Tulake Couples Mark Fortieth Wedding Dates

The fortieth wedding anniversaries of two well known Tulake couples and longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, were celebrated at an open house Sunday, Nov. 20.

The affair was held at the Tulake home of the Campbells' daughter, Mrs. Betty Kelly, who was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer of Tulake, Navy Petty Officer and Mrs. Don Markham of Concord and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas Jr., daughters and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

A buffet was served to more than 300 guests who attended between the hours of 2 and 8 p.m. Carrying out the ruby theme of the fortieth anniversary year, decorations were in red. Ruby red dogwood branches tied with green ribbon leaves were fashioned into a small money tree for each couple. Red carnations flanked by tall

Hawaiian Honeymoon Follows November Rites

Double ring rites in Mt. Laki Community Presbyterian Church Wednesday, Nov. 23, united in marriage Mrs. Betty E. Hromada and Ralph A. Hill, who flew the

Home Rites Unite Couple

YREKA—Patricia McCurdy recently became the bride of Jerry Fetters of Montague in a ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCurdy.

The 7 o'clock single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Harold C. Coleman of the Yreka Methodist Church in a floral setting of white chrysanthemums, pink-tone chrysanthemums and white candles in silver candelabra decorated the mantel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over satin sheath. The bodice, which was trimmed with tiny satin bows, featured cap sleeves and a portrait neckline. A tailored satin bow held her shoulder length veil and she wore a pink carnation corsage.

Judy Jolley, sole attendant to the bride, wore a beige sheath with matching jacket in broad satin, complemented with blue accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Gary Walters of Montague attended the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCurdy chose a beige brocade sheath dress with a jacket, and black accessories. Mrs. Grace Fetters of Montague, mother of the bridegroom, also wore a beige sheath with jacket, with black accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

The wedding was attended by relatives and a few close friends. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCurdy of Montague, grandparents of the bride.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Fetters cut the initial slice of a beautifully decorated three-tier cake, after which it was cut and served by Mrs. Jack Nelson.

Coffee was poured by Mrs. Gerald Neuschwander, Mrs. Walter Anderson presided at the punch bowl. Guests were registered by Virginia Flook.

The newlyweds are now residing in Yreka.

The new Mrs. McCurdy is a graduate of Yreka High School with the class of 1960. Her husband was graduated from Yreka High School in 1957, and is an employee of the Hi-Ridge Lumber Company in Montague.

Christmas Program Library Club Plans

A Christmas program is to be presented to the community by the Klamath Falls Library Club at its next meeting Monday, Dec. 12, at 2 p.m. in the library club rooms. Mrs. R. T. Lindley, president, extends a special invitation to all women of the Klamath Basin to attend. All past presidents will be especially honored at this meeting.

Mrs. Art Moore, program chairman, has arranged for special Christmas music by Klamath Union High School students under the direction of Dale Hallack. Featured in the program will be instrumental music and selections by the Madrigal Singers, newly organized group of high school singers.

Mrs. Joy Walker and Mrs. L. D. Leslie will greet members and guests at the door and Mrs. L. E. Spence and her committee will be in charge of the tea.

The holiday decorations will be

Rebekah Lodge

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 held a regular meeting Dec. 1 at the IOOF Hall with Olive Hanna, vice grand, conducting in the absence of noble grand, Helen Blanas.

Plans were formulated for the lodge to help a needy family already selected at Christmas time and members were asked to bring donations of clothing and food to the next meeting on Dec. 15. Genevieve Pierce qualified in her work as vice grand-elect before the lodge and district deputy, Velma Krause.

Rebekah Social Club will hold its annual Christmas potluck dinner on Monday, Dec. 19, at 12:30 p.m. in the IOOF Hall. All members are invited to attend, bringing a gift for exchange and a polluck dish.

Olive Hanna, noble grand-elect, announced her installation for Saturday, Jan. 14, at 8 p.m. in the hall.

A coffee hour was held after the meeting with Genevieve Pierce, Reith Kirby and Olive Hanna serving on the committee.

Engagement Is Announced

LAKEVIEW—Of interest to local friends is the recent announcement of the engagement of Irene Margaret Sturza to William D. Barry made by her mother, Mrs. August Sturza.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Washington State University and is now employed as Whatcom County extension agent. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Barry and the late M. P. J. Barry of Lakeview. He is a graduate of Lakeview High School and Oregon State College and is continuing studies at Washington State University where he is a senior in veterinary medicine.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Tulelake Reunion Attracts Alumni

TULELAKE — Alumni of Tulelake High School graduating classes of 1940, 1941 and 1942 had a homecoming Nov. 26, gathering from homes in Oregon, California, Arizona and Idaho for a weekend of social affairs and reminiscing.

Seventy five members including wives and husbands of former students were present for the smorgasbord and dance at the Sportsman's Hotel.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Reiben, Tulelake, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pesce, Sacramento, and Sidney Lang, Bakersfield. Mrs. Pesce is the former Marie Chiarucci, member of the faculty and senior class adviser, Reiben was the high school's first principal and Lang was band leader.

Mrs. Estil Allison made arrangements for arrival of the class of 1940, Mr. and Mrs. George Birtwistle and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crawford for 1941 and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Callas for the class of 1942.

The reunion was proposed by Virginia Jones Mangan of Sacramento, formerly of Tulelake.
