

NEW YORK — How do you look leggy — just count the ways! Eight suggestions from a well-known fashion magazine include: a long cotton "Sweet-Nik" shirt atop tights; velveteen knickers worn with a shaggy sweater; gilded paisley pants beneath a velveteen overblouse; vivid stretch pants under a Lurex-threaded pullover; a tone-against-tone jump suit in bright colors; ruffled evening culottes with a sleeveless velveteen top; velveteen pants topped by a glittery tank top and flowered pants beneath a velvet top.

Bridge Party

MCCLOUD — Mrs. Eva Hargreaves and Mrs. Barbara Caswell were co-hostesses at a bridge party given in honor of Mrs. John Larsen, mother of Dr. Andrew Larsen. There were four tables of bridge. Mrs. Bessie Higgins won high score; Mrs. Beulah Orowski, second, and Mrs. Leatrice Bambino, low. Mrs. Lou Williams won the honors prize.

Guests were Mrs. Joan McGill, Mrs. Sue Mills, Mrs. Eloise Moseley, Mrs. Leatrice Bambino, Mrs. Beulah Orowski, Mrs. Bessie Higgins, Mrs. Lou Williams, Mrs. Josephine Bambino, Mrs. Betty Colombero, Mrs. Pat Hartley, Mrs. Bernice Willis, Mrs. Theresa Glica, Mrs. Dorothy Larsen and the honoree.

FOLDING FAN

The familiar folding fan was invented in Japan about A.D. 670, introduced into China during the 10th century and transported to Europe in the 16th century.

SOCIETY

VFW Auxiliary Initiates Three

MERRILL — Initiated into Merrill VFW Auxiliary at a special meeting Wednesday, Nov. 30, were Netta Britton, Eleonore Cahan and Nonie Taylor. Conducting the meeting was Marge Hodges, president.

Clara Cannon, district president, on her official inspection visit, delivered a short talk to the 21 members present.

Several committees were appointed to plan coming events. Katie Woods, Margaret Moore, Dorothy West and Mary Katherine Walker planned the Lions dinner held Dec. 5.

The committee selected for the Dec. 19 Lions dinner are Jean Rodgers, Katie Merrilees, Bertha McKoen, Davie Hodges, Myrtle Rippey and Marge Hodges.

Volunteers for the ball cleanup committee were Ida Fleck, Jean Rodgers, Mary Lou Swisher, Eleonore Cahan, Myrtle Rippey, Marge Hodges, Bertha McKoen, Katie Merrilees and Davie Hodges.

The auxiliary Christmas party will be held Wednesday, Dec. 14, with Margaret Moore, Roma Walker, Grace Walker, Netta Britton and Ida Fleck serving as the planning committee. A one dollar gift exchange will be held.

The committee to plan the New Year's party includes Mr. and Mrs. Bud West, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fleck and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orem.

Mary Lou Swisher is to send a gift to Lorene Kell, past department president.

Pro tem officer for the meeting was Katie Merrilees, banner bearer.

Refreshments were served by Mary Lou Swisher and Francis Brandenburg.

BE A GOOD SKATE

The newest ice skating costumes are designed to skate on ice and break the ice as well. Short velveteen culottes and velveteen knee-tinkler jumpers premiere this year. Also spotlighted are a long sleeved velveteen skating dress with fake ocelot pants, a plaid skating jumper, and a felt Tyrolean jumper. Vivid colors abound, with emerald, orange, purple and hot pink leading.

IT'S NO COINCIDENCE that husband and wife have given each other similar gifts, for they both have the same good taste which led to choosing these attractive traveling cases. The women's version, in a pretty pink case, contained several types of lotions, powder base, rouge, eye shadow, cotton squares, tissues, toothbrush and toothpaste. The men's gray lined with red travel pouch has after shave lotion, deodorant, toilette water, miniature hand soaps and pre-electric shave lotion (others are available with shave cream, razor and blades). No more perfect, inexpensive gift available for the person who travels.

Holiday Time Helpful Ideas

There'll be no coaxing and cajoling the children to wash their faces and hands before holiday meals if you provide them with gay white terrycloth mitts emblazoned with Santa's face. These color-fast mitts double as hand puppets when their soap and water duty is done.

Do your artificial wreaths and sprays and poinsettias look tired to use again this year?

Try sponging them with "dry" soap or detergent suds skimmed from the top of the bowl. This softens them, washes away the year's accumulated dust, and makes them glisten again.

Launder ribbons in lukewarm suds, and press under a layer of wax paper.

Turn a plain white cloth into something festive enough to grace the Yuletide board by using pink shears to cut brightly colored bits of cloth into Christmas designs, such as trees, bells and stars. Then, dip these designs into starch and iron them onto the cloth here and there.

The starch and heat will combine to make the colorful motifs adhere until you pull them off. When the holidays are over, launder the cloth in plenty of hot soap or detergent suds and, presto, it's all ready again for plain, year-round use.

Bridge Series Winners Told

Five tables of Howell Movement were in play at the Tuesday morning duplicate tournament Dec. 6 at the city library. Tied for first place were two couples, Mrs. A. J. Honzel and Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. Grace Kresse and Mrs. N. J. Rosenbaum. In third place was Mrs. Lena Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Goble and in fourth, Mrs. Ted Hyde and Mrs. Robert Chilcote.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 8, 11 tables played in the masterpoint open tournament.

In the north-south position Mrs. Claude Davis and Mrs. Cecil Adams were first; Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. Lloyd Goble, second, and George McClary and Mrs. N. J. Rosenbaum, third.

East-west first place winners were Mr. and Mrs. David Richardson. Mrs. George Roberts and Mrs. Lester Offield were second, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lake, third.

The committee's masterpoint open tournament will be Sunday, Dec. 18, starting at 1:30 p.m. in the city library.
