WALL STREET
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today as trading became more active after a spell of dullness.

Most leading stocks changed from fractions to about a point. Volume for the day was estimated at 3.4 million shares compared with 3.58 million Friday.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most key stocks.

An early rise by autos broke up into an assortment of small advances and declines. Steels turned from irregular to a bit lower on balance. Oils were off slightly. Tobaccos and utilities rose a little.

A number of cash sales and sales for next-day delivery appeared in order that profits could be recorded for 1950 tax returns. Some sizeable blocks reflected mild reinvestment activity.

Oregon Police Search For Burglar And Rapist

SALEM (AP)—A man who admitted a series of rapes hurled himself through a window at the state hospital Monday night. Then he and a companion sped away in a car that had raced across the hospital lawn to meet them.

State police concentrated the search in the Salem area today but found no trace of Chester Raymond Hedrick, 25, Portland, labeled the "Fat Man rapist," or Vernon Wesley Street, 41, Lake Grove, whose escape was a repeat performance.

The two men began their escape by removing a protective screen from the inside of a window in the main receiving ward on the ground floor, Supt. Dean K. Brooks said.

Hedrick then wrapped himself in a blanket and leaped through the window. He threw the blanket back inside and Street duplicated the jump.

A car then sped across the lawn, picked up the men and raced away. Hospital attendants said the car was driven by a woman.

Hedrick was arrested last fall after seven women and teenage girls said they had been attacked sexually by a fat man with greasy hair and clad in dirty clothing.

Authorities picked up Hedrick on a minor charge, questioned him at length and then said he admitted the series of rapes and sex attacks.

Hedrick was charged with the attempted rape of two teenage girls and, two days before Christmas, pleaded guilty. Sentence was postponed pending the outcome of a psychiatric examination at the state hospital. Police said he had admitted all of the rapes.

For Street, it was the second escape from the hospital in three years. Convicted of burglary in Clackamas County, he first fled the hospital barefoot in December of 1957. He was picked up three days later in Lake Grove, suffering from frost-bitten feet.

Three Held By Police

Three men spent Christmas in jail, two of them for fighting with each other in front of a downtown cafe and the other for abusing his wife.

Eugene V. Eaton, 32, Virginia; Donald E. Krening, 22, Kingsley Field, and Eddie Lee Dailey, 37, 616 Commercial Street were charged with disorderly conduct and appeared in municipal court Tuesday morning.

Eaton and Krening were arrested early Saturday in front of The Broiler, 620 Main Street. Policemen had to force the two men apart.

Dailey's wife charged him with disorderly conduct Sunday night after she alleged that he was abusive and profane. While police were arresting Dailey, they said he hit her in the face and warned them to "bring something bigger than a cannon next time you try and arrest me."

A would-be good samaritan was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital Christmas night after he tried to stop a fight in a tavern and got hit over the head with a beer bottle.

Jim Burgess, 1406 Dayton Street, said he had tried to help in a fight at the Sunrise Tavern. Ten stitches were taken to close cuts in his scalp.

Another fight was reported in the same tavern Monday night. Bill Ferris Seabery, 3060 Lodi Street, said three men pulled him off a bar stool and beat him up. He was treated at the hospital for facial lacerations and bruises and said he would sign a complaint Tuesday morning.

Three Northwest Cities Hit By Serious Blazes

Washington, and Moscow, Idaho, were hardest hit. Fire damage in each city was estimated unofficially at $100,000 or more.

Rochester, a Thurston County town 10 miles northwest of Centralia, lost a pioneer combination feed and grocery store. There was no early damage estimate.

A dime store and a cafe were destroyed and the Okanogan Valley branch of the Seattle - First National Bank in Okanogan was damaged in the first of the series of fires. It broke out shortly before 8 p.m. Monday.

A jewelry store and drug store barber shop, coffee shop and suite of offices for four doctors and lawyers were burned out in the New Creighton Building in Moscow in a pre-dawn blaze. Firemen fought the flames for five hours in 28-degree weather on streets covered with four inches of snow.

The Rochester fire, about 2:30 a.m., razed a pioneer frame structure 100 by 40 feet near the center of town.

Causes of the fires were not determined immediately.

Man Jailed For Firing Inside City

A man who told his wife that he "was going out to shoot some Indians" received a fine of $100 and 35 days in jail Tuesday morning in municipal court after he was convicted of discharging firearms in the city and drunk driving.

Louie Robinson, 39, 2417 Eberline Street, was arrested by city police at Commercial Street and Klamath Avenue Tuesday morning.

Robinson, according to police reports, had come home drunk and angry and told his wife that he was "going to shoot some Indians and any cops that get in the way." Mrs. Robinson said her husband grabbed his 30.06 rifle, got in his car and drove off.

Wary of the threats, three police cars converged on Robinson's vehicle. They said he had the rifle in the car. Four live shells were found in the gun and one spent cartridge was on the floor. Robinson admitted firing one shot in the driveway of his home. He also told police the name of a man that he planned on shooting.

Judge Clarence Humble levied a $100 and 30-day sentence for drunk driving and a $25 or five-day sentence on the shooting charge.

Toy Drive Is Aided By Story

A last minute plea Friday in the Herald and News for aid in the annual "Operation Santa Claus," sponsored by Klamath Falls Lodge, No. 1106 Loyal Order of Moose, and Women of the Moose, resulted in donations of enough toys to take care of every child whose name had been received.

Until Friday, Moose committee members said, the donations of toys to the annual gift distribution had been negligible. The names of 417 children in 112 families had been received.

But with publication of the plea for more toys, the public and many business firms responded generously and by dark Saturday night every toy was tucked into six trucks and six Moose member Santa Clauses were on their way to homes in many parts of the community.

In addition to local visits, boxes of toys also went to Keno and Bonanza.

Through the courtesy of Jim Knoles, manager of Consolidated Freightways here, use of six trucks was donated. Six drivers including Knoles, non-members of the sponsoring lodge, donated their Christmas Eves to man the trucks. They were Jim Knoles, Frank Wryn, Ernie Fullen, Jim Reis, Phil Barry and Leonard Springer. Jack Lawson, a Consolidated Freightways employee, also assisted.

Moose Santa Clauses were Lodge Governor Orval Musgrove, Ralph Hix, Everett Leach, Melvin Douglas, Jim Lane and Roy Carlisle.

Car Crash Takes Life Of Woman

Two cars hit in dense fog south of Albany early today, killing a Portland woman and injuring six persons.

It was the latest in the series of weather-caused mishaps that marred the long Christmas week-end.

The Albany accident, that took the life of Mrs. Leonard Parker, 68, Kelso, Wash.; his wife Ruth Fay, 65, and her twin sister, Ruby Day Warren, Ordway, Colo., and Clifford Schaffer, 45, Kelso. They were taken to Albany General Hospital where an attendant said no report on their condition could be released. It was believed, though, that none had been critically injured.

Walsh Rites Set Today

Clyde Leo Walsh, 60, a resident of Klamath Falls for 50 years, died Dec. 25. He had been a semi-invalid for 10 years following an automobile wreck in California. He was a native of Jacksonville.

Mr. Walsh was employed for a time at Cal-Ore, at the Eagles Lodge and elsewhere in Klamath Falls. He was also employed as a taxi driver for Pat's Cab. He managed a number of basketball teams for local firms during the years he was active.

A nephew, Allen L. Cline, Klamath Falls, survives.

Graveside services were held in Klamath Memorial Park, Tuesday, Dec. 27, at 11 a.m. with O'Hair's Memorial Chapel in charge.

J. L. Quinn Rites Today

James L. Quinn, a former well known general building contractor in Klamath Falls and Portland, died Dec. 25 in San Francisco.

He was a native of Glasgow, Scotland, born Sept. 15, 1880. He came to this country early in his youth.

Mr. Quinn, during his residence here, was the contractor on the building of Klamath Union High School, 1927-1928; Great Northern Depot and freight sheds, 1928; Murray Building, now occupied by Woolworth, 1928-1929; Golden Rule Building, occupied by the J. C. Penney Company, 1929; Kesterson Mill, 1929-1930; Keno School, 1930; Hirvi Bakery, 1931, and several other additions to Klamath Falls elementary schools.

In Portland he built the Grant High School and Irvington Elementary School. Numerous other buildings in the state were also built by Mr. Quinn.

He was a former member of Klamath Falls Lodge, No. 1247, BPOE and the Klamath Falls Rotary Club.

Surviving are the widow, Margaret; a daughter, Barbara, 1770 Pacific Avenue, San Francisco, and a son, James L. Quinn Jr., Santa Rosa.

Funeral services were at 10 a.m. today in San Francisco.

Cold Grips State Area

Snow fell overnight in the mountains as freezing cold gripped most of Oregon early today. The tail-end of the holiday rush found traffic conditions hazardous—thick fog in Western Oregon and ice on highways throughout the southern and eastern sections of the state.

No more rain or snow was expected tonight and Wednesday, but forecasters said temperatures will drop even lower tonight.

Two Youths Are Killed In Mishaps

YREKA — Two youths were killed in separate auto accidents in Siskiyou County over Christmas week end, the California Highway Patrol reported.

They said Paul Ernest Collins, 21, Fort Jones, died when his car missed a turn on Salmon River Road and plunged over an embankment at 10:30 p.m. Dec. 24.

Collins, patrolmen said, was westbound toward Sawyers Bar, 2.5 miles south of Etna. The road was slippery and Collins lost control, officers said. He and his passenger, Ronda Lee Cummins, 16, Fort Jones, were thrown out. He struck rocks and was killed instantly.

The girl received minor injuries. She walked to a friend's home for help, officers stated. She was given medical treatment later in Etna.

The other accident occurred a fraction of a mile south of Klamath River Bridge at 5:50 a.m. Dec. 24. Patrolman said Russell Brian Rose, 23, El Monte, was killed when his car, driven by Daniel Lee Harvey, 17, Tacoma, a sailor stationed at China Lake, pitched over an embankment.

Rose was thrown out, patrolmen said. Harvey rode the car to the bottom of its plunge. He was taken to Siskiyou County General Hospital for treatment of injuries.
