

Put A Petticoat Round Your Tree

Rather than using cotton to cover the base of your tree this year, why not plan to make a gay petticoat.

These can be made quickly with felt and a pair of pinkish shears. Cut a hole in the middle and slash from outer edge to fit around tree trunk. Scallop with pinkish shears and decorate to your taste. It's a labor saver too as it will catch needles and can be easily removed and dumped to make cleaning easier.

Did you know that even in Nero's day frozen ices (made with Alpine snow) were served as a pleasant ending for a meal?

Bridge Winners

Mrs. Grace Kresse directed six tables of Howell Movement at the Tuesday morning, Dec. 13, duplicate bridge tournament. High score was held by Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. Lester O'Field. Mrs. David Richardson and Mrs. George Myers were second. Mrs. A. J. Honzel and Mrs. Claudine Van Buskirk, third, and Mrs. Bob Ross and Mrs. R. H. Reeves, fourth.

The committee's masterpoint open will be played Sunday, Dec. 18, starting at 1:30 p.m. at the city library.

A masterpoint open will be played next Tuesday, Dec. 20, starting at 10:15 a.m.

Zuleima Nile

'Twas the third Wednesday before Christmas, and all through the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel the holiday atmosphere prevailed as Nile Club members gathered together for their last luncheon meeting of the year.

Dulcey Motley and Ailsa Kuykendall, co-chairmen of the day, with their committee, decorated the tables with glittering red and green miniature Christmas trees which were flanked by sparkling red and gold pine cones. To add to the aura of Christmas a long table was piled high with gifts, donated by members, which will be sent to the children in the Shrine Hospital to help make their holiday a happy one. Members who were unable to attend the meeting and wish to donate a gift are requested to contact president Jean Coddington and the gift will be picked up.

Katherine Stonecypher gave an interesting report on the last ceremonial held in Coos Bay Nov. 29, which was attended by the Supreme Queen. Sixteen candidates were initiated.

Birthday prizes were awarded to Mae Moss and Beatrice Wilkes. Recipients of special prizes were Hester Dexter, Margaret Wirth, Dorothea Roenicke and Peggy Wiesendanger.

Directed by Mrs. Oakes, the Altamont Junior High Chorus provided the entertainment singing several Christmas selections.

The next regular luncheon meeting will be Wednesday, Jan. 4, at 1 p.m. at the Willard Hotel.

Christmas Topic Of Club Meeting

MONTAGUE — Christmas in other lands was one of the highlights of the program presented Friday afternoon, Dec. 2, to members and guests of the Shasta Valley Garden Club of Montague, when they met at the home of Mrs. Ora Kouts. Assisting were Mrs. Eva Karney, Mrs. Orpha L. Kouts and Mrs. Lourinda Lambert.

Prior to the program a brief business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Rita Prather. Plans were completed for the first Christmas decoration contest to be held in Montague and Shasta Valley areas. Prizes are being offered by the club for the best door, window and yard display, as well as the best decorated window of a business establishment. Cash prizes have been contributed by California Oregon Power Company and the Montague Rotary Club, and two live trees are being donated by the Green Thumb Nursery of the Mt. Shasta Milling Company of Montague. Committee members of the contest are Mrs. Ora Kouts, Mrs. Eva Karney and Mrs. Alta Allen. Secret judges not affiliated with the club will select prize winners on Dec. 23.

Mrs. Paul Cairns related stories of how Christmas is celebrated in foreign countries.

Another portion of the program was devoted to viewing displays of corsages borrowed from the National Corsage Club of America whose headquarters are in St. Petersburg, Fla. The corsage club also provided about 100 colored slides of various types of corsages.

During the afternoon, members worked on Christmas gifts to be distributed to patients at the Stixey County General Hospital.

Mrs. Walter Williams has contributed to the garden club for books on gardening, and Mr. William Halter one book, which will be added to the garden club library.

The next meeting of the group will be on Jan. 6 in the clubroom of the Montague auditorium. Mrs. Mary Lilly, Mrs. Grace Leavers, Mrs. Mary Lemos and Mrs. Allie Moore will be hostesses. The program for the afternoon will consist of the showing of films of roses and lawns by Mrs. Ellen Walters, who will also talk on "Famous Gardens of America."

Present at the meeting were two guests, Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Charles Williams.

Mix equal quantities of cream cheese and Roquefort and serve in the cavities of fresh pear halves with salad greens. French dressing tastes good with this combination.
