And An Occasional Blow... by WAYNE SCOTT

When and busy "cleaning" up or swinging a sculler, Marion Grant bowls, and when he bowls he leaves a mark on both the Lucky Lanes and new Holiday Bowl alleys.

This week Grant tossed a 200-200-200 for a 600 at Lucky in the Major Classic league and won himself an ABC Triplecote patch. Didn't stop to figure out what the odds are against this particular accomplishment, but it ain't easy. . . . I had no trouble, however, figuring out his three game average for the series.

Just to compound things he stepped onto the hardwood at the Holiday and came through with a 630 to set a new high series mark in the Classic Trio loop. Must have gotten a new ball for Christmas.

Bill Hawley twirled a 244 the same night to grab off high game honors in the league to date. The Holiday foursomes saw new highs posted as Dee Wickline rolled a series of 504 while Johnny Rose blasted a 257 to top the men's single game mark.

In the Holiday League Ted Pinner span a 248 while Fran Ramsey collected the high series with a 630.

Al Hakenwerth is showing his old form as evidenced by the 200-256-223-173 for a four game total of 851 in the Master's Trio. . . . Frank Beard was crowding him all the way with a 178-188-206-236 for an 810.

Incidentally, daily instruction courses open to any one interested are scheduled to begin at the Holiday on Jan. 9. The classes are slated seven days a week, from 10 a.m. until 11:30. If you'd like to enter call TU 3-4646.

Meanwhile, back at Lucky Lanes, Chuck Reynolds added his name to the Honor Roll with a 689 series. . . . Jerry Cole is back with a 672; Billy Baley hit a 629 and Ralph Clough and Gino Roserella each collected 623's.

Lela Mathison led the ladies with 532, followed by Opal McDonald and her 542, Willie Solomon with a 538, Bonnie Snyder and a 530, and Audrey Herrick was fifth with a 527.

Johnny Webb, the Rockin' Bowler, proved that the size of the ball doesn't make much difference—either baseball or bowling ball, he chucks strikes. He rolled a 635 plus a six pin handicap to win the City Tournament at

Fearless Fraley Devises Plan To Get Rid Of Extra Xmas Loot

By OSCAR FRALEY
MIAMI (UPI) — Fraley's final follies of 1960—the "winners" of the bowl games or what to do with all that spare money left over after Christmas.

GATOR BOWL
Baylor over Florida: This one maybe is in the football history books by the time you read all the ads and get around to this but it will give you a tipoff on what a solid line we're sending.

Florida entered the fray a one-half point choice although Baylor wound up as the nation's 12th ranking team while Florida was no better than 16th. To further confuse the issue, Rice beat Florida, 10-0, while Baylor bested Rice, 13-7.

MISSOURI OVER NAVY: These tired red-rimmed old eyes have been fastened on the preparations for this one all week and it seems like a bigger risk than one-butten suspenders to give the seven points by which Missouri is favored. The thought here is that the bowl-tattered Tigers, having lost all six such contests in which they have appeared, are about ready to bust loose. There's little to choose on the surface. Missouri, ranked fourth nationally, beat the Air Force, 34-6. Navy, ranked sixth at season's end, whopped the Space Cadets, 33-3.

The "show me" boys are miffed at the Middies over a lot of pre-game lip; have the line to shackle Joe Bellino and the pass defense to make Hal Spooner their dish.

MINNESOTA OVER WASHINGTON: And just to really put two left feet in an extra large mouth, by more than the seven points being quoted.

There were no common opponents for top-ranked Minnesota and fifth-ranked Washington so you can't make any odious comparisons.

Comparative scores make as much sense anyhow as cast iron waterwings.

"'T'instance, Minnesota beat Iowa, 27-10; Iowa whopped Purdue, 21-14, and Purdue boiford Minnesota 23-14. Meaning Minnesota was 17 points better than Iowa, which was seven points better than Purdue, which was nine points better than Minnesota and what else is new?

SUGAR BOWL
Mississippi over Rice: Creamed by more than the 10 being quoted by the lads in the back room.

Ole Miss finished third in the final rankings by the UPI Board of Coaches with a lot of support for top honors. Unpuffed Rice didn't even make the first 20.

Against common denominators, Ole Miss beat Tulane, 28-13, and Arkansas, 10-7. Rice stopped Tulane, 10-7, but lost, love-three, to Arkansas. That old river oughta overflow the banks and ruin the crop good.

Hawkeyes Mow Down Three Of Five West Clubs To Win LA Hoop Classic

By United Press International
The holiday tournaments on the Pacific Coast were over Saturday with Iowa, Oregon State and USF reigning as champions.

With the New Year will come the conference races, with the summit of college cagedom—the NCAA tournament—following close behind. But as 1960 closed, the Hawkeyes, Beavers and Dons temporarily ruled the roost.

At Los Angeles, they came to cheer Indiana's Walt Bellamy, but stayed to salute Iowa's Don Nelson. The four Big Five teams were able to handle Indiana, Minnesota and Michigan State of the Big Ten, but the never-say-die Hawkeyes mowed down the three top teams of the AAWU to pick up all the marbles.

Iowa doomed UCLA in the finals 71-65. Other scores included USC 90, Indiana 71 (third); California 40, Stanford 36 (fifth), and Minnesota 83, Michigan State 77 (seventh).

UCLA held a 38-34 halftime bulge, but Iowa passed the Bruins with 12 minutes to go and hung on, Nelson, a 6 foot, 6 inch junior, hit 28 to raise his three-game tourney total to 72. Soph Ron Lawson had 18 for the Bruins who absorbed their second loss the season.

Indiana's 6 foot, 10 inch Walt Bellamy hit 27 points, but was again outplayed by his foe as Troy's talented John Rudometkin smashed the tournament one-game record with 35 points.

The national fourth-ranked Hoosiers thus lost two out of three here and Bellamy, while good, definitely took a back seat to players such as Nelson, Rudometkin and Cal's Bill McClintock.

The Cal-Stanford game was an exhibition of the defensive style basketball favored by Bay Area schools. Cal led 15-13 at the half, and Tom Jewell, a 245-pound Idaho State lineman, they were fifth and seventeenth round choices.

Kilmer, a 195-pounder from Azusa, Calif., is believed to be a key man in the Forty Niner plans for next season.

Coach Red Hickey has unveiled a unique "shotgun" spread offense to augment the standard-T. The Forty Niner offense therefore requires both a T-formation quarterback and a single-wing type of tailback. Kilmer is perhaps the only man in collegiate football last season who filled the bill.

Five men on the West team have now been signed by the Forty Niners.

Tom Matte, who quarterbacked the East team Saturday, inked a contract with the Baltimore Colts. He was the Colts' number one draft choice. And from Los Angeles came rumors that West end Marlin McKeever has signed with a 250-pound Wake Forest tackle, the Los Angeles Rams.

Schloredt's Status Still Undecided

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The uncertain role of 1959 All-American Bob Schloredt of Washington State in the National Football League, had four more players under contract Saturday.

Unless Coach Jim Owens switches at the last minute, the quarterback in Washington's 44-8 conquest of Wisconsin last New Year's Day will be on the bench Monday when the Huskies start against the national champions.

But Schloredt, inactive since he broke his collarbone against UCLA two months ago, is certain to be in action soon thereafter.

"He's healed but he hasn't hit the conditioning and timing he had in midseason," said Owens. "He'll play at least half the time, though."

Westerners who watched Schloredt transform Washington into a team of dash and daring last year are sure the 197-pound 6-footer will be in the thick of it.

Washington and Minnesota coaching staffs agree that the starter, Bob Hivner, is a quarterback of high ability. He demonstrated it by leading the Huskies through one tight scrape after another in the late season.

49ers Getting Jump On Rest Of League

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners, getting the jump on the rest of the National Football League, had four more players under contract Saturday.

Biggest news came when UCLA tailback Bill Kilmer joined the team Friday. He was the nation's top offensive king and led the West against the East Saturday in the Shrine Classic.

He was also one of three players picked by the Forty Niners during the first round of last week's drafting at Philadelphia.

The other two, UCLA's Jim Johnson and Bowling Green's Bernie Casey, also have signed with the Forty Niners.

Tom Matte, who quarterbacked the East team Saturday, inked a contract with the Baltimore Colts. He was the Colts' number one draft choice. And from Los Angeles came rumors that West end Marlin McKeever has signed with a 250-pound Wake Forest tackle, the Los Angeles Rams.

LA Chargers Set For Oiler Squad

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Los Angeles Chargers, losers in Houston's first American Football League game, worked out Saturday with hopes of closing the season with upset victory.

The Chargers and the Houston Oilers meet in the AFL's first championship game Sunday before an expected 25,000 persons and a national television audience—ABC, 2:30 p. m., CST. Houston is a 6½ point favorite.

The Chargers lost to Houston, 38-28, in the Oilers' first league home game in September, and won, 24-21, on a muddy field in Los Angeles later.

The Chargers, with 10-4 record, won the league's Western Division, Houston, also 10-4, won the Eastern Division.

Sid Gillman, Los Angeles coach, brings the best-balanced team in the AFL into the game.

The Chargers weren't tops in any of the league's six-team statistical categories, but they never were worse than fourth in any department.

The Los Angeles hopes depend on the passing of Jack Kemp, the AFL's top passer, the running of Paul Lowe, Ben Agajanian's kicking, and defensive work of Ron Boichan, Emil Karas, Ronnie Loud, Dick Harris and Jim Seard.

But Agajanian, as a kicker, may be the Chargers' best defensive weapon against Houston.

If Agajanian sails his kickoffs out of the end zone, he can single-handedly stop the threat of the league's top kickoff return specialist, Ken Hall of Houston who has a 31.8 average on 19 kickoff returns.

Bill Cannon, another Houston back, returned only eight kickoffs during the season, but he averaged 33.3 yards on each one.

Hall went 103 yards for a touchdown against New York, and Cannon returned a Boston kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown.

Kicking, in fact, could be the big factor in the game.

Agajanian, called out of retirement by Gillman, kicked 13 field goals and 46 extra points for the Chargers this season. George Blanda kicked 15 field goals and 42 extra points. Agajanian scored 85 points by kicking. Blanda 87.

Raider '11' Not Likely To Transfer

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Oakland Raiders are not likely to become the Honolulu Raiders, according to general manager Chet Soda.

He emphatically denied Friday that he had ever been contacted by Bill Pacheco of Honolulu about shifting the club. Pacheco had been quoted as saying he would "give a million dollars" to get an AFL franchise if he got control of Honolulu Stadium.

"I've never been contacted by this man," Soda said. "But if he is offering a million dollars for a franchise, give him my name and phone number, will you?"

Soda recalled that he had once talked to some people "some time back" about the possibility of moving the Raider franchise to the Islands.

"But we never gave it serious thought," he added. "We are busy right now trying to get ready for the next two years in Oakland. If we ever get a stadium built on this side of the bay, we'll be okay right here."

Rice, 'Miss' May Get Wet

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Sooner or later, the weatherman always slips into the bowl picture and for Monday's Sugar Bowl football game between Mississippi and Rice, he says it might be wet.

The weekend weather outlook for the New Orleans area calls for temperatures around 50 to 60 degrees with occasional rain Sunday and Monday.

But damp underfooting shouldn't bother either Mississippi, runnerup to Minnesota for the national title, or the Owls who tied for second place in the South-west Conference.

Mississippi rules a 10-point favorite, but support is growing for Rice. And with a wet field in prospect, the 80,000 fans in Tulane Stadium and millions more on national television (NBC) might see a pretty close game.

Wet conditions could hamper the passing of Rebel quarterback Jake Gibbs, an All-America. But Gibbs is backed up by some good running backs in halfbacks Bobby Crespiro and George Blair and fullback Jim Anderson. And Gibbs is a pretty good runner himself if conditions dictate he should concentrate on a ground attack.

Rice will have the same burden since a wet ball probably would hamper Owl quarterback Billy Cox. But again, Rice has capable runners in halfbacks Bob Wayt and Max Webb and fullback Roland Jackson.

George J. Kolowich Jr. of Denver is president of the National Industrial Basketball League for the second straight year.

Cotton Bowl Foes Praise Rival Clubs

DALLAS (AP)—Coaches Frank Broyles of Arkansas and Bill Murray of Duke told each other how good the other's team was today while preparing to beat its ears off in the Cotton Bowl Monday.

Murray said Arkansas was the quickest team he had seen this season and that it "comes nearer going at everything 100 per cent."

Broyles said Duke had a powerful running game and excellent passing and that he thought it gave 100 per cent even in its defeats.

The argument of the two coaches had—through the writers—about the Arkansas weights, with Murray claiming they were incorrect in the Cotton Bowl program and Broyles saying they were substantially correct, simmered down some when the two coaches took their first 22 players and arrived at an average. Arkansas, it appeared, averaged 192 to 195 pounds to the man and Duke 205.

Anyway, Broyles said he figured Duke would have an advantage if it's a muddy field because of the superior weight.

The Weather Bureau says prospects indicate there won't be any rain Monday but it can make no positive forecast. Rain set in early Saturday.

SIGN PRO CONTRACTS
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty-Niners have signed quarterback Bill Kilmer of UCLA and center Ronald Lakes of Wichita, their first and second draft choices, to 1961 contracts.

Dave Budd, now a member of the New York Knickerbockers, scored 1,014 points in three varsity basketball seasons at Wake Forest College.

Citadel Dominates Tangerine Action

ORLANDO Fla. (UPI)—The ground and 167 to 30 yards by Citadel, riding the passing arm of senior quarterback Jerry Nettles, won the 15th annual Tangerine Bowl Friday night with a 27-0 win over Tennessee Tech.

The Citadel completely dominated play before a record crowd of more than 13,000, outgaining Tech 241 to 71 yards on the

In Victoria, where the Cougars defeated the Comets 6-2 with four third-period goals, a whopping brawl broke out with less than two minutes remaining. Before referee Lou Farelli got through, a record 20 minutes in penalties were handed out.

Seattle Ice Star Counts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Each time Seattle center Guy Fielder picks up a point in the future, he'll be rewriting the Western Hockey League record books. But it may be years before a new entry removes the mark made Friday night by the Victoria Cougars and Spokane Comets.

The second period was scoreless but the second half was barely underway when halfback Tommy Edwards tipped off left tackle and rambled 56 yards for a score. The extra point attempt failed. Later in the same period, Nettles threw a 16-yard pass to end Bill Gilce for the third touchdown and the extra point was good.

The Citadel ended the scoring in the final period when quarterback Sid Mitchell, heading up a squad of reserves, sneaked over from the one.
