Bank Official To Talk At Annual Grower Meet

TULELAKE — Earl Coke, vice president of the Bank of America, San Francisco, and head of the bank's loan department, will be guest speaker at the annual ladies night banquet to be held on Valentine's Day. Hosts will be members of the Tulelake Growers Association.

The dinner will be prepared and served by ladies of the Latter Day Saints Church. Bill Whitaker, manager of the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fair, will install the new president. Cliff Jenkins, association manager, in announcing plans for the dinner said Herbert Kirby, new president, and others will be on the program.

Seating capacity in the home economics building of the fairgrounds is limited to about 225 guests. Those planning to attend should get tickets as soon as possible from John C. Baley, Otto Haynes, Edgar Richard Falconer, Lester Turnbaugh, Herbert Kirby, Elmer Olson, Wilbur Edwards, Cliff Jenkins, Stan Buckingham, C. J. Main, Ben Reimer, Earl Schultz, Sam Wynn, John L. Coulson, George Fabianek and Kenneth Powell.

Copco Buys Light Plant

McCLOUD — The electrical power distribution system owned by the McCloud River Lumber Company and serving the residents and business establishments of McCloud has been purchased by California Oregon Power Company according to a joint announcement by the two companies.

Transfer of the property will be made immediately after approval of the purchase by the California Public Utility Commission and Federal Power Commission.

The gradual increase in electrical demand has reached the point where the lumber company generating capacity is inadequate to take care of this demand and the increasing requirements of its lumber manufacturing plant due to the addition of new dry kilns and other added demands.

It is contemplated this change will result in some improvement in electrical service and a slight reduction in cost to the town's consumers.

Hope Expressed On Park Plans

MOUNT SHASTA — There appears to be a hope among some Siskiyou County leaders that Castle Crags State Park, with its improvement program outlined, will include a continuation over to Castle Lake, with an entrance from Mount Shasta.

During the early days, the Crags and Castle Lake were closely associated. Big Indian battles took place in both spots.

Planting Crew Works On Plot

McCLOUD—A 10-man tree planting crew has been hired in the McCloud Forest Service Ranger District.

The crew will plant about 150 acres. More than 79,000 seedlings from the Placerville nursery will be planted by machine method.

Weather permitting, work is scheduled to start this week.

Additional acreage will be planted starting March 1. Nearly 1,500 acres of trees will have been planted in the 14,000 - acre area.

Will Attend Convention

TULELAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown will be in New Orleans to attend the 57th annual convention of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association convening Jan. 23-26.

Brown, as owner of the Northwest Produce in Tulelake, has won national recognition on his potato production methods, packaging, and has been named in a recent edition of the United Fresh Outlook, trade publication, as one of the outstanding Western brokers.

He has been asked to speak during one of the convention banquets.

Purpose of the national meeting is to develop ideas for improved service to the consumer, development of attractive packaging and delivery suggestions for putting fruits and vegetables on the market in the best possible condition.

Brown, a native of Yakima, came to Tulelake with his family in 1933, graduated from Tulelake High School in 1939 and following further higher education at Anderson Technical School, Los Angeles, and service in World War II, he has devoted his time to the potato industry.

He came from a family of potato growers. His father, J. Merton Brown, grew potatoes in the Yakima Valley and was the first homesteader to plant a potato crop in Modoc County.

Stanley Brown entered the produce business in 1949, growing hundreds of acres of potatoes including Russet and White Rose seed. He specializes in consumer packs.

The First Baptist Church in Providence, R. I., was the meeting house of the oldest Baptist congregation in America, founded in 1638 by Roger Williams.

Permanent Directors Of Association Named

TULELAKE — Five permanent directors of the Tulelake Growers Association have been named to serve during 1961 by the board of directors of TGA. Each board member named one committeeman to each committee from his home district.

The agricultural committees are the groups that develop the association's active agricultural programs carried out by the association in respective fields.

Herbert Kirby, president, indicates the board acts as a policy-forming body and is responsible for carrying out the association business and establishing policies under which the management operates.

One new committee, the Labor and Housing Committee, was named this year as the result of action taken by the membership at the annual meeting. It is proposed that this committee be informed of labor-management problems in California and to formulate a program in line with these developments.

The committee will also make a study of the farm labor housing situation in the Basin and set up an association housing program in line with these requirements, Kirby said.

Directors are Herbert Kirby, president, John L. Coulson, Elmer Olson, Wilbur Edwards, George Fabianek and Kenneth Powell. Other committeemen named on labor and housing are Edgar Duckett, Marvin Thomas, Sam Wynn, Wesley St. Peter, Tom Frey and French Johnson.

Potatoes: John Cross, Maurice Ott, Marvin Rose, John Baley Jr., Hary Rose and C. J. Main; grain, Jess Prosser, John Baley Sr., Bill Haynes, Maurice Jamison, Doyle Haskins, and Phil Krizo; clover, Jim Stearns, Walter Meshke, Cliff Taylor, E. R. Scott, George Pickup and L. W. Hartley.

Miscellaneous crops, John Staunton, Leonard Will, William P. Barks, Woodrow Chambers, Jack Fensler and Martin Dingler.

Yreka Company Is High Bidder

YREKA — J. F. Sharp Lumber Company was high bidder for 6,900,000 board feet of pine and fir timber in the Upper Slide Creek Unit, Seiad District, Klamath National Forest during an oral auction Jan. 17 here.

The species and the prices bid were ponderosa and Jeffrey pine, nominal volume, $23.45 per thousand feet; sugar pine, 2,100,000 feet, $16.90 per thousand feet; white and Shasta red fir; 1,000,000 feet, $2.50 per thousand; Douglas fir, 3,750,000 feet, $10.30 per thousand and incense cedar, 50,000 feet, $2.25 per thousand.

Minimum bid price was $76,162 and the timber brought a total of $76,725.

Services Held For L. Lambert

McCLOUD — Funeral services were held for Lisle A. Lambert, 55, in the McCloud Community Presbyterian Church Jan. 18. Interment was in Mount Shasta Memorial Park.

Lambert, an employe of the McCloud River Lumber Company since 1923, was a native of Minnesota. He was a member of International Woodworkers of America, Local 3-64.

Survivors are the widow, Dorothy, and sons, Bruce of Princeton, Minn., and Gary of McCloud.

City League Holds Meeting

DUNSMUIR — The Siskiyou League of Cities held its second meeting last week in Mount Shasta with 37 representatives of the various cities in the county in attendance.

The league designed to create a wider understanding of city problems in the county and provide inter-city assistance is still in the organization stage.

Tentative bylaws of the group were presented and will be considered for adoption at the next meeting. The group plans to meet quarterly.

Big Cast Set For Yreka Play

YREKA — A cast of more than 100 persons will participate in a production of the play "Running Wild," a political farce, to be presented by Yreka Junior Chamber of Commerce Feb. 1 and 2. Only local talent will be used, said Jim Hudson, Jaycees president.

Curtain time is 8:14 p.m. on both days in Yreka High School's gymnasium. Director is Ruth Woolley.

Hudson requests anyone interested in participating to call Jerry Churchill, VI 2-3578. Proceeds from the production will help pay for the Jaycees project, Discovery Street Park.

HOT EVIDENCE

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — Evidence he was trying to destroy by fire led police to a thief charged with taking two women's purses from a car.

The smell of burning plastic billfolds in the vicinity of a bridge prompted Rookie Patrolman Richard Donnelli to look under the bridge and came up with the alleged thief.

Chamber Looks For Homesites

MOUNT SHASTA—Members of the chamber of commerce are looking for a local site for recreational homesites.

Ray Tori and Bob Rogers, during a recent meeting, were delegated to explore possibility of reserving some land for campsites on the upper Sacramento River at the steel bridge southwest of the city.

Since most suitable lands in the county are administered by the forest service, Southern Pacific Company and lumber companies, such developments are limited, chamber spokesmen say.

However, a federal law provides for creation of such recreation areas in national forest land by government agencies.

Key Club Votes Aid

DUNSMUIR — Key Club members elected officers, voted to spend $1,050 toward construction of the community hall and began detailed planning of the city's sports jamboree April 29 and 30, during a meeting Monday night at the city hall.

Judge A. A. Smith was reelected president; Les Linton, first vice president; Bill Starkey, second vice president, and Peggy Walsh, third vice president.

Dave Anderson was named a member of the board of directors and Dick Lachenmyer, publicity chairman. Cleo Lambert will serve as secretary and Alma Cooley, assistant secretary.

Sports clubs, experts and specialists are being contacted to demonstrate various sports. Flycasting, spincasting, archery, logbucking and marksmanship contests are planned. A carnival has been obtained to supplement the jamboree.

Merger Would Improve Rail Service Along Two Lines, SP Official Says

DUNSMUIR — "We are in the transportation business. We want to transport freight in volume, economically and speedily.

"We want to compete with other forms of transportation," Ray Marks, assistant to Southern Pacific Company's president, told delegates to the Inter-County Chamber of Commerce of Northern California during a dinner session at the Hotel Dunsmuir Wednesday night.

Marks was present to present Southern Pacific's stand on why SP's proposal to assume Western Pacific control will best serve the public interest.

He said the application to assume control of Western Pacific was made by Southern Pacific last fall. The railroad industry as a whole had been advised by members of the Interstate Commerce Commission to seek mergers consistent with the public interest in order to improve competitive position, he pointed out.

Marks told those present that only 38 cents of the current freight revenue dollar goes to railroads. He said railroads must place themselves in a position to compete with other modes of transportation.

Coordination of SP-WP operations would provide faster service over the lines of both railroads. WP would continue as a separate entity and operate under its own management, Marks said.

In response to a question from the audience, Marks said rail mileage would not be materially reduced but rather would be put to the most beneficial use. He said the WP lines in Sacramento would probably become industrial trackage and current traffic problems there would be eliminated.

Another question from the audience concerned tax base in various California counties. Marks replied that the state board of equalization determines a utility's worth and allocates evaluation on the basis of location. He thought there would be some tax changes but not to a great extent.

In the matter of labor, he said a strong working force cannot exist without a strong industry.

"We want public support of this application," Marks said in concluding his talk.

No action was taken by the ICCCNC as the matter is slated for further consideration at the next meeting. Cottonwood was tentatively selected as the February meeting place and plans are to invite representatives of Western Pacific and Santa Fe railroads to address the delegates there.

William Jeffs, delegate from Anderson, told of completion of the six-county map which provides one side of a promotional brochure. Promotional material of a local or area nature is being printed by member chambers on the other side of the brochure. He praised the project as a means of keeping the tourist dollar in Northern California.
