WALL STREET

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed mixed in very heavy trading today, the final session of 1960.
In a welter of yearend transactions for tax or portfolio purposes, no pronounced trend was apparent.
Volume was estimated at 4.8 billion shares compared with 4.34 billion Thursday.
Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were scattered among key stocks.
American Telephone advanced 1 1/2 to a new historic peak of 108 1/2 before paring the gain.
The market will be closed Monday in observance of New Year's. Transactions for tax purposes and to shape up portfolios for annual reports of institutional investors still clouded the trend.
Texaco, up more than a point, was outstanding among oils. Kerr-McGee preferred rose more than a point.
Making its big board debut, Avnet Electronics was off a fraction. International Resistance dropped more than 2 points as did Polaroid.
U.S. Steel was off a fraction while other major steels held steady. Big three autos were up fractionally.
Modest gains were scored by Jersey Standard, Union Carbide, Boeing, Allied Chemical, Commonwealth Edison and Chesapeake & Ohio.

A RETIRING BAILIFF, Julian R. Abbott, center, received his final sheaf of legal papers Friday morning from Circuit Court Judge David R. Vandenberg, right. Abbott, 65, became bailiff in May, 1956, after retiring from the real estate business. He came to Klamath Falls in 1919. Fred H. Heilbronner, left, gets some tips on the job as he prepares to assume the bailiff's duties.

Familiar Face To Be Gone Well-Known Tuesday In Circuit Court Falls Man's Funeral Set

A familiar face will be missing from Judge David R. Vandenberg's circuit courtroom when court convenes again Tuesday morning. Julian R. Abbott, who has been the judge's bailiff for 4 1/2 years, is spending his final day in court today.
Abbott, a young 65, will be succeeded by Fred H. Heilbronner, a retired Klamath Falls businessman. Travel plans fill the immediate future for Abbott and his wife of 36 years, Alice. They intend to visit Southern California in January or February and are considering a jaunt to Europe during the summer.
One of the Abbotts' children, Sister Alice Julianne, is a nun in a San Diego convent and the other, Capt. Dean E. Abbott, is an Air Force intelligence officer. Mrs. Abbott is the former Alice Fenwick, who taught school at Algoma and Spring Lake.
"A thatch of white hair and a piquish, twinkly-eyed smile are Abbott's trademarks. His cheerfulness is often a welcome relief to trial tense lawyers and court visitors. He can recall one time, however, when his sunny outlook was shattered.
"It was in January, 1957. The judge and I were talking when he heard a loud report from the room below us. I ran downstairs to the county court office and found that Fred Peterson, the welfare board chairman, had been shot," Abbott recalled. "The only excitement in the past three years has been verbal battles between the lawyers."
As bailiff, it has been Abbott's job to see that court business is carried on in an orderly manner. He has filed judicial decisions, called witnesses and supervised the juries in the courtroom.
Abbott came into the bailiff's position "cold." When he heard of a vacancy in the court job, he went to Judge Vandenberg and applied. He assumed his duties in May, 1956. He has the distinction of being the first bailiff in 20 years to walk off the job. The three previous bailiffs died.
Born in Salem on Aug. 15, 1895, Abbott moved with his family to Corvallis and then to Jacksonville, where his father opened a hotel. The wanderlust bug bit

Former Defense Employee Accused Of Secret Theft
COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—A former defense department employee has been charged with stealing secret documents.
Arthur Rogers Roddey, 38, of Falls Church, Va., told newsmen he took the papers "to take them to the National Security Council."
He said after his arrest Thursday, "I felt I was right and I still feel that way."
The council is the top echelon of the department of defense. Roddey was senior operations research adviser for the weapons system evaluation group of the Institute of Defense Analysis.
A newsmen asked Roddey at his arraignment if he felt the documents contained information he thought the council should have but that it had not been given.
"I don't know what they knew, but I knew what I knew and wanted them to know it," he replied. He conceded he did not take the documents to the council.
The Federal Bureau of Investigation said the case does not involve espionage.
In Richmond, Va., however, U. S. Dist. Atty. Joseph S. Bamabus, who authorized filing of the charges, commented, "I plan to reconvene the federal grand jury in Alexandria (Va.) within the next 10 days and I will ask the grand jury to indict Roddey on espionage charges."
He said some of the documents are "so highly classified that their mere existence, let alone their contents, are top secret."

Drunk Arrest Reveals Rifle Hidden On Man

A routine drunk arrest early Friday morning turned into a more serious case when the arresting officer saw a rifle but peeking from above the man's belt.
A city police officer saw Robert Roy Ward, 21, 430 Washington Street, reeling down Main Street between Fifth and Sixth streets. In talking with Ward, the officer noticed him fingering his waist—and then the gun butt was disclosed.
After searching Ward thoroughly, it was found that a 22 rifle had been broken down; the barrel had been shoved down the right pants leg and the stock was concealed on the left side. Fifteen rounds of live ammunition were in the gun and one bullet was in the firing chamber with the safety off.
Ward said he was carrying the gun for protection as he had been threatened by some Indians. He was sentenced to pay $25 or serve five days on the drunk charge and was also accused of carrying a concealed weapon.
