Yreka Couple Is Wed In First Baptist Church

YREKA—An exchange of nuptial vows Nov. 18 at the First Baptist Church of Yreka united in marriage Carrie Mushett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Mushett, and Alvis Callick, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Callick, both families of Yreka.

Beauty baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted candles banked the altar for the evening wedding service read by the Rev. Maxwell Aiken in the presence of approximately 85 guests. White satin bows with lily of the valley marked the family pews. A white aisle runner completed the decorations of the church.

James Mushett escorted and gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white gown of lace and net over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline, embroidered in sequins, and long sleeves. The floor length bouffant skirt of net over taffeta was accented with lace panels. The bride's fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was secured with a tiara.

She wore a single strand of pearls from Formosa, a gift from an uncle, Howard F. Mushett, who was stationed there with the Marine Corps.

Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of gardenias, with a white orchid nestled in its center.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Richard Hahn of Fort Jones, an aunt of the bride, with Marsha Bessonet and Janice Willmarth as bridesmaids. Mrs. Hahn was gowned in pink, the dress featuring a bouffant nylon skirt with a lace bolero. The dresses worn by the bridesmaids, one of blue, the other turquoise, were also fashioned with full skirts, and matching lace boleros.

The attendants wore brief white veils held in place with flowers, and carried white carnation bouquets tied with white satin ribbons.

A pink organdy ballerina length frock was worn by the flower girl, Deanna Hahn, cousin of the bride. She also wore a circlet of pink flowers in her hair.

J. R. Sharples of Yreka, a close friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Guests were seated by Richard A. Hahn of Fort Jones and Bernard Aseltine of Hawkinsville.

Ronald Culp sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. James Steinhaus, pianist, who also

Couple Wed In Reno Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Story announce the marriage of their daughter, Glenda, to Ronald Day Dec. 12 at Parks Wedding Chapel in Reno.

The bride wore a simply styled royal blue wool dress for the single ring ceremony.

She is a graduate of Merrill High School and attended Southern Oregon College.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Newell of Jefferson, Ia. He attended Iowa State Teachers College and has served three years with the Marines.

Both young people are employed in Sacramento where they will reside at 2424 P Street, Apartment 23.

THE BRETROTHAL of Carol Ann Heaton and Billy Thompson is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norby Heaton of Merrill. She is a senior at Merrill High School. Her fiance, a 1960 graduate of the same school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Thompson, also of Merrill. No date has been set for the wedding. — Photo by Ferebee.

HOLIDAY DINNER
LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dearborn had as dinner guests on Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dearborn, Bill, Fred and Henry; Mrs. Ruby Brown, Mark Paul and Ted Dearborn, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Monroe, Jerral, Matt and Carrie.

blue suit complemented with white accessories.

The newlyweds, having postponed their honeymoon trip till a later date, are residing in Greenview.

The bride was graduated last June from Yreka High School. Her husband is also a graduate of Yreka High School.

Special guests at the wedding included James L. Mushett of Los Angeles, paternal grandfather of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Morris, the maternal grandparents of the bride.

Baby Shower

Mrs. E. M. Chilcote was hostess Thursday, Dec. 29, at her home, 2037 Fremont Street, at a baby shower in honor of Mrs. Ralph Richardson.

The guest of honor was presented a baby play pen from her friends.

Each guest wrote her preference for a baby name on a white or pink bootee which was then hung on a tree as an unusual centerpiece for the refreshment table.

The afternoon was spent in visiting.

Bridge Play Winners Told

Mrs. Lena Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Goble held high score for the Howell Movement duplicate play on Tuesday, Dec. 27. Tied for second place were Mrs. R. H. Reeves and Mrs. Vern Moore and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Robert Thompson Jr. Fourth place was held by Mrs. Claude Davis and Mrs. George Myers.

Eleven tables were in play at the Thursday evening tournament of the Lakeshore Duplicate Club.

Guest players for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Cal Hoffman of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson of Medford.

High for north-south position were Mrs. Robert Thompson and Robert Thompson Jr., followed by Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. Lena Smith, second, and Mrs. Lloyd Goble and Mrs. Leona Robertson, third.

Mrs. George Rogers and Mrs. Lester Offield were high in the east-west position. Mrs. Harold Cloake and Mrs. Lois Serruys were second and Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. David Vandenberg Sr., third.

Jan. 8 and 12 are the dates for the two session open pair championship tournament to be played at the City Library starting at 7:15 p.m. each evening. Extra master-points will be given and refreshments will be served, according to Mrs. Grace Kresse, director.

Steamed rice and chutney are a "must" with any curried dish. Peanuts (salted or plain) are also a flavorful addition; put them through the fine blade of the food chopper so they may be sprinkled over the curry.
