

MAXINE L. HICKS

Local Girl In Parade

Maxine L. Hicks, 19, specialist four, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max J. Hicks, 1885 Del Moro, is scheduled to participate with other members of the Women's Army Corps (WAC) Band in the inaugural parade for President-elect John F. Kennedy in Washington, D.C., Jan. 20. This will mark the band's third inaugural appearance.

The 45-member band, one of the more colorful units stationed at the Women's Army Corps Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., has made extensive tours of the U.S. during its 15-year history. The band's primary duty is to provide music for parades and military ceremonies; however, it has also gained acclaim for its concert music and Dixieland jazz. Noted for their military appearance and bearing as well as their musical abilities the bandsmen are proud of their reputation for showmanship and versatility.

Specialist Hicks, who plays the french horn with the band, entered the Women's Army Corps in July 1959, and received basic training at Fort McClellan.

She is a 1959 graduate of Klamath Union High School.

Mother Tells Of Last Time She Saw Girl

SHAFTER (UPI) — A mother stood on the stoop of a small frame cabin in a dismal farm laborers' camp Tuesday and tearfully told the last time she saw her daughter, kidnap victim Rose Marie Riddle, 6.

"Some boys knocked on the door last Thursday and asked where Rose Marie was," said Ethel Riddle, 27. "I told them she was out and they went to look for her."

"Then she came in and said, 'Mommie, there's a lady wants me to wash dishes and clean her house and she will pay me a dollar.'"

"I asked her where the woman was and she pointed in the direction of the Birds' house nearby. I said, 'All right, but be sure to be home before dark.'"

"She grabbed her sweater and ran out, saying: 'I'll see you.'"

About an hour later Rose Marie, whose pictures show her always smiling sweetly, was brutally bludgeoned to death.

FACES LONG STRETCH CHAMBLEE, Ga. (UPI)—Somebody stole 2,000 $25 girdles from the Warner Company's warehouse here over the weekend. Police said the $50,000 haul will mean a long stretch for the thief when he is caught.
