

Montague Party

MONTAGUE—Plans have been completed for the annual visit of Santa Claus at the community Christmas party to be staged in the Montague auditorium, Tuesday night, Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The Montague Elementary School Parent Teachers Association is sponsoring the annual event. With financial assistance given by the Montague Rotary Club and the Shasta Valley Community Club, several hundred bags were filled with candy, fruit and nuts by members of the PTA at the home of Mrs. Irene Paul on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Betty Dow, program chairman, has arranged the evening's entertainment with the assistance of Mrs. Ann Boyce.

After a welcome address by the president of the Montague PTA, Lester Owens, the master of ceremonies for the evening, Byron Boyce, will be introduced.

The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Herbert Goas of the Montague Assembly of God Church, followed by a 65-member Glee Club of the Montague School, who will sing Christmas selections under the direction of Barbara Gratiot.

The Rev. William Ogden of the Montague Methodist Church will narrate a Christmas story, after which Glee Club will lead in the community singing of "Joy to the

MRS. K. O. STAAB of Lake View, Iowa, right, arrived in Klamath Falls in time to greet her new granddaughter, Lisa Lynn, born Nov. 2 to Mrs. R. L. Meinhold, left. Lisa's father, Captain Meinhold, is stationed at Kingsley Field. Mrs. Meinhold, a graduate of Stephens College and Iowa State University, taught last year at Bonanza High School. She was recently installed as president of the Officers Wives Club. Mrs. Staab returned to her home last week.

World." "First Noel" and "Silent Night."

Six girl yell leaders of the Montague School and the top 10 basketball players of the school will present entertainment preceding Santa's visit.

The benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. G. E. Halcomb of the First Baptist Church of Montague.

North Side Garden Club Names Show Winners

Holiday Harmony, the winter show sponsored by the North Side Garden Club Dec. 2 at the Yacht Club, was a delightful showing of seasonal arrangements, holiday decorations and unusual exhibits. Mrs. Lewis Kandra and Mrs. Glen Thomason were co-chairmen of the event.

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW B. GIBSON, 4641 Cannon Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Nadine, to Airman 2.C. Clyde Carlton Dupree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Russell Dupree of Danville, New Jersey. The bride-elect is a graduate of Klamath Union High School. The future bridegroom, stationed at Kingsley Field, is with the 408th AF dispensary as a medical equipment repairman. The young couple plan to be married in February.

CARD DISPLAY

Here's a novel way to display cards: Color thin wooden dowels with vegetable dyes or ink . . . arrange them in a decorated container and spike your cards on to the end of each dowel. Incidentally, it will look prettier if you keep the dowels at different heights. The effect is like a bouquet of lovely Christmas cards!

Particularly interesting among the displays was Mrs. Harvey Bowman's exhibit of homemade candles which she had fashioned in many colors and shapes.

Mrs. Earl Redman prepared an exhibit on birds, using pictures and a bird arrangement. A collection of cones of the Northwest was exhibited by Linda Deen.

Orion Club

Mrs. Roland Cofer, 1132 Crescent Avenue, trimmed her tree early this year for the Orion Club's Christmas party held Dec. 7. Christmas carols were enjoyed during the gift exchange.

The special event of the evening was the selection of Mrs. Neil McEachern, as Orion of the Year, for her many hours of work during the Community Awards contest, in which the Orion Club was awarded first prize for clubs in the small membership group. Mrs. McEachern was presented with a gift.

Mrs. Carl Pernigotti, co-hostess, assisted Mrs. Cofer in serving refreshments at table decorated with red candle and evergreen sprays.

Those present were Mrs. Al Nanneman, Mrs. Jack Paddock, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Myron Murray, Mrs. Preston Card, Mrs. Neil McEachern, Mrs. J. L. Van Pelt, Mrs. Robert Pryor, Mrs. John W. Weber, Mrs. Charles McFarlan, Mrs. Richard Teater, Mrs. James Sweatt, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. Kenneth Hartwell, Mrs. Ray Aschenbach and Mrs. Charles York.

Party gifts were given to Mrs. Jack Paddock and Mrs. Charles Howard.

Officers for 1961 elected were Mrs. Neil McEachern, president; Mrs. Charles Howard, vice president; Mrs. John Weber, secretary-treasurer.
