

Landlord Gives 1,200 Presents

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP)—A Long Island landlord is sending cash Christmas presents this year to 1,200 present and former tenants, all of them servicemen. The checks range from $10 to $220, depending on the length of residence and the rental paid at Mitchell Manor, a government-sponsored housing project near Mitchell Air Force Base. Alexander Muss Sons, Inc., which announced the rebates Wednesday, explained that they represent $124,674 in tax refunds. Nassau County and Hempstead Town had collected too much in taxes between 1958 and this year, and returned the money to the company. Alexander Muss explained that he felt it was only right that the tenants should get the money. He said he hopes to get the checks to everyone by Christmas Day. Many of the recipients have been transferred to bases in remote parts of the world.

TV CHRISTMAS PARTY

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Red Skelton attended a Christmas party Thursday via closed circuit color TV. The red-haired comedian, recovering from surgery Monday to close a rupture in his diaphragm, lay on his bed in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital while fellow workers greeted him from his own studio 4 1/2 miles away.

THE BRIGHTEST STAR

"I will bring the newborn child wool for garments to keep him warm," said Erasmus Lamb.

A Christmas Fantasy

"I will give him a scrap of gold cloth that is in my nest," said Jeremiah Rat.

"An egg shall be my gift," said Arabella Hen.

Raymond, the fox without a tail, said nothing. He could think of nothing to give.

Mom Is Wrong In This Case

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is a good-looking fellow, 23. He has a fine position and should amount to something someday. Chuck has dated many girls in the last five years but he never was serious until now. Along came this little snip who is determined to get him by hook or by crook. The big problem is the hours he keeps. Every Saturday night he is out until 4:00 a.m., then he has to get up early Sunday morning to cart the girl to church. We don't see him until early Monday morning.

The snip has such a stranglehold on Chuck it has made me dislike her intensely. I'll never accept her into the family and he knows it. Do I have a right to feel this way? Please tell me what you think about the awful hours he keeps. I get no help from my husband.—HURT MOTHER

Dear Mother: A fellow 23 is a grown man. His mother should not be telling him what time to come home.

More important than the hours is your feeling of hostility toward the girl. Your declaration of war has put you out on a limb—and you're going to flud that limb of spite.

Stop playing watch dog and find something to admire about the girl. A mother who attacks her son's choice forces him to defend her. The girl then becomes terribly important to him and sometimes he marries her.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I agreed before we married last July that we would both quit smoking.

I was a heavier smoker than Clyde so I knew it would be more difficult for me. Last January I couldn't stand it so I started to smoke behind his back. I knew if he caught me the war would be on.

Last night when Clyde came home from work he smelled smoke in the house. He said "Who's been smoking?" I told him the electrician had been in to fix the wall-heaters. He asked me when electricians started to wear lipstick. I knew I was sunk. Now he says the only way I can make things right is to stop smoking. I enjoy smoking and don't see why I should quit. I tried and I can't do it. What is your liberal opinion?—CHIMNEY KATE

Dear Chimney: Can't never did anything—and it never will. My "liberal" opinion is that a woman who agreed to quit smoking should have stayed off the weed or told her husband she was welsching on her agreement. Sneaking puffs behind his back puts you at an 11-year-old level and lying about it to cover up compounded the felony.

Dear Ann Landers: This may seem like a small problem to you but it is causing me sleepless nights. I recently divorced a man after three years of trying in vain to get him to grow up. I won't go into detail because he is no longer a problem.

I'm writing about my bed sheets and pillow cases. They keep coming back from the laundry with my old initials stamped in indelible ink. True, the initials are in the corners, but I know they're there and it has a bad effect on me. Do you know of anything that will remove these marks?—CODY

Dear Cuddy: A scissors.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Russ Sub Force Is Formidable

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union has amassed more than five times the number of submarines with which Nazi Germany almost cut the Allied supply lines across the Atlantic in World War II, the authoritative Jane's Fighting Ships reported today.

Jane's said the Russians now had more submarines than all of the rest of the world put together including half a dozen atomic submarines built or building and six missile-firing submarines. It put total strength at between 450 and 500.

The new edition of Jane's said the Russians based their strategy on the belief that should war come they could sweep the seas clear of shipping and starve America's NATO allies into submission—a feat Adolf Hitler almost accomplished.

Editor Raymond Blackman, in a foreword to the 63rd edition published today said the just over 100 Nazi submarines in the last war were "enough to bring the United Kingdom to the brink of starvation, not only as regards food but as regards the vital raw materials necessary to prosecute the war."

Halley's comet was recorded in Europe in A.D. 1305 and last was seen in 1910.

Men Involved With Girl, 15, Face Charges

LAKEVIEW—One man accused of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and another charged with statutory rape faced court proceedings here.

Charges allegedly stemmed from their involvement with a 15-year-old girl.

R. V. Randolph, 25, Lakeview, pleaded guilty to the contributing charge and waived appearance before the grand jury in Judge Charles H. Foster's circuit court Saturday morning. He was sentenced to five years probation.

Daniel Dunrath Campbell, who was picked up in Red Bluff by sheriff's deputies and returned here, waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the grand jury. He was charged with rape.

Because Randolph's offense was his first, Attorney Robert Nichols recommended leniency. The charge carries a penalty of up to five years in a penitentiary.

Judge Foster lectured Randolph sternly. He assured Randolph that, unless he complies with the letter of probationary terms, he will be sent to prison.

Also charged with statutory rape in the case was Larry Ray Wells, 21, Lakeview. He was bound over to the grand jury recently following a preliminary hearing.

ACE TV TIPS

John Ruskin once wrote, "There is hardly anything in the world that some man can't make a little worse and sell a little cheaper and the people who consider price only are the men's lawful prey."

TIME MAGAZINE in the December 5th issue had this to say in an article entitled "THE NEED FOR QUALITY"—and we quote a part of the article that ACE TV feels is pertinent to our business of serving the Klamath Falls area.

"U.S. Industry is slowly rediscovering what its best businessmen have known all along: that quality will sell goods better than price alone. Zenith (radios and electronic) advertises today as it did in 1926 that "ZENITH COSTS MORE BUT DOES MORE."

ACE TV'S policy of "quality service and quality merchandise" is one that we'll proudly stand behind with all the facilities at our disposal and in both instances we believe you'll be pleasantly surprised at the reasonable prices you can buy the best at 1140 Riverside Dr.

To our many friends and customers, we would like to take this opportunity to wish you and yours a "VERY MERRY XMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!"

Three Hotels Are Held Up

PORTLAND (AP)—Three hotels were held up here and police arrested Thursday a man they identified as Earl Porter Steffes, 33, Portland.

Detectives took Steffes into custody a few minutes after the Treves Hotel was held up.

Earlier, the Fifth Avenue and St. Francis hotels were held up. Police said the robber in all three holdups said: "I have got six kids to support."

Officers said they found on Steffes nearly $70 and a toy pistol. He was held without formal charge.

Cadillac

World's easiest way to say "Quality"!

In any company—in any land—there is one word that is instantly recognized and understood.

The word is "Cadillac"—and the meaning, of course, is "quality".

And it is understandable, we think, that Cadillac should have become a part of the universal vocabulary.

For its devotion to excellence has been of such a degree—and of such a tenure—that the car has become the world-wide symbol of everything good and desirable in a manufactured product.

This truth has never been more beautifully expressed than it is in the current Cadillac.

Inspiring to look at . . . thrilling to drive . . . rewarding to own—it is truly the master achievement of motordom's master builders.

And Cadillac has imposed on its construction the most rigid standards and restrictions ever placed over the assembly of a motor car.

More than fourteen hundred separate inspections now guard the quality and goodness of every Cadillac—and the results of this crusade for perfection can be seen . . . and felt . . . and sensed.

Here is superb craftsmanship in every body line . . . skillful tailoring and magnificent workmanship in every interior . . . and wonderful solidity and quietness in every mile of ride.

Don't you owe yourself a personal appraisal of this 1961 "car of cars"?

Your Cadillac dealer will provide the car and the keys for a demonstration at any time.

We know you'll agree that it says "quality" with an eloquence all its own.
