. Townsend will make her home with her daughter and son-in-law in that San Joaquin Valley city.

Mrs. Hinman has been actively affiliated in Klamath Falls with the Congregational Church, the Unitarian Fellowship, the Klamath Chapter of United Nations and the NAACP.

The Hinmans' son, Cameron, is a graduate of Klamath Union High School. He is now studying pre-medicine at the University of Oregon where he is a member of Chi Psi Lodge, Astoria, and this South Carolina city.

Klamath Salon Conducts Business

Klamath Salon 355, 8 and 40, met at the home of Mrs. Fred Heilbrunner Wednesday evening, Nov. 30, with President Mrs. Carl Schubert conducting the meeting. Mrs. A. Petersteiner, child welfare chairman, read a letter of appreciation from the Denver TB Hospital for the crib quilts received from the salon. She thanked the members for the many cuddle toys on display which were to be sent to the Denver hospital. The salon agreed to give a generous donation to the department for the TB Nurses Scholarship.

Mrs. John Glubrecht, executive member, reported on her trip to the department executive meeting which was held in Salem. The meeting, held in the Marion Motor Hotel, was preceded by a noon luncheon in the Chemeketa Room. The decor for the occasion was in autumn and Thanksgiving ideas. Arrangements were made for the annual Christmas party for members and their husbands. It will be held in Tulelake Sunday, Dec. 11, at the Sportsman Hotel. Arrangements for a social hour and dinner are to be made by the Tulelake members.

After the meeting adjourned the fun chairman, Mrs. James Fowler, conducted games for the remainder of the evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Motschenbacher, Mrs. O'Loughlin, Mrs. James Fowler and Mrs. Fred Heilbrunner.

Correct way for women to salute the American flag is by placing the right hand over the heart.

Tulelake OES Seats Officers

TULELAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Burton DeGraw have been installed as worthy patron and worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Canby Cross Masonic Lodge. The impressive ceremony was held in the Masonic Hall on Nov. 4 with some 150 guests from the Klamath Basin and elsewhere present for the installation and reception that followed.

Their two sons, Burton Jr., student at Shasta Junior College, Redding, and Dean, in the Tulelake Elementary School, escorted their parents to their stations.

Included in the ceremony was the reading of a passage in Proverbs, "The Mother's Lecture to the Son."

Theme of Mrs. DeGraw's term in office is "Trust in the Lord with All Thy Heart." She was presented with a handsome bouquet of yellow spider chrysanthemums tied with her colors, royal blue and emerald green, by Dean, who also presented his father with a boutonniere.

Mrs. DeGraw was gown in a floor-length dress of brocade royal blue satin.

Also installed were Associate Matron and Patron Ruth and Arlen Rodenberger; M'Lisse Rudessill, conductress; Faye Schirrmann, associate conductress; Florence Short, secretary; William McBride, treasurer; Kay Paulson, organist; Edna Jamison, marshal.

Joan Haskins, Ada; Georgette Kirby, Ruth; Joanne Edwards, Esther; Elvira Powell, Martha; Edna Scott, Electa; Mae Moore, warder; Earl Ager, sentinel; flag-bearer, Gertrude Wolfe.

Installing officers Lorraine Reinmiller and William McBride, matron and patron; Anna Roper, organist; Bessie Roath, chaplain; Alice Wilkinson, secretary; Gertrude Wolfe and Bernice Newton, marshals. Hosts were Kathryn and Chester Stoneypher.

During the reception downstairs, arranged by the members of the past matrons club, Bessie Roath and Gertrude Wolfe were at the silver services.

The table was centered with two bronze cherubs, bronze tapers in crystal candelabra encircled at the bases with the new worthy matron's colors, and a cake.

Toastmistresses Attend Meeting

Ewauna Toastmistress members met at the Willard Hotel Monday, Nov. 28, at 7:30.

Vice President Donna Journey presided in the absence of the president, Ramona Smith.

Introductions were a followup on last meeting's table topics, how to introduce another speaker.

Table topics were in the form of a grab-bag. After "grabbing" an article, members were asked to use their imaginations in presenting the topics.

Toastmistress Rowena McDonald used the theme, "I've Got the World on a String" in keeping with the term theme "Sing a Song of Toastmistresses."

An interesting part of the program was the feature of personal grooming. Pat of Vous Charme gave practical tips and a demonstration on hair styling.

Norma Hansen and Marion Miller had prepared a debate on "Daylight Savings Time versus Standard Time." The third in a series on "Orientation Makes the Difference" was presented by Margaret Davis. The lesson was titled "Education for the Table Topic Participants." Beverly Ellis was timer and Norma Goldsby was lexicologist and grammarian.

A new member, Margaret Gelhaar, was inducted into the club. Anyone interested in this type of self-improvement is cordially invited to attend Toastmistress Meetings are the second and fourth Mondays at 7:30 at the Willard Hotel.

MR. AND MRS. BURTON DeGRAW were installed as worthy patron and worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Nov. 4 at impressive ceremonies in the Tulelake Masonic Hall.
