Floy Johnston Heads Rebekahs

YREKA—Election of officers for Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33 highlighted the Christmas party meeting held Dec. 13. Floy Johnston was elected noble grand. She will be installed to that office on Jan. 28.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Mary Bovve, vice grand; Mrs. Velma Dodson, recording secretary; Mrs. Bernice Meek, financial secretary, and Mrs. Ora Freeman, treasurer.

Also during the business session which was conducted by Mrs. Alice Singleton, noble grand, the members voted to send a check to the orphan home in Gilroy for the purchase of Christmas toys.

After the close of the business session a Christmas party was held in the dining room of the IOOF Hall, where the party tables were centered with miniature green Christmas trees and pink stars. Gifts were distributed and secret pals were revealed.

The decorations were creations of Mrs. Ernest Johnson, who, with her husband, was co-chairman for the party.

Grange Club Has Election

YREKA—Election of officers for 1961 highlighted the business session of the Greenhorn Grange Home Economics Club, which was conducted by Haldis Ralston. The meeting, which was followed with a Christmas party, took place at the home of Mrs. Laura Cawley, with Mrs. Becky Coles sharing hostess duties.

Mrs. Haldis Ralston was re-elected chairman. Mrs. Jessie Terwilliger is vice chairman; Mrs. Laura Cawley, secretary, and Mrs. Becky Coles treasurer.

Members voted to conduct a series of card parties to start Jan. 12.

Mrs. Cawley had her home beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme for the Dec. 16 event, which consisted of a short Christmas program, an exchange of gifts and the serving of refreshments.

Present in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Forence

Burgess, Mrs. Lorena Insko, Mrs. Alice McNames, Mrs. Amelia Andrews, Mrs. Doris Robinson, Mabel Marx, Mrs. Mary Truph-mus, Mrs. Carrie LeMay, Mrs. Mary Lemos, Mrs. Rose Raymond, Mrs. Ann Akers, Mrs. Hil-da Cooley, Mrs. Alta Allen, Mrs. Mae Callahan, Mrs. Beth Hollo-way, Mrs. Freda Hoskins, Mrs. Flora Baker, Mrs. Mary Shultz, Mrs. Mary Bovve, Mrs. Estelle Severns, Mrs. Mary Ralston, Mrs. Gertrude Ackerman, Mrs. Jo-An Van der Muelen, Mrs. Jo Ann Johnson and daughters, Pam and Kim.
