FOR THE GOLFER

Although the golf enthusiast usually prefers to select his own clubs, he is most receptive to such gifts as a golf bag, a pair of lightweight golf shoes, a golf cart, and the numbered club head "mitts." All are best in leather. Not in leather, but of course always welcome, are golf balls.

Gifts Of Beauty Sustain Mood Of Christmas Season

Sparkling store facades, shop-people bustling down the avenues bearing gaily wrapped packages, colorful trees twinkling from parks and towns—these are only a few of the Christmas ingredients which transform the everyday world into a new world of brilliance.

What better way to sustain the mood of this most beautiful season than with gifts of beauty to every member of the family. From a world-famous cosmetic laboratory comes an array of Christmas gifts never before equaled, ranging from the inexpensive to the luxurious.

Delightful and at small cost is the white (elf) fantasy version of the traditional Christmas snow bird, complete with perky sequins and frothy plumage, which contains a flacon of perfume in any of four fragrances. More luxurious, within a heribonned and flowered clear plastic sphere representing a world of fragrance, is a combination of dusting powder, perfume, bath salts, soap and perfume mist.

Women aren't the only ones for whom an extra special Christmas is planned. A superb line of men's preparations are also imaginatively packaged for the holiday season. The man in your family will love, for instance, a gift box containing after shave lotion, hand soap, eau de toilette, deodorant, foam shave cream and pre-electric shave lotion. Or, for the gentleman traveler there could be no more perfect gift than an exquisitely made leather carrying case which holds a wide assortment of men's preparations.

Beauty, a habit which should begin at an early age, can best be established by giving a young lady an array of bath preparations. For the little girl of the household a perfect gift for Santa to bear is an intricately made gold metal basket containing flower mist, bath salts, hand and body lotion, sachet pillow, luminaire and hand soap. Or, for the teenager just beginning to use makeup a beauty box is a marvelous introduction to the world of beauty. This assortment will teach her to be a meticulous young lady from the beginning of her grownup days.

BLOUSES BEAUTIFUL

Fashion's decided emphasis on the smart suit sharply brings into focus a wonderful line-up of blouses—especially "presentable" for Christmas.

CHEMULT CLUB

CHEMULT—Members of Chemult Garden Club met in the clubhouse Wednesday evening to make Christmas wreaths and swags and to decorate small trees for display and for gifts.

The club will sponsor a Christmas lighting contest for juniors in the area. Cash prizes will go to those residents with the best window decorations and the best-decorated trees.

JUNIPER CLUB

A special meeting of the executive board of the Juniper Garden Club was called by the president, Mrs. Glen Ferguson, at the home of Mrs. George Chagnon, 1143 Patterson. Mrs. R. A. Nelson reported that the committee for community projects had visited the Juvenile Home to find out what the club could do to help the children in the home. Several suggestions will be made to the club members at the regular meeting.

The December meeting will be held on Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. Harold Ashley, 1325 Ogden, if the weather permits. If heavy snow should fall just prior to or on that day, it will be held at the home of Mrs. Larry Amundson, 4381 Onyx. Members in doubt as to the location may call TU 2-4153 for information. the day includes a white elephant sale, proceeds to be used to help finance the gift for the home, and a discussion on birds, led by Mrs. Jerry Wagner.

Mrs. Chagnon served a luncheon to the eight members of the board and conducted a tour of her home. During the social hour that followed the meeting, the members who had entered the recent flower show sponsored by the Northside Club reported that every participating member had taken an award.

Don't use "baking" potatoes in salads because this variety tends to get soft.

TOWEL RINGS To keep youngsters from pulling towels off the rack slip a shower curtain hook over the towel bar and sew a bone ring to the corner of the towel.
