

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT O. JORDAN observed their 50th wedding anniversary Dec. 10 at their home in Dunsuir. They have lived their entire married life in Siskiyou County, their first home being in Etna.

Two Observe Golden Date

DUNSMUIR—Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Jordan observed their first Christmas together in 1910 in a ranch home near Etna. Mrs. Jordan, the former Mary Brazill, was just 16 and Jordan was 21. They had been married two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on the evening of Dec. 10 in the company of their daughter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Their Christmas tree this year was on the front porch of their home at 1117 Butterfly Avenue. "We like to share," Mrs. Jordan explained. They have shared much in the last 50 years but like to dwell on the happy things.

Jordan used to play the violin for Scott Valley social gatherings and he met his future wife at a dance. They were married by Judge Martin Marks, Etna justice of the peace.

He has been a rancher, spent several years working in the woods and has worked for the forest service. In 1921, he was superintendent and toll collector for the Soda Creek Toll Road from Castle Crags to McCloud. He's been a county road foreman and for a time was in charge of all road equipment in District 3.

In 1918 and 1919 when the first power line was being built in the Sacramento Canyon, Jordan drove the pack-laden mules that kept the job from Castilla to LaMoine supplied. Later when Southern Pacific was relocating line for Shasta Dam, he was stationary engineer at Silverthorn in 1940.

"We've been a moving family," Mrs. Jordan said but agreed that wherever her husband wanted to live and whatever he wanted to do has met with her approval. "But I'm glad he's never wanted to leave Siskiyou County," she concluded.

The Jordans have made their home in Dunsuir since 1935. Formerly with the police department, he is now superintendent of the sanitation system, a deputy sher-
