Introduced and welcomed by the Bethel were Lorene McCollum, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter, OES, and Gus Vlahos, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge.

The honored queen thanked all officers and council members for work during her term of office. She presented gifts to Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Gus Vlahos, associate guardian, and to the line officers, after having them escorted to the East.

Carolyn Osborn, senior princess and honored queen-elect, announced and introduced her officers for her term. Installation will be held on Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Scottish Rite Temple, with a dance to follow the ceremony. Practice for installation will be held on Sunday, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m.

TOUCH OF LUXURY

You can turn your routine nightly bath into a relaxing luxury by dropping in a handful of perfumed bath salts and a few drops of bath oil.

Today's young mothers are pulling jars of baby foods off supermarket shelves at the rate of 300 per second, resulting in total retail sales of over 300 million dollars.

Rev. Arnold Pederson of Sunnyside and Dr. William Gamble of Portland, close family friend, before the altar banked with white stock, chrysanthemums and greens.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hake of Sunnyside. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kite of McCloud are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, heavy moire faille fashioned with scoop neckline, three quarter length sleeves and chapel train. A short illusion veil was held in place by a Swedish pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and carnations. A blue garter and lucky coin in her slipper were for tradition.

Billie Jane Gamble of Portland was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joy Mowatt of Mount Shasta, sister of the bridegroom, and Jean Elaine Vandiver. They were dressed alike in dark green iridescent taffeta frocks with matching slippers. White fur headbands and muffs completed their ensembles.

Walter Brown of Portland served as best man. Ushers were Bill Hake and David Kite, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, respectively.

Dressed like the bridal attendants were the flower girls, Susan Hake, niece of the bride, and Sherry Mowatt, niece of the bridegroom.

Terry Hake, nephew of the bride, and Dale Kite, the bridegroom's brother, lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

Mrs. James Dean was organist during the service.

Mrs. Hake chose for the occasion a peacock colored raw silk dress with fur headpiece and matching bag. Mrs. Kite wore a champagne brocade dress with brown accessories. Both mothers had gardenia corsages.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding in the social room of the church with approximately 100 guests attending. An elaborately decorated three tiered cake centered the bride's table which was covered with a white heirloom linen cloth. Atop the cake was a church with miniature bridal couple on the steps. Other decorations were doves holding rings and small bells.

The newlyweds cut the confetti with a decorated silver inscribed with Linda and Dicke. Mrs. Bill Hake later served the cake.

Mrs. Walter Brown of Portland attended the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Yakima Valley Junior College and Lewis and Clark College. She has since been employed as medical technician in Yakima.

Her husband, a graduate of Shasta Junior College and Lewis and Clark, is now a student at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, where they will reside at 25 Richmond Road.
