

Oklahoma, Coaching Jobs, Bowls Chief Topics For NCAA Meeting

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The annual get-together of college coaches and athletic directors starts today with one big unanswered question and a couple of lesser ones that aren't on the official agenda.

The big one: What are they going to do about Oklahoma?

Some other questions: Who gets what football coaching job? What happens to the bowl games that weren't played?

The Oklahoma question is a holdover from last year's meeting. The Sooners were placed on indefinite probation a year ago because an investigation failed to turn up the financial details of a recruiting fund that operated from 1952 to 1954.

The university couldn't supply an answer; the man who administered the fund wouldn't open his books and the NCAA ruled Oklahoma would have to take the consequences until the NCAA council could see the figures and decide just how badly the rules had been fractured.

A year later the situation apparently is unchanged but there's a feeling in some quarters that Oklahoma's punishment has lasted long enough.

"The annual football coaching go-round appears to be of minor importance this year. Only a few major jobs are vacant and anything that happens here likely will be in the nature of preliminary conversation.

The bowl question is a new one. A proposed change in the NCAA by-laws specifies that if a post-season game is certified but not played, its certification shall lapse. This mainly affects New York's Gotham bowl game — approved for December 1960 but unplayed because top teams couldn't be obtained. The promoters may not even want to try again.

Otherwise the week-long series of meetings may not be eventful. The 562 colleges, conferences and allied groups composing the NCAA will act on several bits of legislation designed to strengthen NCAA control over practices in recruiting and financial aid to athletes.

Only a few preliminary committee meetings are slated today. The NCAA television committee begins a two-day meeting Saturday with some thought of requests to change the program for regional football telecasts.

The rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association also meets Saturday. Some coaching groups have asked for a more liberal substitution rule, but the coaches can only make recommendations which aren't always accepted by the NCAA rules committee.

Hot Words, Flying Fists Erupt In NBA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A fist fight which resulted in a broken jaw for New York's Ken Sears has stirred up a heated exchange of words between Knicks' Coach Carl Braun and Jocko Collins, supervisor of referees in the National Basketball Association.

The fight Thursday night broke out between Sears, the Knicks' third-best scorer, and George Lee of the Detroit Pistons just before New York took a lead late in the third period and went on to win 104-102. It resulted after some pushing and shoving in the pivot.

In the second game of the Convention Hall doubleheader, Will Chamberlain continued his sensational scoring pace, getting 56 points for the second time this week and taking over the scoring lead from Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles in leading Philadelphia to a 139-127 victory over Syracuse.

In other games Boston retained its one-game lead in the Eastern Division by beating Cincinnati 125-107 and Los Angeles upset St. Louis 110-96.

Braun went to the referees' dressing room immediately after the game and demanded that Sid Borgia recommend a fine for Lee in his report of the game.

"It better cost him something, Jocko," Braun said. "If they (the league officials) let this sort of thing go on we'll be right back to the old days."

Collins fired back:

"He's (Braun) the biggest con man in the game. He tried to referee while he was playing for 12 years and he's still trying..."

Las Vegas Promoters Planning On Fight

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Sugar Ray Robinson and middleweight champion Gene Fullmer definitely will stage their fourth fight here on Feb. 25 before a national television audience, local promoters predicted today.

The two boxers signed for the promoters called for a conference here today to determine whether the bout would be held in the 8,200-seat Las Vegas Convention Hall — as tentatively planned — or moved to another site, such as Los Angeles, Miami Beach, Chicago or Salt Lake City, Utah.

Local promoters Jack Doyle and Mel Greb conferred here today with Norman Rothschild, Syracuse, N.Y., who flew here from New York City after officiating over the contract signing.

Doyle indicated he was sure of support from big Strip hotels, and that the resorts would be represented at the conference.

Terms of the contract signed by Robinson before he agreed to try an unprecedented eighth time for the middleweight crown called for $50,000 of the $150,000 television money and 25 per cent of the live gate. This should net him — based on a Las Vegas fight — about $90,000 to $100,000.

For Fullmer, the bushy-browed West Jordan, Utah, champion, the rematch is worth 40 per cent of the TV fee — $60,000 — as well as 40 per cent of the net gate. This should bring him $125,000 to $135,000.

Golfdoms Top Pros Open 1961 Program

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Golf's leading professionals kick off the 1961 tournament campaign today.

A field of 154 is entered in the first round of the 35th annual Los Angeles Open for a $45,000 purse.

The 72-hole event winds up Monday with the winner collecting $7,500.

On deck at the Rancho Municipal Course in West Los Angeles are 47 of the game's top money winners of 1960. The course measures 7,131 yards and par is 36-35-71.

Sunny skies and temperature in the low 70s were promised by the weatherman.

Hawk Skater Getting Hot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stan Mikita, one of the few European-born players to make grade in the National Hockey League, is on a hot scoring streak and it's paying off for the Chicago Black Hawks.

The 20-year-old sophomore center scored a late second-period goal at Boston Thursday night to give the Hawks their sixth consecutive triumph, a 4-3 verdict over the Bruins.

The goal was the eighth for Mikita, who was born in Czechoslovakia and emigrated to Canada in 1948, during the six-game streak.

Frank Mahovlich scored his 35th goal in 39 games as the surging Toronto Maple Leafs turned back the Red Wings 4-1 at Detroit in the league's only game.

The Leafs have won nine times and tied twice in their last 12 starts and are only two points behind the first-place Montreal Canadiens.

The Hawks are in third place, four points ahead of the fourth-place Wings.

Sacred Heart-Bonanza Tilt Feature Of 'B' Weekend Basketball Slate

County B League Basketball Standings	W	L	Pct.
Chiloquin (4-2)	3	0	1.000
Merrill (3-4)	2	0	1.000
Sacred Heart (4-2)	2	0	1.000
Bonanza (2-3)	1	1	.500
Malin (3-4)	1	1	.500
Gilchrist (3-3)	0	2	.000
Bly (0-7)	0	5	.000

their home floor; the Malin Mustangs, 1-1 in league play, host the Gilchrist Grizzlies; and Sacred Heart, also unbeaten in B "counters," tangles with the Antlers in Bonanza, in the three scheduled tonight.

Saturday night Malin travels to Tulelake for a non-counter with the Honkers while the Merrill Huskies, who are also 3-0 in league action, tangle with Cedarville, Calif., on the Merrill mapewood.

The Bonanza-Sacred Heart battle should be the feature game of the night. The Antlers were shaded 46-42 by the Trojans on the SHA floor in the first round but they may have a slight edge on their home court tonight despite the fact they haven't a player listed among the top county scorers.

Keith Murray, who has hit for 22 and 23 points in his last two games, heads up the Trojan attack and is also holding down the third place position with a 13.7 average.

The Chiloquin-Bly contest is a return match, one in which the Bobcats will go all out to take away some of the sting of their first loss, 70-35, to the Panthers.

Bly showed a stubborn defensive streak Tuesday night by holding the Malin squad to a tough 37-29 last - minute win. They'll need all the defense they can muster against the Chiloquin crew. Led by Butch Crume, who heads all the county shooters with a 16.5 per game average, the Panthers include three players among the top ten producers.

Bobcat Jim Hall, a 5-10 guard, isn't forced to take much of a back seat for the Chiloquin scorers, however. In just seven games he has counted 110 points for a 15.7 game average, less than a point per game behind Crume in second place.

The Gilchrist - Malin tussle should go to the better-balanced, more experienced Mustangs, but here again one of the high scorers, Grizzly Gerald Warren, gets into the picture with his fourth-place 13.2 average. Malin's All-State forward, Larry Rick, has a 9.1 average and rates the ninth rung on the ladder, the only Mustang to crack the first ten.

Bucky Wilson with a 13.2, Ed Parnell with a 12.7, and Denny Salvadori with a flat 9 per game lead the Huskies into action Saturday night against the little-known Cedarville quintet. Wilson and Parnell are fifth and sixth respectively while Salvadori holds down the number ten slot.

The Tulelake-Malin Saturday tilt is the 1961 renewal of one of the hottest rivalries in the southern part of the county. The game, however, has no bearing on league standings.

Weather conditions have been most unusual at Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl for the past two weeks. While the bowl is washed by a warm chinook wind from the south, valleys in southern Siskiyou County have been shivering through a cold snap. The temperature hasn't reached freezing for days at the bowl, even in the dead of night, and it soars in the daytime.

Consequently, the snow has no icy spots and skiing is rated good to very good.

Clear weather is forecast for Friday and Friday evening, but snow should begin to fall early Saturday as low as 4,000 feet. Moderate amounts are expected and the weather should clear for Sunday, the weatherman says.

Beginning next week, facilities at the bowl will be closed Mondays and Tuesdays.

Runs are icy in spots at Tomahawk Ski Bowl northwest of Klamath Falls, but snow covers them all, and more is possible Saturday through the same storm predicted to sweep over Mt. Shasta.

A few adventurers from this area who drove to Bachelor Butte near Bend recently reported excellent skiing.

A Slant From The Slopes

'Reasonable Aged' Residents Offered Real Sport On Skis

By NORM CARDOZA
Herald and News Staff Writer

Those Basin residents of reasonable age who have not yet tried to ski are missing a good opportunity to cruise through the barren months as painlessly as possible.

A "reasonable age" might be described as those years between the toddling and doddering stages.

Skiing has been around for a long time, but only in the last couple of decades has it become a national sport—something like baseball. Suddenly, it could give rock 'n' roll a run for its money in popularity.

That is a poor comparison, because skiing really has a lot of class. It means many things to many people. Some, for instance, use the ski lodge as modeling grounds for the latest in winter wear. Others use it as a place to meet people, particularly those of the opposite gender.

Some like the fireside chat and the after ski get-togethers. Quite a few seem to get a bang out of wearing the look of a Nordic champion and speaking in terms of "sitmarks" and "wedeln" and "Schuss," like sports-car drivers stick to cubic centimeters and plaid caps. Some even learn to yodel.

Many get out on the slopes and indulge in a sport that is breathtaking for the participant and spectator alike, when well executed.

Only those who have skied, either in the lodge or out on the snow, will understand. And that should be incentive enough.

The sport is made to order for local residents. There's no shortage of snow in this country and facilities are close and excellent.

For the gregarious who like to join things, the "Alle Mage Skiers," recently formed, is a good organization. The skiers meet each Thursday evening, at the Airmen's Service Club at Kingsley Field.

These people, and there are a lot of them, are skiers of all calibers. They invite others to join them in coffee hours at the pizza parlor, dinners, dances, box socials and trips en masse to various ski areas.

The gal to contact is Betty Ramsey, TU 4-9256, the club's president. She invites whole families into the fold.

Whitman and College of Idaho surprised the Northwest Conference by winning their opening games in an invasion of Oregon Thursday night.

It has been years since that happened.

Whitman upset Willamette 78-59 and College of Idaho downed Linfield 68-56. They will switch opponents tonight. Pacific and Lewis and Clark also will swing into action at Lewis and Clark.

Whitman had not won a game on the Willamette home court for 14 years until Thursday night, when the visitors squeezed ahead at the half 36-35, then ran away with the game in the second period.

Gary Bogle and Mike Monahan led Whitman with 14 points each. Buzz Wilfert scored 17 for Willamette.

It took College of Idaho longer to wear down Linfield. College of Idaho managed a 31-28 halftime lead, but Linfield bounced back and with 11 minutes to go was ahead 44-40. Then College of Idaho galloped away, led by fleet guard Daryl Hill, who scored 22 points. Bill Wallin was high scorer for Linfield with 12 points.

Gun Clubbers Open Season

Klamath Gun Club members swing their sights from the live birds of the field to the clay ones on the Wocus Range this Sunday to initiate another season of trapshooting.

The action, which will include regular practice events in addition to competition for the Howard Parnell trophy, is slated to begin at 10 a.m.

The general public has been invited to attend and participate in the shoot.

The Parnell trophy, a beautiful silver platter carried over from last season, will become the permanent possession of the first gunner to acquire three "legs." To date Bill McDonald, John Lichtenstern, Earl Kent, and George Cunha each have one "leg" on the award.

Zags Dumped By Cougars

SPOKANE (AP) — Frank Burgess, Gonzaga scoring ace, tallied more than half his team's points and maintained his national scoring leadership but the Bulldogs dropped an 81-60 basketball decision to Washington State Thursday night.

Gonzaga won the previous meeting this season 80-77.

Burgess dropped in 33 points to maintain his 31.38 points per game scoring average. Tom Stith of St. Bonaventure scored 35 Thursday night in his team's 74-63 win over Belmont Abbey. Stith's game average rose to 31.36 points.

Terry Ball was high for WSU with 27 points.

Hunt Season Nears Close

PORTLAND (AP) — Oregon's general waterfowl hunting season will end at sundown Sunday, Jan. 8.

The state Game Commission said the season for black brant goose, a salt water bird found along coastal bays, will continue through Jan. 31. The limit will be three per day.

Brown Sale Said Pending

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Indications today were that a deal is imminent for sale of the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

The club's president, David R. Jones, recommended a "day to day" check on negotiations. Arthur Modell, New York advertising and television executive who has offered to buy the Cleveland club, flew to Miami Thursday night but said he wants any announcement to come from the club owners.

Detroit Lions Face Trouble

DETROIT (AP)—D. Lyle Fife, a former president and still a major stockholder in the Detroit Football Co., said today rebel shareholders may have enough strength to overthrow the current administration of the Lions.

For the second time in a year, squabbling in the front office has stolen the headlines from the club's performances on the field.

The volcanic situation centers around Edwin J. Anderson, president and general manager of the club. Anderson was the center of the controversy a year ago when some of the directors tried to throw him out of office. The move died, Fife said, because "not all members of the dissatisfied group were willing to stand up and be counted."

This time a proxy fight is on. There are 15 directors on the board, and 13 of them have lined up with Anderson to oppose the rebel group.

Fife quit the board after his first attempt to oust Anderson failed. He holds 640 shares of the some 12,600 shares of stock in the company, one of the most successful franchises in the National Football League.

"I am speaking strictly as a stockholder," said Fife. "I do not want to be president of the Lions. I merely want to see the Detroit Football Co operate in a sound, ethical manner. It's not being operated that way under the present administration."

Famous Big Game Hunter Jim Bond and Prize Elk Antlers

"He was 1,000 yards away, running like heck and I had time for a snap shot," said Jim Bond. And then he added, "I'm joking, of course. You don't find 'old timers' like this fellow out in the open. He was in the timber and there were hundreds of downed trees. I couldn't see more than 60 yards at any time. I was climbing up on a log when I saw him get up out of his bed; but he hadn't seen me. In five minutes I was walking around him and thinking he's the largest elk I'd ever seen."

Filmed with the hunter definitely in mind, Jim focused his camera on dozens of mammoth bulls that made his trigger finger itchy. Time after time he said, "Which one shall I take?" Answering his own questions, he always replied, "Wait. Wait. A bigger one will come along." It did. And you'll never forget the bugling of the mighty elk, this grand wilderness sound captured in amazing stereophonic sound. Turnaway crowds have greeted this outstanding accomplishment and thousands have said, "IT WILL SURELY CHANGE YOUR ELK HUNTING IDEAS."

Sponsored by the Klamath Falls JayCees, Jim Bond will show his new and colorful two hour motion picture program in the MILLS SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, THURS., and FRI., JAN. 12 and 13, 8 P.M. Three all color features will be shown, "THE SUN RIVER ELK," "THE MONTANA FISHERMAN," and "TRAPPING AND TRANSPLANTING MOUNTAIN GOATS." Professionally done, this is true adventure at its best.
