AN UNUSUAL WAY to serve potatoes is as a fondue... easy to prepare when you use instant whipped potato flakes.

POTATO FONDUE

That versatile vegetable, the potato, graces the table once a day in most American homes. Because it appears so frequently, it's served in many ways - baked, fried, whipped, scalloped, in casseroles and sometimes in soup. Here's still another way to serve potatoes that is quick, easy and unusual - Potato Fondue. Traditionally, fondue is a rich mixture of melted cheese, bread crumbs and cream. This recipe substitutes potatoes for the cheese and calls for one envelope of instant whipped potato flakes. This wonderful convenience product saves peeling, cooking and mashing potatoes. Just boil the measured amount of salted water, add milk and butter and then the tiny "flavor flakes." In seconds you can whip up mounds of light, delicious potatoes. Then add the other ingredients, sprinkle parsley on top and pop into the oven. Here's how:

POTATO FONDUE
(Makes four servings)
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup cold milk
1 envelope Instant Whipped Potato Flakes
1/4 cup light cream
1 cup seasoned bread crumbs
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
Chopped parsley
Combine water and salt in medium-size saucepan; cover, bring to boil. Remove from heat. Add butter and milk immediately, then Whipped Potato Flakes. Stir gently with fork or wire whip until liquid is absorbed, whip briskly. Combine potatoes with light cream, seasoned bread crumbs and chopped onion; blend well. Pour into well buttered 1 1/2-quart casserole. Sprinkle chopped parsley on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 20 minutes or until golden brown.

COLD WEATHER TREAT

Hot Chocolate Warm Tummies

This is the season of pink cheeks, cold fingers and large appetites. After a vigorous day of school or playing, the children will welcome a good hot drink to warm them up until bedtime. Make it with instant chocolate flavored mix, a rich blend of fine Holland cocoa. It combines quickly and easily with either hot or cold milk and has lots of vitamins and minerals. Spice the drink with cinnamon, whirl it around in the blender and serve it in mugs with a marshmallow on cinnamon sticks. This delicious concoction provides plenty of nourishment and helps the daily milk allotment go down effortlessly. Here's the recipe:

SKATERS' AND SKIERS' HOT CHOCOLATE DRINK
(Makes one cup)
1/4 cup ground beef
2 tablespoons salad oil
6 eggs
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons instant minced onion
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup drained cooked spinach
1/2 cup finely chopped spinach
Crisp toast or French fried potatoes
Cook beef lightly in oil. Beat eggs; add water, onion and salt. Add egg mixture and spinach to beef. Cook over medium heat, turning frequently with a spatula, until eggs are firm as desired. Serve with crisp toast or French Fried potatoes.
Makes four servings.

Ever add a tablespoon of chocolate syrup to an egg nog made with one egg and one cup milk? More chocolate syrup plus sugar may be added the stronger flavor.
