

HEATED RIVALRY REOPENS — There is no one in the Oregon Collegiate Conference the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders would rather beat than the Oregon Tech Owls and the Raiders arrive in town today with nothing else in mind. The Owl-Raider clash is set for 8 o'clock tonight in the Mile High gym, SOC has re-

sen, Bob Drape, Howard Barlow, Bob Cumiford and Ron Muggerrud. In the front row, from left, are Leon Wilson, Hewlett Nash, Larry Brown, Doug Shattuck, Charlie Wilson, Dennis Coffey, Chuck Gonzales, Terry Kiedy, Bud Long and Dave Horn.

Owls, Red Raiders Slate Battle On Mile High Hardwood Tonight

All the Oregon Tech Owls have to do tonight is figure out a way to stop a ball team that has been shooting at a torrid .540 clip and has won four straight Oregon Collegiate Conference games without a loss. The Southern Oregon College Red Raiders, who haven't had a real tough test yet in the battle for the top spot in the OCC standings, invade the Mile High campus at 8 o'clock tonight for the first of their annual four games with their pet enemies, the Owls. The Raiders had little trouble with the Oregon College Wolves at home over the weekend, despite the fact they were without the services of first-string veteran Gordie Carrigan. The rest worked out fine for Carrigan. He'll be back in the

Pelican Cagers Still On Top; Tornado Climbs Into 3rd

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Klamath Falls is the best high school basketball team in Oregon in the unanimous opinion of the sports writers and broadcasters in this week's Associated Press poll. Thirteen experts cast ballots and all of them had Klamath Falls in first place. Roseburg continued in second place, but just barely edged Medford, which jumped from fourth to third after giving Klamath Falls a tough battle in overtime Friday. Medford lost that tussle, 58-56, but garnered 100 points in the poll. Roseburg had 101, with four second-place votes to Medford's five, but enough third and fourth-place support to stay ahead. South Eugene dropped to fourth in the shuffle, after an upset loss Saturday to the cross-town rivals, North Eugene. Grant of Portland stayed in the No. 5 spot after a sudden-death overtime victory over Wilson, which held on to sixth place. La Grande jumped from tenth to seventh after weekend victories over Pendleton and Hermiston. Beaverton moved down a notch to eighth place and Corvallis stayed in No. 9. Bend, despite two weekend victories, dropped out of the first ten—it was eighth last week—and David Douglas of Portland moved into the No. 10 spot of the select group. The only undefeated teams in the top ten are fifth-place Grant, with 9-0, and seventh-place La Grande at 12-0. All of the top four teams' defeats have come at the hands of

KU Jayvee Matmen Win

ASHLAND (Special) — A squad composed of the number two and three men on the Klamath Union wrestling roster carved out a pair of wins, 36-10, and 27-16 over the Grizzly varsity, and 27-16 over the Ashland Jayvees here Saturday afternoon. The Pelican teams won 17 matches, five of them "pins," while the hosts won only six, four of which came via the fall route. Merle Sino notched the first KU pin when he nailed Lynn Monroe in 30 seconds of the 178-pound bout. Heavyweight Dawson South repeated for KU by pinning Jack Mills in 2:49. In the Jayvee action Larry Gibbs, 123, pinned Ashland Bob Brestad in 1:26; Len Logsdon, 130, Klamath Falls, pinned Dave Wick in 3:10; and Verne Netzer, KP 136-pounder, nailed Al Bennett in 4:36. The results: 15—Connor (A) pinned Hawkins (A); 16—England (A) dec. Grow (A) 1:30; 17—McCullin (K) dec. Stewart (A) 3:10; 18—Lipson (K) pinned Wick (A) 3:10; 19—McSwain (K) dec. Mitchell (A) 3:10; 20—Crumrine (K) dec. Harth (A) 3:10; 21—Head (K) default over Toney (A); 22—Sinspood (K) dec. Vroman (A); 23—Fitzsimmons (K) dec. Georgianne (A) 1:55; 24—Moses (A) pinned McClure (K) 1:14; 25—Sine (K) pinned Monroe (A) 3:30; 26—Sine (K) pinned Mills (A) 2:49; Final score: KF JV 36, Ashland JV 16.

BOWLING SCORES

Table with columns for team names and bowling scores. Includes 'Lucky Lanes' and 'MINOR CLASSIC LEAGUE' sections.

Shasta '5' Defeats BV

DORRIS (Special) — The Mount Shasta Bears knocked the Butte Valley Bulldogs out of a tie for first place in Siskiyou B basketball by edging them 33-30 here Saturday night. The squads battled to an 8-8 draw in the first quarter but the Bulldogs claimed a 13-12 halftime edge. They still led narrowly, 23-20, at the end of the third but the Bears came back to nab the win with a final period surge paced by Bob Stewart. Don Smith, Butte Valley, was high scorer with 14. Stewart had 10. In the prelim the BV juniors chalked up a 23-20 win over MS B's. The scoring summary: Butte Valley (20)—Smith 14, Hands 4, Barnes 2, Wood 4, McKinnis 3, Walton 1. Mount Shasta (33)—Stewart 10, McHugh 7, Hough 7, Cross 4, March 3, McGowan, Capitzy.

SM Crusaders Clip Trojans

The St. Mary's Crusaders shot out to a 19-6 lead and never took a backward glance as they whacked the Sacred Heart Trojans 51-31 in a non-league basketball game played at SHS Sunday afternoon. Although the visitors had a definite height advantage over the host club, their victory was more easily charged to the fact the Trojans missed better than 80 percent of their shots from the field. SHA's Keith Murray topped all the shooters with 16 points but his average was way below normal. Only three of the other nine Trojans got into the game were able to get into the score column. Jerry DeNault registered six, Elmo LeBeau added five and Mike Holland came up with four to round out the total. Led by Lee Calhoun who pointed 20, the Crusaders held quarter leads of 12-3, 28-13, and 38-20. All 10 of the visitors scored. The scoring summary: St. Mary's (51)—Kaiser 7, Calhoun 20, Evans 2, Stoney 4, Knutson 8, Hart 4, Burck 4, Barton 3, Lewis 2, Elliott 2. Sacred Heart (31)—DeNault 6, Britten, Murray 14, Anderson, Hollings 4, Miller, Jackson, LeBeau 5, Stoney, Arm.

Montanans Belt Idaho Vandals

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — The Idaho Vandals staged a last-minute rally, but it wasn't enough. The Montana Grizzlies took a 64-59 basketball game from the Vandals Monday night. Idaho pulled within two points—57-59—with 58 seconds left in the game. But in two trips to the free throw line, Dan Sullivan dumped in four free throws to pull the Grizzlies out of reach. In the last five seconds, Bob O'Billovich added a final free throw for the winners. Montana led 37-31 at the half. O'Billovich led the winners with 20 points. White had 20 for Idaho.

Twins Unveil New Uniforms

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)—The Minnesota Twins are definitely out for the first division of the American League, said Manager Cookie Lavagetto, but there isn't much hope for a pennant in the next few years. That was Lavagetto's honest appraisal of the Twins' chances—given Monday at a news conference where the club unveiled its new uniforms. "The uniforms have 'Twins' in navy blue on the shirt and 'TC'—for Twin Cities—on the cap. 'We should win 50 per cent of our games,' Lavagetto said. 'But I don't think the Twins are ready to fight for the pennant. Our bench strength is a problem and we may have another problem at shortstop.' Lavagetto may have problems with the team, but with the fans it's a different story. Eddie Arcaro has ridden in six of eight Laurel International races, winning in 1954 with Fisherman.

ike's Putter Now A Trophy

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — President Eisenhower, the nation's most prominent amateur golfer has donated one of his putters as the permanent championship trophy in the $50,000 Palm Springs golf classic. The President was invited to play in the pro-amateur best ball phase of the tournament which starts Feb. 1 but declined. The Ike putter, gleed and burnished, and mounted on a glass-enclosed silver plaque, was unveiled Monday at a tea-off luncheon here by actress Ann Blythe. The head of the putter is impressed with the signature "Dwight D. Eisenhower." The name of Arnold Palmer, winner of the first desert classic, was inscribed on the plaque, and he was present to receive a replica of the permanent trophy. Palmer, fresh from his first victory of the year in the San Diego Open Sunday, accepted his little trophy with the modesty which always characterizes him. "I was very fortunate to win last year," he said, "and I'm going to try to win it this year."

Pennzoil 36c Qt. In Case Lots 4 Qt. Can 1.50. Cash & Save Oil Company 4315 So. 4th.

PRESTONE SPRAY DE-ICER Large 14-oz. Size NOW ONLY $1.00. SMITH AUTO SUPPLY 919 Klamath We Give "SM" Green Stamps.

AP Voting

Table showing AP voting results for various teams and players. Lists names like Ohio State, St. Bonaventure, etc.

BEACON BRAKE INSPECTION. How long since your last brake inspection? ... is your family's safety threatened by free brakes? Find out fast with a FREE Brake Inspection. HERE'S WHAT WE DO — Check condition of brake lining, inspect brake drums, inspect oil seals for leaks, check hydraulic system, inspect brake lines and connections. Free Adjustment for the life of the lining. We Give "SM" Green Stamps! BEACON BRAKE SHOP. Beacon Mobil Service 1201 E. Main TU 4-6308.

Herald and News SPORTS

WAYNE SCOTT, Sports Editor Tuesday, January 17, 1961 PAGE 9

Loaded With Reasons Ingo Won't Reveal Secret Of His Loss

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson has a secret and he's not telling a soul. "I know for sure what I did wrong in my last fight with Floyd Patterson," he said today, "but let it be a secret with me." Then he proceeded to list an armful of reasons why Patterson won the heavyweight championship from him with a fifth-round knockout last June 20. 1. He fought too many exhibitions after winning the title from Patterson in 1959, and that made things too easy for him. 2. He lost six pounds the night before the fight and entered the ring at 192. This time he wants to hit 196 or 198. 3. Anyhow, it was a sucker punch that caught him on the button. Johansson arrived Monday night from Paris, and will attend the New York Boxing Writers dinner tonight where Patterson will get the Boxer of the Year award. Then he heads for Florida to look for a training camp. The third in their series is scheduled for Miami Beach on March 13. "I've looked at the films of the fight many times," said Johansson and I still don't know how I ever got caught with that punch. It never happened to me before and I don't intend to let it happen this time. "After all, I knocked Floyd out once and stunned him in the second fight. I'm sure I'll win this one. I've knocked him out a thousand times in my dreams and I know they'll come true." Maybe the dreams told him what would happen in his Patterson fight. "Nope," he answered. "I can't tell what round it will be. But I know I'll beat him." Ingo said he had been boxing seven or eight rounds a day and doing five or six miles of roadwork a day for the past two months. "Now," he observed, "I'm ready to start serious training."

AFL Raiders Lose Owners, Add Players

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders of the American Football League had five new owners and three more players today. The ownership change, climax to front office bickering among the eight original owners, followed a warning by AFL Commissioner Joe Foss that the league was ready to take over the franchise. Three local businessmen, Edward V. McGah, F. Wayne Valley and Robert L. Osborne Monday bought out the other five owners. Selling out were Y. Charles (Chet) Soda, the original Oakland president and general manager, Don Blessing, Charles Harney, Wallace Marsh and Roger Lapham Jr. They reportedly took a loss of $48,500 each on their one-year investment. The new owners promptly announced that Eddie Erdelatz will return as head coach and that the team would play in Candlestick Park in San Francisco next season. It was estimated the club lost $400,000 last season while finishing fourth in their division of the AFL with a 6-8 record. They opened the season in Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, but played their final three games at Candlestick Park. Attendance was slightly higher for these games. The new owners expressed the hope that a major stadium would be built in the East Bay so that the Oakland team soon could play closer to home. The Raiders won a minor skirmish with the National Football League Monday by signing ends Gerald Burch of Georgia Tech and Bob Coolbaugh of the University of Richmond.

Mantle Inks Juicy Pact; Gets Raise

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle going to be baseball's next $100,000 a year baseball player? "We hope so," said General Manager Roy Hamey of the New York Yankees after signing his star centerfielder to a $75,000 contract Monday. "We'd like nothing better than to pay—that is, if Mickey shows he's worth it." "I don't doubt he will," Casey Stengel always insisted the boy was going to make it. Mantle's new contract is the best he has signed in his 11 years with the Yankee organization—a $10,000 hike over the reduced wage he got last year. Mickey, 29, said he felt he had not reached his real potential as a player. "I don't remember when I have felt better at this stage," he said. "I ought to have my best year." He added that he had disposed of a Dallas bowling alley, which caused him some concern last year, and had divested himself of all outside interests which might take his mind off baseball. "I still have a small hand in a motel (Joplin, Mo.) and a boat company (Henderson, Tex.) but I'm letting other people worry about them," Mickey said. "I have no other business now but baseball." At $75,000, Mantle is the highest paid performer in the American League and only a notch behind the National League's top-salaried star, Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, at $85,000. Mantle, who struck out 125 times last season but hit 40 home runs, said his aim was to cut down on strikeouts and build up his batting average, which fell to .275. "I think I can do it by chinking up on the bat and not trying to kill the ball on the third strike," the switch-hitting centerfielder said. At a news conference the crew-cut Oklahoman parried questions deftly. What did he think about the Yankees' new manager, Ralph Houk? "A manager can't hit and run for you. He can only command respect. If he has the team's respect, he can do all right, and I think Houk has everybody's respect. They'll try to win for him." And about Casey Stengel? "He was a good manager. Everything he said about me, I deserved." What about shifting to a strictly right-handed hitter? "No. I had a bad year batting left-handed last season but I can still bat left-handed. I'll continue a switch hitter." Any aims for 1961? "Sure. I'd like to hit .300, but I'll settle for a .300 batting average, 100 runs batted in and 40 homers." Eddie Arcaro has ridden in six of eight Laurel International races, winning in 1954 with Fisherman.

Mantle Inks Juicy Pact; Gets Raise

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle going to be baseball's next $100,000 a year baseball player? "We hope so," said General Manager Roy Hamey of the New York Yankees after signing his star centerfielder to a $75,000 contract Monday. "We'd like nothing better than to pay—that is, if Mickey shows he's worth it." "I don't doubt he will," Casey Stengel always insisted the boy was going to make it. Mantle's new contract is the best he has signed in his 11 years with the Yankee organization—a $10,000 hike over the reduced wage he got last year. Mickey, 29, said he felt he had not reached his real potential as a player. "I don't remember when I have felt better at this stage," he said. "I ought to have my best year." He added that he had disposed of a Dallas bowling alley, which caused him some concern last year, and had divested himself of all outside interests which might take his mind off baseball. "I still have a small hand in a motel (Joplin, Mo.) and a boat company (Henderson, Tex.) but I'm letting other people worry about them," Mickey said. "I have no other business now but baseball." At $75,000, Mantle is the highest paid performer in the American League and only a notch behind the National League's top-salaried star, Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, at $85,000. Mantle, who struck out 125 times last season but hit 40 home runs, said his aim was to cut down on strikeouts and build up his batting average, which fell to .275. "I think I can do it by chinking up on the bat and not trying to kill the ball on the third strike," the switch-hitting centerfielder said. At a news conference the crew-cut Oklahoman parried questions deftly. What did he think about the Yankees' new manager, Ralph Houk? "A manager can't hit and run for you. He can only command respect. If he has the team's respect, he can do all right, and I think Houk has everybody's respect. They'll try to win for him." And about Casey Stengel? "He was a good manager. Everything he said about me, I deserved." What about shifting to a strictly right-handed hitter? "No. I had a bad year batting left-handed last season but I can still bat left-handed. I'll continue a switch hitter." Any aims for 1961? "Sure. I'd like to hit .300, but I'll settle for a .300 batting average, 100 runs batted in and 40 homers." Eddie Arcaro has ridden in six of eight Laurel International races, winning in 1954 with Fisherman.

East Rated Pick By 6 Over West

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — The East was a six-point favorite to beat the West in the National Basketball Association's All-Star game tonight chiefly because of Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell, and despite a boast that the West has the "strongest" team in years. Unmindful of the odds, Coach Paul Seymour of the Western Division All-Stars said, "I believe we have a fine chance of winning even though the East has Chamberlain and Russell going for them. This is the strongest West team in my memory." The professional odds-makers saw it differently, however. They liked Chamberlain and Russell, the NBA's top two rebounders, plus the fact that the Eastern Division All-Stars have more experience and a stronger bench. Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals and Tommy Heinsohn of the Boston Celtics will start for the East in the forecourt, with Chamberlain, the Philadelphia Warriors' ace, at center. Russell, Boston's rebounding whiz, will alternate at center with Chamberlain. Bob Cousy of the Celtics, who has never missed an All-Star game and is appearing in his 11th one tonight, will start in the backcourt for the East along with Richie Guerin of the New York Knickerbockers. The West's starting lineup will be composed of Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks and Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers at forwards; Clyde Lovellette of the Hawks at center, and Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals and Gene Shue of the Detroit Pistons in the backcourt.

AP Voting

Table showing AP voting results for various teams and players. Lists names like Ohio State, St. Bonaventure, etc.

Buckeyes Remain Number 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Mighty Ohio State, one of the two remaining undefeated teams in the country, rolled along as the No. 1 outfit in The Associated Press poll for the fifth straight week today. As usual, the Buckeyes were the unanimous choice of the 36 sportscasters and sports writers from all sections of the country who comprise the panel. That gave Ohio State the maximum of 366 points on a 12-0 record. DePaul, the other undefeated team (11-0) jumped into seventh place. St. Bonaventure (13-1), after scoring a couple of more victories last week, pushed up to second place, dropping Bradley (13-1) to third. The Bonnies had 277 points and Bradley compiled 247 on the usual system of 10 points for first place, 9 for second and so on. Bradley went down to its first defeat of the season last week, a 60-59 loss to Houston.

East Rated Pick By 6 Over West

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — The East was a six-point favorite to beat the West in the National Basketball Association's All-Star game tonight chiefly because of Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell, and despite a boast that the West has the "strongest" team in years. Unmindful of the odds, Coach Paul Seymour of the Western Division All-Stars said, "I believe we have a fine chance of winning even though the East has Chamberlain and Russell going for them. This is the strongest West team in my memory." The professional odds-makers saw it differently, however. They liked Chamberlain and Russell, the NBA's top two rebounders, plus the fact that the Eastern Division All-Stars have more experience and a stronger bench. Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals and Tommy Heinsohn of the Boston Celtics will start for the East in the forecourt, with Chamberlain, the Philadelphia Warriors' ace, at center. Russell, Boston's rebounding whiz, will alternate at center with Chamberlain. Bob Cousy of the Celtics, who has never missed an All-Star game and is appearing in his 11th one tonight, will start in the backcourt for the East along with Richie Guerin of the New York Knickerbockers. The West's starting lineup will be composed of Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks and Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers at forwards; Clyde Lovellette of the Hawks at center, and Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals and Gene Shue of the Detroit Pistons in the backcourt.

AP Voting

Table showing AP voting results for various teams and players. Lists names like Ohio State, St. Bonaventure, etc.