Cloak And Dagger Rule

Grid Camps Closed To Visitors As SF, Green Bay Get Ready

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The cloak and dagger movements of the San Francisco Forty Niners and the Green Bay Packers took on the aspects of World War III today as the two grid powers prepared to play for the Western Division lead in the National League on Saturday.

Both camps were shut down to visitors, spies were in every tree and photographers were about as popular as an alien with a camera in World War II.

In fact, the whole affair got so out of hand that Green Bay was hiring a guard to go around the Stanford practice field and spit tobacco juice in the knot holes.

Paul Gorman, United Press International photographer, found this out when he tried to get some pictures from long range. When he finally snapped one, it immediately was grabbed by one of the Packer guards.

"The worst part of it was that on the roll of film were several pictures of the Forty Niners in action with their shot-gun offense," said Gorman.

Phil Bengston, former Forty Niner defensive coach and now handling the same job for the Packers, was elated at the news that the film had been captured.

"We better get that film developed right away," said Bengston, "so we can take a look at what they are doing."

Bengston admitted that the Packers were practicing on defense against the new Forty Niner shot-gun offense behind the locked doors.

"Our offense has been running from the shot-gun offense," said Phil. "And our defense has been working hard to stop them.

"Maybe by the time the game starts on Saturday we'll have that shot-gun offense down so pat that our offensive team will use it against San Francisco."

Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers wasn't in as good a frame of mind as Bengston. Asked about the condition of his players, Lombardi snapped:

"They're all right."

Does this mean that every man was in condition to play?

"It just means they are all right," he snapped again.

The Forty Niner security guard was just as tough. Before a local newsman could be admitted, he was sworn into secrecy. "Foreign" newsmen—those from Milwaukee—were not admitted.

Remember the good old days? When there was freedom of the press?

Wildcats Top Irish Sixth Straight Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Kentucky Wildcats may, or may not, win their 20th Southeastern Conference basketball title this season—but Coach Adolph Frederick Rupp certainly has had Notre Dame's number for nine years.

Baron Rupp's Wildcats, deprived of their 20th conference crown now for two years, survived a shaky start and beat Notre Dame Wednesday night 68-62. It was the first defeat in three games for the Irish, and the sixth straight loss to Kentucky since Johnny Jordan became Notre Dame coach in 1951.

Notre Dame ran up a 16-7 lead in the first half in the game at Louisville. Then Kentucky began to move, and trailed only 34-32 at halftime.

Billy Lickert, who led Wildcat scoring with 21 points, sent his team ahead in the second half but after Notre Dame tied the score the Irish lost one of their stars—John Dearie —with 14:42 to go. Two other Irish also fouled out. John Tully socred 18 points for Notre Dame, Carl Roesler, 17.

Undefeated Oklahoma City edged Texas 53-49 at Austin, giving the Chiefs their third straight victory over a Southwest Conference team. Southern Methodist and Texas Christian were previous victims. Texas had won two straight.

Virginia Tech, a top contender for the Southern Conference title, opened its season with an easy 76-54 victory over Richmond.

Barnstorming Utah State was wrecked by Nebraska's Tommy Russell in the last 11 seconds, after leading 33-31 at the half. With the score tied, Russell got two field goals and a free throw to beat the Aggies 65-60.

Utah, defending Skyline Conference champions, harpooned Evansville (Indiana) 132-77, with a record scoring assault. Five years ago the Utes ran up 119 against Arizona.

Yale, winner of two games, met its first defeat as Fordham opened its season with a 71-61 victory.

Hawaiians Enthusiastic About PCL

SEATTLE (UPI) — Great enthusiasm exists in Hawaii for Pacific Coast League baseball, two Hawaiian representatives said here Wednesday.

Mackay Yanagisawa, manager of the Honolulu Stadium and Ralph Munro Matsumura said they had no doubt that the new Honolulu entry in the PCL would draw well.

"We believe it will start a new era for our state and will familiarize more people with our wonderful climate," said Yanagisawa. "We expect tourist business to increase."

Neither would speculate on who will get the Honolulu franchise.

Tuesday, the two took a close look at Cheney Field, home of the Tacoma Giants, and Sicks' Stadium, the ball park of the Seattle Rainiers.

In Seattle, they checked the field, press box, commissary and pronounced Sicks' Stadium just what they are looking for.

Honolulu Stadium, where the newest PCL entry will play, already somewhat resembles Sicks' Stadium, said Yanagisawa, but will need some adjustment to bring it up to PCL caliber.

Honolulu Stadium's right field is but 302 feet from home plate and to the left field fence it is 320 feet. Present plans call for home plate to be moved back to get a distance of 330 feet to each wall.

Ducks Work On Weekend

EUGENE (AP)—The University of Oregon football squad, getting ready for the Liberty Bowl game Dec. 17, will practice right on through the coming weekend.

Coach Len Casanova said he decided on Saturday and Sunday practice sessions in order to give the players next Monday and Tuesday off for final examinations.

A second player was injured in practice Wednesday. He is end Paul Bauge, who suffered a twisted knee. Bauge said he thought it only a minor sprain. The earlier injury was to tackle Dennis Prozinski's foot. He also said he thought it minor.

The Liberty Bowl game will match Oregon against Penn State at Philadelphia.

UW Gridders Top Choices In Big Five

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Five Washington players, three of them unanimous choices, were named to the All Big Five Conference football team selected Wednesday by the league's coaches.

Picked by all five coaches were center Roy McKasson, guard Chuck Allen and halfback Don McKeta. Also unanimous choices were quarterback Bill Kilmer and end Marv Luster of UCLA.

Kurt Gegner of Washington and Marshall Shirk of UCLA each drew four votes for the tackle spots.

Thirteen men were named to the squad because there was a three-way tie for fullback among Ray Jackson of Washington, George Pierovich of California and Skip Face of Stanford.

The Big Five coaches all conference first team:

Ends—Luser, UCLA, and Marlin McKeever, Southern California.

Tackles—Kurt Gegner, Washington, and Marshall Shirk, UCLA.

Guards—Chuck Allen, Washington, and Jack Metcalf, UCLA.

Center—Roy McKasson, Washington.

Quarterback — Bill Kilmer, UCLA.

Halfbacks—Don McKeta, Washington, and George Fleming, Washington.

Fullback—Skip Face, Stanford; George Pierovich, California, and Ray Jackson, Washington. (Three-way tie).

The second team:

Ends—Pat Claridge, Washington; Earl Smith, UCLA, and Dave Washington, Southern California. (Smith-Washington tie).

Tackles — Steve Bauwens, UCLA; Jeff Snow, California, and Mike Bundra, Southern California, (Snow-Bundra tie).

Guards—Bill Kinnune, Washington, and Roger Mietz, Southern California.

Center—Harry Baldwin, UCLA.

Quarterback—Randy Gold, California.

Halfbacks—Jim Johnson, UCLA; Charlie Mitchell, Washington, and Gene Gaines, UCLA. (Mitchell-Gaines tie).

Honorable mentions in the coaches' balloting went to:

Ends — Tom Bates, California, and Lee Folkins, Washington. Tackles—Dean Hinshaw, Stanford; Barry Bullard and Ben Davidson of Washington, and John Bebelaar, California. Guards—Mike McKeever and Britt Williams, Southern California, and Dave Dabov, UCLA. Center—Dick Carlsen, California. Backs—Bob Schloredt and Bob Hivner, Washington, Steve Bates, California, and Dick Norman, Stanford.

Uclan '11' Shares Lead With Huskies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Washington and UCLA, one-two in the 1960 Big Five football standings, shared the conference's statistical honors in figures released Thursday.

The Bruins of UCLA led the league in total offense and total defense. The Huskies paced the loop in rushing offense and rushing defense.

Stanford, the team that didn't win a game all year, gained the most yards passing—1,313—but allowed the most interceptions (16), collected but five touchdowns on 110 completions and finished fourth in passing percentage with .444.

California was rated the Big Five's best club on pass defense since the Bears allowed but 1,072 yards through the air but these figures also were deceptive. Cal had the league's poorest rushing defense, allowing an average of 239 yards a game on the ground.

Washington and UCLA, the conference powers, compiled most of their yardage on the ground. The Huskies netted 2,186 yards rushing and 999 passing. The Bruins edged them in total figures, though, with 2,044 on the ground and 1,183 through the air.

As further evidence that statistics can often be made to prove virtually anything, Washington, listed last in the Big Five passing defense ranking because the Huskies allowed 1,577 yards in the air, limited opposing passers to just .475 per cent completions—least in the league.

This can be explained by the Huskies' fine rushing defense, which forced opponents to pass more than they would have ordinarily. And the Huskies' fleet backs picked off 21 interceptions—showing they were no soft touch at all

PANTHERS BOWL-BOUND

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Coach Johnny Michelosen announced today that five Pittsburgh football players will appear in post season games.
