Yule Program Presented To Delta Kappa Gamma

Members of Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, international society of women teachers, their husbands, and other guests enjoyed a full evening of Christmas meditation and pleasure when they met Saturday, Dec. 10, for a 6:30 banquet in the Pelican party room. Beautiful seasonal decorations arranged by Mrs. Avis McConnell and the chapter's special committee composed of Mrs. Harry Whiting, Mrs. Frank Obenchain, Mrs. Wilbur Robinson, Mrs. Leola Thompson, Mrs. Ed Pappenfus, Mable Humble and Mrs. Paul Deller, provided the unique atmosphere for an unusual and well-rounded Christmas program of musical and dramatic highlights.

Mrs. Earl Sheridan sang three soprano solos: "No Lullaby Need Mary Sing," "O Leave Your Sheep," and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy." She was accompanied by Marie Obenchain, local musician and piano teacher. The inspiring music furnished an appropriate background for another highlight of the evening—an address, "Each in His Own Tongue," delivered by Helen, Epley Hoffman, Alpha Chapter president, and one who is well known in the community for her literary accomplishments.

Her message was appropriately concluded with the singing of "Oh, For a Thousand Tongues to Sing," by Mrs. Leola Thompson, the group's music chairman, who later led in singing of familiar Christmas carols with Marie Obenchain at the piano.

Mrs. Hoffman introduced the chapter's recently selected honorary member, Mrs. Hagan Moore, well known in Klamath Falls community for her work in education.

Mrs. Carrol Howe announced that 500 copies of the book concerning the history from 1870 of Klamath County schools are now on sale. Alpha Chapter members who compiled the 84-page volume are Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs.

Dayton Couple Announce Son

Capt. and Mrs. Rod Davis of Dayton, Ohio, announce the birth of a son, their first child, born Dec. 11. The baby, named Scott Roderick, weighed 7½ lbs. at birth.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Barney Mauch, Tulelake, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davis of Klamath Falls.

The new arrival is a first great-grandchild for Mrs. Henry Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis and a great, great grand-nephew for Mrs. Ida Grimes, all of Klamath Falls.

MRS. ARLET EDSALL chats with Gerald R. Clemens at the Sunday reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stone. In the background are some of the 125 guests who greeted the couple during the afternoon.

Guests Greet Bridal Couple

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stone were hosts at a charming reception Sunday, Dec. 10, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stone of Beaverton.

Assisting the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gralapp.

Beautiful decorations in the Christmas motif were used for the affair. The entry hall was brightened with a candy cane tree. The coffee table was centered with a tinsel tree of green and white and the punch table with one of silver hung with small red balls.

Presiding at the coffee services were Mrs. Robert Groves, Mrs. Roy LaPrairie, Mrs. Arlet Edsall and Mrs. Arch Proctor.

Punch was served by Mrs. Howard Hall, Mrs. Gordon Kensler, Mrs. Albert Stone and Mrs. Jack Kennitzer.

Connie Stone, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the guest book.

Also assisting were Kathy Cooper and Margaret Gallagher.

More than 125 guests greeted the newlywed couple who were married Nov. 19 in Portland. Mrs. Stone is the former Suzanne Finzer of that city.

Stephen Stone was a member of the music teaching staff at Klamath Union High School for three years before going to Beaverton where he is in charge of vocal music at the high school.

Klamath Salon Has Yule Party

A Christmas party for Klamath Salon 8 and 40 members and their husbands was held recently in the Sportsman's Hotel in Tulelake.

Hostesses were Tulelake members, Mrs. Olney Rudd, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Merton Brown and Mrs. Katchen Phillips.

This is an annual affair and a social time for the members and their husbands. Following the social hour a Christmas dinner was served to the group. The decor for the occasion was in the holiday motif with beautiful Christmas arrangements of greens and bells. Santa miniatures, greens and crystal candle holders with red candles made for a beautiful festive arrangement on the tables.

An interesting program for the evening after the dinner included a tap dance by Carol Dahle from the Moldovan Dance Studio. She was accompanied by Marjorie Wellman.

An amusing style show was presented by the Tulelake members, Mrs. Naomi Kurtz, Mrs. George Frey, Mrs. Tom Kadous and Mrs. Olney Rudd were the models.

Clubs Stage Joint Party

MONTAGUE—The annual joint Christmas dinner-party of Montague and Yreka Rotary clubs here was attended by nearly 100 persons, including the Rotarians, their wives and guests recently.

The party was conducted in the club room of Montague Auditorium. Del Reynolds furnished greenery. The Decoration Committee included Mrs. Rosalie Grazer, Mrs. Eleanor Phillips and Mrs. Ileana Williams.

Wilson Grazer, president of the Montague club, and Floyd Dill, president of the Yreka club, were seated at the head table and conducted the function together.

Co-chairmen for the evening's program, who also arranged the dinner party, were Charles Phillips of Montague and John Collier of Yreka.

A social hour preceded the dinner and a community sing followed led by Eddy Adams, forest service employee from Yreka. Mrs. Adams sang two solos, "Gesu Bambino," and "Birthday of a King." Mrs. Anna McAdams was program pianist.

Corinne Snead of the College of the Siskiyous, played two accordion solos. Miss Snead was escorted to Montague by Dr. and Mrs. Myrel J. Greenshields. Dr. Greenshields is COS president.

Dill introduced three of several new members who recently joined the Yreka club. They are Jim Kleaver, Elmo Smith and Paul Werner.

The dinner was prepared and served by members of Montague Women's Society of Christian Service. Grazer introduced the women. They were Mrs. Ora Kouts, Alta Bowman, Alta Costney, Nora Brown, Mabel French, Laura Jones, Di Raver, Charlotte Robinson, Marian Ogden, Agnes Swigart and Beulah Gordon.
