

Scandia Party Well Attended

MALIN—The Scandinavian party and smorgasbord Wednesday evening, Dec. 7, at the community hall was acclaimed a great success by the approximately 40 persons present.

The hall and tables were decorated in keeping with the various Scandinavian countries, with tiny figurines and candles.

Served were a large variety of dishes, Swedish meat balls, Finnish Pasti, Lutfisk, Swedish coffee bread, Norwegian Fattigmand cookies, Norwegian Torte, Danish Sukkerklinge, Lefse, Flatbrod and fruit soup.

Peter Olsen, son of Mrs. Alice Olsen, acted as master of ceremonies. He rendered several comic Swedish readings. At the piano he accompanied his mother with several Norwegian and Swedish songs.

The Jim Bunnells sang several Scandinavian songs, and played the piano and accordion for the dancing the remainder of the evening.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bunnell and daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Rainus, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kniskern, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Petrasek and children; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payge and children; Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Lovness, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conroy and children; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Illian, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holl and Mrs. Alice Olsen.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Olsen and children of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mickolas of Eureka, Vinton Lovness of Hillsborough, Calif.

FLAVORY GREEN BEANS

Try this new way of serving green beans. Heat and drain canned French-style blue lake green beans. Heat 2 tablespoons butter slowly until golden brown and stir in teaspoon poppy seed, dash each paprika, cayenne and tabasco sauce. Pour over hot beans and mix lightly.

Coffee came into general use in America beginning in 1821. Its introduction and use were widely opposed by various temperance groups.

HONEY

Use honey to sweeten a bowl of mixed fresh fruits cut up for breakfast serving.

MRS. ISH VALENZUELA was crowned "Queen For a Day" at a stork shower in her honor given recently by members of Dunsmuir Brownie Troop No. 222 and their mothers. Mrs. Valenzuela, shown with the troop members, has been leader of the group for the past two and a half years.

Bonanza Club

BONANZA — President Cora Leavitt conducted the Nov. 30 meeting of the Bonanza Women's Club where final plans for the bazaar held Dec. 3 were made.

The resignation of Mabel Maxwell as treasurer and librarian was accepted. Mildred Kelleston was elected treasurer and appointed as the new librarian.

The next meeting will be Jan. 3 with Doris Schmidt and Donna Dixon as hostesses.

Refreshments were served by Cora Leavitt and Margaret Burnett.

Pinocle Club

ETNA—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts entertained their pinocle club Saturday evening, Dec. 3. Four tables were in play.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Potter won the traveling double pinocle prize.

Later in the evening a surprise birthday cake and gifts honored Mrs. Halbert Smith.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Halliday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Zink.

Club Sponsors Yule Lighting

MALIN—The Malin Garden Club in conjunction with the California Oregon Power Company will sponsor the outdoor Christmas lighting contest in Malin.

There will be an adult and junior division with cash awards for each.

Three types of lighting will be judged in each division: overall, tree or roof display, door or entry way, and window.

Out-of-town judges will decide the winners on Dec. 22.

More information may be obtained by calling Malin 723-2387 or 723-2374.

Bethel No. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51 was honored at the last meeting Dec. 5 with a visit of two grand officers of the state of Oregon, Donna Nelson of Beaverton, grand guardian, and L. R. Manning of Medford, associate grand guardian. The latter was accompanied by M. D. Borough, also of Medford, associate guardian of Bethel No. 14.

Grand honors were extended to Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of Oregon.

Theta Rho Girls Elect Officers

MERRILL—Merrill Theta Rho girls met Dec. 1 to elect officers for the coming year.

Those elected were Rosalind Crockett, president; Maxine Burnes, vice president; Sharon Hobson, secretary; Coleen Crockett, financial secretary, and Carol Lee Haskins, treasurer.

Discussion for a Christmas dance was held and further plans will be made at the next meeting.

The group is invited to the Rebekah Christmas party Dec. 14, beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m., followed by a social get-together and a 50-cent gift exchange.

Shirley Moore, president of this district, reminded the group of the district meeting to be held in Merrill sometime next spring.

Bethel honors were extended to six of Henley's past guardians and associate guardians, Cole Brown, Homer Delameter, Inez Delameter, Thelma Short, Gretchen Thompson and Paul Breithaupt.

Also honored was Linda DeLap Bliss, past honored queen.

Initiated were Lynn Johnson, Sherry Sherman, Dona Moffitt, Carol Kaylor, Lynn Flagg, Coleen Kaylor and Doris Emrick. Their parents present included Mr. and Mrs. Jaye Flagg, Mrs. Johnny Moffitt, Mrs. Harold Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Emrick.

Julie Rhodes is the incoming queen for the ensuing term. Cindy Delinger will be senior princess; Coleen Finchum, junior princess; Sue Kennon, guide, and Carol Ziegelmeyer, marshal.

The Bethel will provide a food basket for a needy family at Christmas.

A formal dance is planned on New Year's Eve for DeMolay and Jobs Daughters and their dates at the Henley School cafeteria. Dancing will be from 9 until one o'clock.
