

Go to the CHURCH of your choice this SUNDAY

HERALD AND NEWS, Klamath Falls, Ore. Friday, December 18, 1960 PAGE 5-B

THE HIGH SCHOOL young people's group of the Bible Baptist Church arranged this nativity scene on the South Sixth Street entrance lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis are sponsors of this group. Adults assisting with the scene included Grant Marsh, Jesse Martin and G. B. Leach with the lighting.

Mariners Elect Officers

MERRILL — Merrill Mariners nominated and elected officers for the coming year at their Dec. 12 Christmas family night meeting.

Elected as skippers are Wes and Shirley Haskins; first mates, Bill and Shirley Hill; log keeper, Lee and Donna Faye Haskins, and pursers, Ervin and Ann Johnson.

Gospel Mission To Serve Men

The Klamath Falls Gospel Mission plans to serve a full course turkey dinner on Christmas Day to those homeless men who will seek comfort, shelter and food on that day.

A Christmas message will be given before the meal. Anyone wishing to contribute food or to take part in any way may call at the Mission, 823 Walnut, or telephone TU 2-4885, and offer help to John Pedersen, superintendent, or to his assistants, Mrs. Pedersen and Jack Wright.

Service Guild Is Entertained

The Cappie Rebecca Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church was entertained at a Christmas party and gift exchange at the home of Bunny Jensen, 4416 Bristol, with Christine Murray as co-hostess.

Rooms were gay with Christmas decorations and tiny stockings hung by the fireplace held money gifts from members for the Beulah Faber Memorial at the Methodist Home at Salem. Christmas carols were the background for the devotions. Christine Murray read a Christmas story, written by Helen Hoffman, member of the faculty of Klamath Union High School.

Genevieve Schweigert told of Christmas customs around the world and childhood experiences were related. Kathy Jensen as "Miss Santa" passed the gifts.

Program Set

The annual Sunday School program of the Free Methodist Church, 1918 Oregon Avenue, will be at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 21. The program will include recitations by the younger children, musical numbers and a 30-minute film, "The Guiding Star," a modern-day story of Christmas. There will be treats for the children and everyone will be welcome.

Church Officer To Fill Pulpit

In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Carl Simmons, Cy Baker, moderator for Church of the Brethren, 4273 Bristol, will fill the pulpit. Sandra Spears, a sophomore at La Verne College, will sing a solo.

The Rev. A. G. Broyles, retired Klamath Falls minister, will bring the Christmas message on Christmas morning at the 11 a.m. service. Lt. Lynn Heminger will sing a solo. The junior choir led by Jeanette Riffey will also sing Christmas songs.

On Dec. 21 at 7:30 p.m. the Youth Fellowship will present a Christmas play, "The Gift." A coffee hour follows the morning worship service.

16 Children To Be Heard

Voices of 16 children will be heard Saturday, Dec. 17, at 7:30 p.m. at the Seventh Day Adventist Church during the church school Christmas program.

Musical numbers will be based on the life of Christ. Mrs. Esther Wagner and Mrs. John Pryor will direct.

Choir Will Sing Sunday

Mrs. Iva Wilson, director of the Sanctuary Choir of Immanuel Baptist Church, will present the pantomime cantata, "Pilgrim to Bethlehem," Sunday, Dec. 18, from 7 to 8 p.m. She will be assisted by her daughter, Marlene Young, at the organ. The program will feature Fred Dallas, soloist, on the violin; Hugh Barnwell and Dean Wilson, who will sing duets, and L. J. Hall, tenor. There will be numbers by the choir.

Narration will be by Linda C. Hall, talented elocutionist and public speaker. Willard Ross and Bill Clark will be in charge of lighting and sound. Irene Jones, local business woman, is in charge of costumes.

The public is invited by the pastor to attend the evening of inspiration and Christmas blessing at the church, Eleventh and High streets.

Special Holiday Activities Set

Special Christmas activities are planned by First Christian Church which will once again present outdoors the beautiful scenes from the nativity which have been a Christmas gift to the community for several years. Monday through Thursday, Dec. 19-22, "The Living Nativity" will be played in four 12-minute presentations from 7 to 8 p.m. on the steps of the church. The gift is sponsored by the Senior Endeavor group.

The Bible School program is planned for Friday, Dec. 23, at 7 p.m. followed by a musical interlude by the intermediate-junior, vesper and worship choirs. At 9 p.m. the same night there will be a Christmas party hosted by the Christian Builders class for the entire Bible School and church family.

Program Slated For Wednesday

The Assembly of God Church will present the annual Christmas program at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 21. The junior department will present recitations and singing, directed by Ellen Kellogg, and a play directed by Mrs. W. B. Galloway.

Young adults will give the Christmas story directed by Mrs. Lloyd Fosner and the Reverend Fosner will bring the Christmas message Christmas morning. The public is invited to attend.

Sunday, Dec. 18, guest speaker will be Zelma Argue, Los Angeles, of the Pentecostal Evangel, author who submits articles to the publication.
