

MRS. EDSON FOULKE JR. of Gazelle, recently elected first vice president to the state of California Cow Belles, is scheduled to attend the National Cattle-men's Association convention in Salt Lake City Jan. 25 through 28. Mrs. Foulke is a charter member of the Siskiyou County Cow Belles, who organized 12 years ago. One of the current projects of the group is promoting the use of beef throughout the state with the "Beef For Father's Day" campaign.

FORT JONES CLUB NEWS

FORT JONES—The Fort Jones Federated Woman's Club met in the club room at the Community Center on Jan. 10. The meeting was opened with the reading of the 100th Psalm and a poem on New Year's resolutions by the chaplain, Mrs. Frank Barrett.

Mrs. Michael Cross, president, conducted the business meeting. Thank you letters were read by the secretary, Mrs. Joe Vardanga, from those who received Christmas packages from the club. The members voted to sponsor a dance on Feb. 11. Mrs. Lauren Paine will serve as general chairman.

Mrs. James Stanton presented the program for the day. A three act operetta "Christmas in Mexico" was given by the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Quartz Valley School. Those participating were Don, Karen and Gary Hahn, Roberta and Roger Hayden, Neil and Sherma Whipple, Fred Van Voorhees, Barre and Gary Folendorf, Jimmy and Jerry Floyd and Tommy Gephart, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Burnell Burton who is also a member of the club. The piano accompaniment was played by Mrs. Max Butler.

PTA NEWS

MALIN SCHOOL

Malin PTA will meet Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 8 p.m. in the music room of the high school. Speakers will be Dale Crabtree, district attorney; Harvey Denham, principal of Altamont Junior High School; Mrs. Margaret Sheridan, school board member of city council, and Mrs. L. E. Saunders Jr., president of Altamont PTA, legislative chairman for Klamath Council of Parent Teachers Association. Parent Teachers Association of Oregon is sponsoring "Lights on Education," program to inform the citizenry of questions pertaining to education. This is the Malin PTA program cooperating with that effort.
