A FLURRY OF ACTIVITY took place over New Year's weekend at the Harry Boivin home on Conger Avenue as members of the family prepared to go their separate ways. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boivin left Sunday for Salem where they will reside at the Lee Apartments during the current legislative session. Their daughter, Katie, right, left the previous day to continue her junior year sociology studies at the University of San Diego. Son Bob returned to Eugene where he is a student at the University of Oregon School of Law.
