

HOME EXTENSION

ADVISORY COMMITTEE help with the district meeting held in Grants Pass in September.

County Advisory Committee for Home Extension met Nov. 15 at Joan's Kitchen. Present were Ruth Dyer, Beulah Kloiber, Margaret Freuer, Mildred Marten, Eula Prough and a new member, Mildred Cooper, who replaces Marion Pratt.

Ruth Dyer gave a report of her activities for the month. A new unit has been formed at Crescent for very young homemakers who call themselves the "Crescent Nightouts."

Mrs. Dyer also reported much interest shown on the wild game cookery projects. She has shown slides of cutting up deer to most all units during the month.

Leader training meetings for fabric identification are scheduled for Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1.

A letter was read from Bea Alstrom thanking the committee for Festival planning will start at the next meeting. Slips handed out should be in the office by that time.

Plans were discussed for the tailoring workshop in February. Also dates were set for parent-teenage relationship leader meetings on Jan. 17, 18 and 19.

Margaret Freuer reported on civil defense, citizenship and health and safety. Mildred Cooper was asked to make a report on traffic safety at the next meeting.

Kathryn Billings reported on Azalea House. She asked for members to collect coupons for more silverware.

Pansy Jackson told of 4-H achievement nights and the need for more leaders.

Bethel No. 61 Elects Officers

Bethel No. 61, Order of Job's Daughters, elected officers at the meeting on Dec. 5 in the Scottish Rite Temple with Nancy Hugelmann, honored queen, in charge.

Officers elected for the new term starting in January are honored queen, Carolyn Osborn; senior princess, Susan Runge; junior princess, Susan Parisotto; guide, Cheryl Ball, and marshal, Nancy McClure.

Reports were given on projects the Bethel members have been conducting, including the candy sale, hat check at the Shrine dance and the rummage sale, project of the senior princess, Carolyn Osborn. Sale of the cookbooks, project of the honored queen, was also planned and a committee appointed for a cake and candy sale.

The next meeting on Dec. 19 will be a Christmas party with gift exchange and also the birthday of the Bethel will be celebrated. Plans for the party were explained by the guardian, Natalia Reichenberg, who also announced a no-host dinner at the Winema Hotel for all council members Dec. 9, at 6:30 p.m.

Esther Deen, librarian, read an appropriate poem on Christmas by Ruth Proctor.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES

Whether for gifts, guests or the family, holiday cookies are a favorite food this time of year. Make tender, crunchy holiday cookies by using lard as the shortening, says the American Meat Institute. You'll find that cookies made with lard keep well, too.

MOUNT SHASTA—The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kleinschmidt, 304 Perry Street in Mount Shasta, was the setting for an open house Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 30, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

The rooms were banked with large bouquets of flowers as the home of the bride's parents had been a half century ago for their wedding in Elgin, Ill.

The couple was attended at their marriage by the bride's sister, Mrs. Georgian Breslich of Elgin and Fresno, and John Van Burkum of Holland, now residing in Glen Ellen, Ill.

The Kleinschmidts resided in Chicago for 27 years following their wedding. During that time they participated in many civic, opera productions and musical events. Mrs. Kleinschmidt was connected with the I Am Temple of Music in Chicago. At present she is organist in the Mount Shasta I Am Sanctuary.

The couple has traveled extensively abroad and has had 35 different addresses before coming to Mount Shasta to reside three years ago.

A son, Jay Barney Kleinschmidt of New York, is their only child. He appears in motion pictures, on television and on the stage.
