LUCIA BUNS AND COFFEE

Saffron Buns For Holidays

Every country has its Christmas-season traditions. In Sweden it is the custom to observe St. Lucia's Day, Dec. 13, with special church services and parties. Early in the morning, a young daughter dons the traditional white gown and crown of red, green and lighted candles, and proceeds from bedroom to bedroom singing saffron songs and freshly-made coffee. Before entering each room with the coffee, she is joined by other family members and guests, she sings a traditional song, the famed "Santa Lucia," outside the door.

The Lucia buns take a little extra effort to make, just as fancy cakes do. But the reward is the same way, they are well worth the effort. Both the flavor and the appearance of these saffron buns are especially appropriate for this festive time of year; and they are enjoyed not only on Dec. 13, but any day of the season.

The recipe below makes an easy-to-handle dough that may be made ahead, and then frozen. To save time, simply formed into 1-inch rounds before the second rising.

LUCIA BUNS
(SAFFRON BUNS)

Ingredients:

1 1/2 cups milk	1/4 cup margarine or butter
1/4 teaspoon salt	1/4 cup saffron
2 tablespoons boiling water	1/4 cup very warm water
1/4 cup cold milk	1 egg, beaten
1 egg, beaten	1 egg, beaten (about)
1/4 cup seedless raisins	1/4 cup seedless raisins
Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and saffron. Add butter and warm. Meanwhile add saffron to boiling water; let stand.
Combine milk and saffron in large bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in eggs and raisins.

safron and 2 cups of the flour; beat smooth. Stir in remaining flour to no soft dough.

Turn out onto floured surface; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes. Place in greased bowl turning to grease all sides.

Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch down, turn out onto floured surface, cover and let rest 10 minutes.

Divide dough into 18 pieces. Roll each piece into strip 10 to 12 inches long; cut in half. Roll both ends of each strip in to center of strip. Place two coiled strips back to back to make 1 bun. Place on greased baking sheet.

Cover, let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Press a finger deep into center of each coil. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) about 20 minutes, or until golden brown.
