Home Extension

At the Dec. 13 Christmas party of the Poe Valley-Olene Unit members of Langell Valley Unit were invited guests. Gifts were exchanged and luncheon served by Mrs. Edward Wenz and Mrs. Earnest Geinger.

The next meeting will be in Olene on Jan. 10. Fabric identification will be the topic.

The Shasta-Homedale Unit observed the holiday season with a gift exchange Dec. 16 at the fairgrounds. Lucile House and Leah Ferrell molded cranberry salad into candle shapes for additional table attractions.

A special program was presented by Bea Johnson and Christina Thomason, members of the Buena Vista Unit. They showed different Christmas ornaments

CAROLYN OSBORN will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 61, Jobs Daughters, on Jan. 14 at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public is invited to the ceremony which will start at 8 p.m. A queen's ball will follow the installation.

Garden Club Slates Meet

MONTAGUE—The first meeting of the new year slated by the Shasta Valley Garden Club of Montague will be Friday, Jan. 6, at 12:30 p.m., in the club room of the Montague Auditorium. In charge of arrangements for the potluck luncheon to be served prior to the business session and program is Mrs. Mary Lilly, who will be assisted by Mrs. Grace Leavers, Mrs. Mary Lemos and Mrs. Allie Moore.

Following the business session, which will be conducted by the president, Mrs. Rita Prather, films on roses and lawns will be shown. Mrs. Ellen Walters will talk briefly on famous gardens of America.

Founders Day Noted By DAR

YREKA — A Christmas party and the celebration of Founder's Day highlighted the December meeting of the Siskiyou Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held at the Yreka Inn. Regent Atlanta Adams presided.

Devotions were led by Chaplain Mrs. William Ensele, followed with the salute to the flag and singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Mrs. Jess DeAvilla read the president general's message.

After giving the national defense report, Mrs. Lawrence Lichens urged every member to read and study all articles relative to the subject whenever published. A report by the museum committee disclosed that the exhibit currently on display at the Siskiyou County Museum had been taken care of by Mrs. Alfred

NORTH HIGHLANDS, California, is the home of these three children of Mr. and Mrs. David House, former residents of Langell Valley and Bly. Left to right are, Douglas, 5, Dawn, 6, and Michael, 8. They are grandchildren of J. E. House of Langell Valley.

Crebbin, Mrs. Albert Parrot and Mrs. Ted Skillen.

Mrs. Lichens, temporary treasurer, gave a report on the amount collected from the passing of the birthday plate at the last meeting. Mrs. Crebbin, registrar, reported that two new members had been confirmed by the National Society in Washington, D.C. They are Mrs. Charles Page of Grenada and Mrs. Charles Hurley of Yreka.

The Christmas program for the afternoon had been prepared by Mrs. Alfred Crebbin. Adding to the Christmas atmosphere, was music played by records. An account on the founding of the Siskiyou Chapter was given by Mrs. Albert Parrot, who was already a member in an Oregon chapter.

Mrs. Walter Williams, who had served as regent in a Santa Clara chapter, was appointed organizing regent for the Siskiyou group. Other members participating in the organizing of the chapter included Mrs. Lottie Ball, Mrs. Vance Brown, Mrs. Willard Caldwell, Mrs. Alfred Crebbin, Mrs. Edward Dreyer, Mrs. Robert

Santa Visits Bly Children

BLY—Nineteen happy children were greeted by Santa Claus and presented a gift on Dec. 21 at Bly. The occasion for the visit was the annual Christmas party of the Bly Women's Club held at the home of Roberta McGee.

Santa, whose presence was arranged by Herb Hadley, sat on an elaborate throne while the youngsters sang several Christmas songs.

Gifts were exchanged among the 28 women present for the party.

The next club meeting will be Wednesday, Jan. 11, at the home of Bell Cobb.
