

Italians End US Cup Bid

PERTH, Australia (AP)—Italy's veteran combination of Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola rose to tennis heights today and abruptly ended the United States bid for the Davis Cup with surprise victories in the final two singles matches of the interzone final.

As Pietrangeli defeated 20-year-old Earl (Butch) Buchholz of St. Louis 6-1, 6-2, 6-8, 3-6, 6-4 and towering Sirola soundly whipped 25-year-old Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, 9-7, 6-3, 8-6, the U.S. failed to reach the challenge round for the first time since 1936.

For Pietrangeli and Sirola it capped 10 years of cup play and gave Italy the right to challenge for the coveted international trophy for the first time in history. They meet Australia at Sydney Dec. 26-28.

Down 2-0 after Buchholz had beaten Sirola and MacKay had taken a heartbreaker from Pietrangeli in the opening singles, the Italians came back and won the doubles Sunday after a tense five-set struggle with the U.S. schoolboy combination of Buchholz and Chuck McKinley.

Even then they were not given much chance of beating the youth-inspired American team. But Pietrangeli squared the series by whipping Buchholz in a thrilling five setter. Still the Americans were favored even though MacKay had lost to Sirola the last time they met in the 1959 French championships.

Sirola, however, was far from saved at the American's big game. He stood MacKay off until he pulled out the deuced first set, whipped through the second with two breaks of the American's service and then wrapped it up in a hard fought third set.

Rodriguez, Griffith Set

NEW YORK (UPI)—Top contender Luis Rodriguez of Cuba and fourth-ranked Emilio Griffith of New York will fight Saturday in a TV 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden for the right to a March shot at Benny (Kid) Paré's welterweight crown.

Paré of Cuba made a successful first defense of his 147-pound championship at the Garden last Saturday night by winning a unanimous 15-round decision over slugger Federico Thompson of Argentina, who took a blood-bath during the bout.

Harry Markson, general manager of the Madison Square Garden Boxing Club, announced Sunday that, although Paré craves a shot at Gene Fullmer's portion of the middleweight crown, he is willing to defend his own title against the Rodriguez-Griffith winner while waiting for Fullmer negotiations to jell.

Either Rodriguez or Griffith would make a good challenger for the relentless Paré, who decisively snapped Slugger Thompson's unbeaten string at 32 straight bouts in their return fight Saturday.

Rodriguez, Griffith Set

NEW YORK (UPI)—Top contender Luis Rodriguez of Cuba and fourth-ranked Emilio Griffith of New York will fight Saturday in a TV 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden for the right to a March shot at Benny (Kid) Paré's welterweight crown.

Paré of Cuba made a successful first defense of his 147-pound championship at the Garden last Saturday night by winning a unanimous 15-round decision over slugger Federico Thompson of Argentina, who took a blood-bath during the bout.

Harry Markson, general manager of the Madison Square Garden Boxing Club, announced Sunday that, although Paré craves a shot at Gene Fullmer's portion of the middleweight crown, he is willing to defend his own title against the Rodriguez-Griffith winner while waiting for Fullmer negotiations to jell.

Either Rodriguez or Griffith would make a good challenger for the relentless Paré, who decisively snapped Slugger Thompson's unbeaten string at 32 straight bouts in their return fight Saturday.

Toronto Ace Sees Stardom

By United Press International

Frank Mahovlich, only 13 years old when he first attracted the attention of the Toronto Maple Leafs, today appears headed for the stardom predicted for him years ago.

Now 22, the husky forward scored four goals Sunday night to pace Toronto to a 6-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks and undisputed possession of second place in the National Hockey League.

The red-hot Montreal Canadiens toppled Detroit, 5-1, and the Boston Bruins and New York Rangers played to a 2-2 tie in other Sunday action.

Shasta Bears Trip Indians

MOUNT SHASTA (Special)—The Mount Shasta Bears and Happy Camp Indians played a close first half here Saturday night but the Bears ran away and hid in the second half and emerged with a 57-37 basketball victory.

The Indians, paced by high scoring center Bob Wostenburg, trailed 19-24 at the half. Coach Ronald Jackson's Mount Shasta quintet came out hungry for the second half and displayed some fancy shooting to move out ahead 42-26. Substitutes played out the game and increased the lead to 20 points.

Mount Shasta's jumping jack forward, Dana Abbe, poured 17 counters through the hoop to lead Bear scorers. Tom McHugh, showing great improvement, hit for nine points and Dennis Cross and Bob Marchi added eight each.

The Bears are 3-0 for the season and lead the Siskiyou County League with a 2-0 mark. Mount Shasta also won the JV game, 35-33.

Heavy Camo (27)—Wostenburg 24, Alexander 7, Anderson 2, Guttus 4, Cook, Barney.

Mount Shasta (57)—Hough 5, Cross 8, Stewart 4, Abbe 17, McHugh 9, Hill, McGowan 4, Marchi 8, Torsen 2.

OSC Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

These kids do it every day. There was a night during the Coral Gables tournament when an old timer, walking out in the shades of evening, saw a half dozen of them still hitting shots.

Names Young Pros

"In my time," he said, "we'd have been in the bar long ago."

"We have a flock of young pros on the tour, any one of them able to win any tournament that comes along," Raynor explains.

He lists a few of them. Guys like Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; Dave Hill of Denver; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Jerry Pittman of Tulsa; Dave Marr of Houston; Al Geberger of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Tom Garrity, 21-year-old out of Kansas City who has been in three tournaments—and been in the money in each of them.

The answer is collegiate golf—and junior golf programs.

"Arnold Palmer gave the young man's trend its greatest impetus," says Raynor. "Now he has gone farther and endowed two college scholarships this year for young golfers. Many colleges are giving golf scholarships. The PGA is very active in promoting junior programs and the Western Golf Association has done a fine job with its caddie scholarship plan."

Competition Expanding

Intercollegiate—and even high school—competition has expanded to an amazing degree and colleges have finally started hiring top pros as tutors, as in the case of Henry Ransom at Texas A&M, and George Hall at Cornell.

So you're a young man getting out of college and you're a fine golfer.

Well, in 1961 the professional tour will be playing for a total of $1,600,000 in prizes. Not gold watches and medals, son. But solid, hard, spendable cash. That's up $200,000 over last year, and to boot, where else can you keep a sun tan all year round?

Herald and News SPORTS

WAYNE SCOTT, Sports Editor

Monday, December 12, 1960

WINS DECISION — Chiloquin Boys Club amateur fighter, young Ray DeBortoli, 100 pounds, successfully defended his Oregon Novice championship Saturday night when the Chiloquin squad hosted a Knott Street (Portland) Community Center contingent.

CBC Battlers Stage Fight Fan Pleaser

CHILQUIN (Special)—An enthusiastic 400 fight fans crowded into the Chiloquin High School gymnasium Saturday night to watch a 10-bout amateur boxing show sponsored by Lou Jones' Chiloquin Boys Club. All proceeds from the fight card, which featured five boys from Portland's Knott Street Community Center, went to the Chiloquin Boys Club. Jones said he was pleased at public response and he said "the fighters rewarded them with everything they had."

Four awards were presented at the close of the show by Jones and Knott Street coach Dave Peters. Bert Farris of Chiloquin and Pete Gonzales of Portland won sportsmanship awards while Leon Weeks of Chiloquin and Ralph Wright of Portland received awards presented for the best performance of the evening. All five Portland fighters received medals on behalf of the Chiloquin club.

Several Klamath area men donated their time to the amateur show. Harold Sliger and Roland Clark, both of Klamath Falls, and Bob Barney of Sprague River were the judges. Kingsley Field sergeants Ralph Baker and Johnny Thompson were the referees. Bill Wampler was timekeeper and Dr. R. I. Kerwood was the attending physician.

The main event featured a rematch of state 125-pound amateur champion Farris and Gonzales. Gonzales won a close decision to even his score with Farris, who whipped him in Portland recently for the championship. Another crowd pleasing fight was the toe-to-toe slugfest between Weeks and Wright in the 135-pound division. Weeks got the judges' nod.

Shasta Bears Trip Indians

MOUNT SHASTA (Special)—The Mount Shasta Bears and Happy Camp Indians played a close first half here Saturday night but the Bears ran away and hid in the second half and emerged with a 57-37 basketball victory.

The Indians, paced by high scoring center Bob Wostenburg, trailed 19-24 at the half. Coach Ronald Jackson's Mount Shasta quintet came out hungry for the second half and displayed some fancy shooting to move out ahead 42-26. Substitutes played out the game and increased the lead to 20 points.

Mount Shasta's jumping jack forward, Dana Abbe, poured 17 counters through the hoop to lead Bear scorers. Tom McHugh, showing great improvement, hit for nine points and Dennis Cross and Bob Marchi added eight each.

The Bears are 3-0 for the season and lead the Siskiyou County League with a 2-0 mark. Mount Shasta also won the JV game, 35-33.

Heavy Camo (27)—Wostenburg 24, Alexander 7, Anderson 2, Guttus 4, Cook, Barney.

Mount Shasta (57)—Hough 5, Cross 8, Stewart 4, Abbe 17, McHugh 9, Hill, McGowan 4, Marchi 8, Torsen 2.

OSC Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

These kids do it every day. There was a night during the Coral Gables tournament when an old timer, walking out in the shades of evening, saw a half dozen of them still hitting shots.

Names Young Pros

"In my time," he said, "we'd have been in the bar long ago."

"We have a flock of young pros on the tour, any one of them able to win any tournament that comes along," Raynor explains.

He lists a few of them. Guys like Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; Dave Hill of Denver; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Jerry Pittman of Tulsa; Dave Marr of Houston; Al Geberger of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Tom Garrity, 21-year-old out of Kansas City who has been in three tournaments—and been in the money in each of them.

The answer is collegiate golf—and junior golf programs.

"Arnold Palmer gave the young man's trend its greatest impetus," says Raynor. "Now he has gone farther and endowed two college scholarships this year for young golfers. Many colleges are giving golf scholarships. The PGA is very active in promoting junior programs and the Western Golf Association has done a fine job with its caddie scholarship plan."

Competition Expanding

Intercollegiate—and even high school—competition has expanded to an amazing degree and colleges have finally started hiring top pros as tutors, as in the case of Henry Ransom at Texas A&M, and George Hall at Cornell.

So you're a young man getting out of college and you're a fine golfer.

Well, in 1961 the professional tour will be playing for a total of $1,600,000 in prizes. Not gold watches and medals, son. But solid, hard, spendable cash. That's up $200,000 over last year, and to boot, where else can you keep a sun tan all year round?

Former Halfback Nabs 1st

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (UPI)—Young Bob Goaly of Belleville, Ill., boasted the second victory of his three-year pro career today after capturing the Coral Gables Open golf championship with a 12-under par 272 which ran his year-long money-winnings to a satisfying $24,308.

Goaly, returning to the tour after a three-month layoff with a pulled muscle, in the second start of his comeback, fired a final round 33-47 on the finely-conditioned Coral Gables Golf Club course to nip veteran Dow Finsterwald by one stroke.

It was a story of a win—and a loss.

Because another veteran, triple Purple Heart winner Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., set out in the last round with a comfortable two-stroke lead over Finsterwald with Goaly another shot back.

Kroll went out in three-under par 32 Sunday and seemed to have it locked up—but then his putting went sour and he came home with a frightful 40 to wind up a disappointed third by two strokes.

It was close, too, for the 25-year old Goaly.

His caddy inadvertently stumbled over his ball on the final green and the former Illinois halfback was assessed a one-shot penalty.

But he got down in two to pick up the $2,800 first money.

Arnold Palmer, the Pennsylvania strongman who set a new all-time one year money-winning record in 1960, had small solace. He finished with a two-over par 73 and a 281 total, nine strokes off the pace. He picked up $7,302 to run his official total of $74,532 won this year, with the unofficial amount over $60,000.

But he got down in two to pick up the $2,800 first money.

Arnold Palmer, the Pennsylvania strongman who set a new all-time one year money-winning record in 1960, had small solace. He finished with a two-over par 73 and a 281 total, nine strokes off the pace. He picked up $7,302 to run his official total of $74,532 won this year, with the unofficial amount over $60,000.

Carter Wins Kagle Prize

CHICAGO (AP)—Don Carter of St. Louis won the $7,500 first prize in the fourth annual World's Invitational Bowling Tournament, despite the unusual family distraction in the final position round.

While Don was defending his championship Sunday in the $48,000 fourth annual tournament, his attractive blonde wife, La Verne, was challenging the women's leader on the next pair of lanes for the $4,000 top prize.

Trying to keep his attention on both matches at the same time, Don lost his final match, 824-831, to runner-up Joe Joseph of Detroit. However, Carter's lead on Petersen points allowed him to coast to victory.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Carter won her final match with Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., 581-564, but fell 18 pins short of catching Mrs. Ladewig on Petersen points.

Carter finished his 16 matches with 309-18 (or 309 and 18-50th) Petersen points, while Joseph took the second prize of $3,750 with 307-32 points. Forty-seven-year-old Steve Nagy of St. Louis, oldest man in the field of 16, finished a close third with 307-29 points and won $2,000.

Mrs. Ladewig, a 46-year-old grandmother, led the other 15 women with 215-22 points. Mrs. Carter had 215-04. Third prize of $1,000 went to Jere Price of Fort Worth, Tex., who finished with 213-14 points.

Scores

National Hockey League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sunday's Results

Montreal 5, Detroit 1

Toronto 6, Chicago 1

New York 2, Boston 2 (tie)

Saturday's Results

Montreal 6, Detroit 4

New York 3, Boston 0

Toronto 5, Chicago 2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Not an undefeated college team remained in Oregon after the second weekend of the collegiate basketball season.

The University of Portland (4-1) emerged with the best record among the state's major schools, having won three straight in the past week. Next for Portland: The City of Roses Tournament at Portland next weekend.

The opening round of that tourney will send Portland against

No Oregon Quint Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Santa Clara and Iona of New York against Gonzaga on Friday night.

Oregon State (1-3) after losing to Washington Saturday night, 58-47, will be at Corvallis for a pair of weekend games. It will be Arizona State Friday night and Seattle Saturday night.

Oregon (1-2) after losing to Colorado Saturday night, 71-57, will play only one game this week, against Arizona State at Eugene Saturday night.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

These kids do it every day. There was a night during the Coral Gables tournament when an old timer, walking out in the shades of evening, saw a half dozen of them still hitting shots.

Names Young Pros

"In my time," he said, "we'd have been in the bar long ago."

"We have a flock of young pros on the tour, any one of them able to win any tournament that comes along," Raynor explains.

He lists a few of them. Guys like Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; Dave Hill of Denver; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Jerry Pittman of Tulsa; Dave Marr of Houston; Al Geberger of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Tom Garrity, 21-year-old out of Kansas City who has been in three tournaments—and been in the money in each of them.

The answer is collegiate golf—and junior golf programs.

"Arnold Palmer gave the young man's trend its greatest impetus," says Raynor. "Now he has gone farther and endowed two college scholarships this year for young golfers. Many colleges are giving golf scholarships. The PGA is very active in promoting junior programs and the Western Golf Association has done a fine job with its caddie scholarship plan."

Competition Expanding

Intercollegiate—and even high school—competition has expanded to an amazing degree and colleges have finally started hiring top pros as tutors, as in the case of Henry Ransom at Texas A&M, and George Hall at Cornell.

So you're a young man getting out of college and you're a fine golfer.

Well, in 1961 the professional tour will be playing for a total of $1,600,000 in prizes. Not gold watches and medals, son. But solid, hard, spendable cash. That's up $200,000 over last year, and to boot, where else can you keep a sun tan all year round?

Wade Steers LA Win Over Colts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National League

Eastern Conference

W L T Pct. Pts. OP

Philadelphia 9 2 0 .818 283 218

Cleveland 7 3 1 .700 314 183

New York 6 3 2 .667 237 213

St. Louis 5 5 1 .500 250 223

Pittsburgh 5 5 1 .500 233 237

Washington 1 8 2 .111 150 271

Wade ran 66 yards for the deciding touchdown as the Rams prevented the defending world champions from tying the West. Green Bay broke a three-way tie Saturday, sloshing to a 13-0 victory over San Francisco in the mud of Kezar Stadium.

However, the Colts' loss, and a 23-14 Detroit victory over Dallas has created another three-way tie—this time for second place—in the conference. Baltimore, San Francisco and the Lions, each 6-5, trail Green Bay by a game. The Packers are 7-4, with the regular season coming to a close this weekend.

Then, Los Angeles will try to play spoiler twice in a row, meeting Green Bay, while the Colts play San Francisco. Detroit meets the Chicago Bears, creating the possibility of a three-way tie if the Packers lose and two of the other three win.

The Bears were eliminated by Cleveland, 42-0, with the latter retaining a half game edge for second place in the Eastern Conference over the New York Giants.

The Giants, plagued by five inches of snow in Washington, beat the Redskins, 17-3, to set up a showdown for runnerup in the East next Sunday with the Browns. The teams met in New York, with the winner playing the eventual second place team in the West in a post-season game Jan. 7 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The Eastern champion Philadelphia Eagles suffered their first loss since opening day as Pittsburgh held on for a 27-21 upset.

The Rams (13-6) completely humiliated Baltimore's offensive-laden Colts, snapping Johnny Unitas' TD-a-game streak at 47 while handing the reeling champs their third straight setback.

Baltimore, failing to score a touchdown for the first time since celebrated his return to the Houston line by tossing scoring passes of 39, 6 and 21 yards and adding a 53-yard field goal for the Oilers, who stand 9-4 with one game left.

Los Angeles (9-4) came from behind three times, before capitalizing on a poor punt midway in the last period. Quarterback Jack Kemp engineered a 9-play, 35-yard drive, capping it with a 1-yard plunge. Ben Agajanian's conversion made it 34-33 and Kemp's third touchdown pass a short time later merely added some frills. Denver quarterback Frank Tripucka had two scoring tosses and teamed with end Lionel Taylor for nine completions.

New York quarterback Al Dor-

Houston, Los Angeles AFL Division Winners

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

American League

Eastern Division

W L T Pct. Pts. OP

Houston 9 4 0 .692 342 264

New York 7 6 0 .538 339 349

Buffalo 5 7 1 .417 289 379

Boston 5 8 0 .385 265 312

Wade ran 66 yards for the deciding touchdown as the Rams prevented the defending world champions from tying the West. Green Bay broke a three-way tie Saturday, sloshing to a 13-0 victory over San Francisco in the mud of Kezar Stadium.

However, the Colts' loss, and a 23-14 Detroit victory over Dallas has created another three-way tie—this time for second place—in the conference. Baltimore, San Francisco and the Lions, each 6-5, trail Green Bay by a game. The Packers are 7-4, with the regular season coming to a close this weekend.

Then, Los Angeles will try to play spoiler twice in a row, meeting Green Bay, while the Colts play San Francisco. Detroit meets the Chicago Bears, creating the possibility of a three-way tie if the Packers lose and two of the other three win.

The Bears were eliminated by Cleveland, 42-0, with the latter retaining a half game edge for second place in the Eastern Conference over the New York Giants.

The Giants, plagued by five inches of snow in Washington, beat the Redskins, 17-3, to set up a showdown for runnerup in the East next Sunday with the Browns. The teams met in New York, with the winner playing the eventual second place team in the West in a post-season game Jan. 7 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The Eastern champion Philadelphia Eagles suffered their first loss since opening day as Pittsburgh held on for a 27-21 upset.

The Rams (13-6) completely humiliated Baltimore's offensive-laden Colts, snapping Johnny Unitas' TD-a-game streak at 47 while handing the reeling champs their third straight setback.

Baltimore, failing to score a touchdown for the first time since

Syracuse Nationals Conquer Philadelphia Warriors 132-121

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Philadelphia 18 8 .692

Boston 17 8 .680

Syracuse 11 12 .478

New York 6 19 .240

No Oregon Quint Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Santa Clara and Iona of New York against Gonzaga on Friday night.

Oregon State (1-3) after losing to Washington Saturday night, 58-47, will be at Corvallis for a pair of weekend games. It will be Arizona State Friday night and Seattle Saturday night.

Oregon (1-2) after losing to Colorado Saturday night, 71-57, will play only one game this week, against Arizona State at Eugene Saturday night.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

These kids do it every day. There was a night during the Coral Gables tournament when an old timer, walking out in the shades of evening, saw a half dozen of them still hitting shots.

Names Young Pros

"In my time," he said, "we'd have been in the bar long ago."

"We have a flock of young pros on the tour, any one of them able to win any tournament that comes along," Raynor explains.

He lists a few of them. Guys like Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; Dave Hill of Denver; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Jerry Pittman of Tulsa; Dave Marr of Houston; Al Geberger of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Tom Garrity, 21-year-old out of Kansas City who has been in three tournaments—and been in the money in each of them.

The answer is collegiate golf—and junior golf programs.

"Arnold Palmer gave the young man's trend its greatest impetus," says Raynor. "Now he has gone farther and endowed two college scholarships this year for young golfers. Many colleges are giving golf scholarships. The PGA is very active in promoting junior programs and the Western Golf Association has done a fine job with its caddie scholarship plan."

Competition Expanding

Intercollegiate—and even high school—competition has expanded to an amazing degree and colleges have finally started hiring top pros as tutors, as in the case of Henry Ransom at Texas A&M, and George Hall at Cornell.

So you're a young man getting out of college and you're a fine golfer.

Well, in 1961 the professional tour will be playing for a total of $1,600,000 in prizes. Not gold watches and medals, son. But solid, hard, spendable cash. That's up $200,000 over last year, and to boot, where else can you keep a sun tan all year round?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National League

Eastern Conference

W L T Pct. Pts. OP

Philadelphia 9 2 0 .818 283 218

Cleveland 7 3 1 .700 314 183

New York 6 3 2 .667 237 213

St. Louis 5 5 1 .500 250 223

Pittsburgh 5 5 1 .500 233 237

Washington 1 8 2 .111 150 271

Wade ran 66 yards for the deciding touchdown as the Rams prevented the defending world champions from tying the West. Green Bay broke a three-way tie Saturday, sloshing to a 13-0 victory over San Francisco in the mud of Kezar Stadium.

However, the Colts' loss, and a 23-14 Detroit victory over Dallas has created another three-way tie—this time for second place—in the conference. Baltimore, San Francisco and the Lions, each 6-5, trail Green Bay by a game. The Packers are 7-4, with the regular season coming to a close this weekend.

Then, Los Angeles will try to play spoiler twice in a row, meeting Green Bay, while the Colts play San Francisco. Detroit meets the Chicago Bears, creating the possibility of a three-way tie if the Packers lose and two of the other three win.

The Bears were eliminated by Cleveland, 42-0, with the latter retaining a half game edge for second place in the Eastern Conference over the New York Giants.

The Giants, plagued by five inches of snow in Washington, beat the Redskins, 17-3, to set up a showdown for runnerup in the East next Sunday with the Browns. The teams met in New York, with the winner playing the eventual second place team in the West in a post-season game Jan. 7 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The Eastern champion Philadelphia Eagles suffered their first loss since opening day as Pittsburgh held on for a 27-21 upset.

The Rams (13-6) completely humiliated Baltimore's offensive-laden Colts, snapping Johnny Unitas' TD-a-game streak at 47 while handing the reeling champs their third straight setback.

Baltimore, failing to score a touchdown for the first time since

Houston, Los Angeles AFL Division Winners

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

American League

Eastern Division

W L T Pct. Pts. OP

Houston 9 4 0 .692 342 264

New York 7 6 0 .538 339 349

Buffalo 5 7 1 .417 289 379

Boston 5 8 0 .385 265 312

Wade ran 66 yards for the deciding touchdown as the Rams prevented the defending world champions from tying the West. Green Bay broke a three-way tie Saturday, sloshing to a 13-0 victory over San Francisco in the mud of Kezar Stadium.

However, the Colts' loss, and a 23-14 Detroit victory over Dallas has created another three-way tie—this time for second place—in the conference. Baltimore, San Francisco and the Lions, each 6-5, trail Green Bay by a game. The Packers are 7-4, with the regular season coming to a close this weekend.

Then, Los Angeles will try to play spoiler twice in a row, meeting Green Bay, while the Colts play San Francisco. Detroit meets the Chicago Bears, creating the possibility of a three-way tie if the Packers lose and two of the other three win.

The Bears were eliminated by Cleveland, 42-0, with the latter retaining a half game edge for second place in the Eastern Conference over the New York Giants.

The Giants, plagued by five inches of snow in Washington, beat the Redskins, 17-3, to set up a showdown for runnerup in the East next Sunday with the Browns. The teams met in New York, with the winner playing the eventual second place team in the West in a post-season game Jan. 7 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The Eastern champion Philadelphia Eagles suffered their first loss since opening day as Pittsburgh held on for a 27-21 upset.

The Rams (13-6) completely humiliated Baltimore's offensive-laden Colts, snapping Johnny Unitas' TD-a-game streak at 47 while handing the reeling champs their third straight setback.

Baltimore, failing to score a touchdown for the first time since

Syracuse Nationals Conquer Philadelphia Warriors 132-121

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Philadelphia 18 8 .692

Boston 17 8 .680

Syracuse 11 12 .478

New York 6 19 .240

No Oregon Quint Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Santa Clara and Iona of New York against Gonzaga on Friday night.

Oregon State (1-3) after losing to Washington Saturday night, 58-47, will be at Corvallis for a pair of weekend games. It will be Arizona State Friday night and Seattle Saturday night.

Oregon (1-2) after losing to Colorado Saturday night, 71-57, will play only one game this week, against Arizona State at Eugene Saturday night.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

OS Assistant Owl Hoot Guest

Ron Siegrist, the ex-Beaver Star who has been assistant football coach at Oregon State for the past two years, will be the featured guest of the Owl Hoots tonight at their regular meeting session at 6:30 p.m. in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Siegrist will show the movies of the Oregon-Oregon State 1960 game and present a running commentary on the film.

Owl coaches Wally Palmberg and George Miller will also be on hand for rundowns on their respective sports, basketball and wrestling.

These kids do it every day. There was a night during the Coral Gables tournament when an old timer, walking out in the shades of evening, saw a half dozen of them still hitting shots.

Names Young Pros

"In my time," he said, "we'd have been in the bar long ago."

"We have a flock of young pros on the tour, any one of them able to win any tournament that comes along," Raynor explains.

He lists a few of them. Guys like Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; Dave Hill of Denver; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Jerry Pittman of Tulsa; Dave Marr of Houston; Al Geberger of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Tom Garrity, 21-year-old out of Kansas City who has been in three tournaments—and been in the money in each of them.

The answer is collegiate golf—and junior golf programs.

"Arnold Palmer gave the young man's trend its greatest impetus," says Raynor. "Now he has gone farther and endowed two college scholarships this year for young golfers. Many colleges are giving golf scholarships. The PGA is very active in promoting junior programs and the Western Golf Association has done a fine job with its caddie scholarship plan."

Competition Expanding

Intercollegiate—and even high school—competition has expanded to an amazing degree and colleges have finally started hiring top pros as tutors, as in the case of Henry Ransom at Texas A&M, and George Hall at Cornell.

So you're a young man getting out of college and you're a fine golfer.

Well, in 1