

FOLLOWING the old adage, "Behind every great man stands a woman," today's page is devoted to the distaff side of the Klamath Falls City Council.

THE FIRST LADY of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Robert E. Veatch, known to her many friends as Marty, admits to having little time for activities beyond her home and the interests of her four children. She will, however, graciously assume the role of wife of the city's new mayor. Mrs. Veatch is pictured at right in the family home, 2048 Portland Street, with her children. Left to right, Mike, 14, freshman at KUHS; Don, 13, seventh grader; Cathy, 11, in the sixth grade, and Chip (Bob Jr.), 7, second grader. The younger children are students at Roosevelt School.

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News Klamath Falls, Oregon
January 22, 1961

MRS. LYLE (BETTY) KELLSTROM, left, shown with the family pet, Tina, is an energetic worker in many civic projects and currently with the Community Concert Series of which she has been a board member for six years. Mr. and Mrs. Kellstrom reside at 548 Conger Avenue with their three sons, Lon, 14, freshman at KUHS; Scott, 12, and Todd, 8, who are in the seventh and second grades respectively at Riverside School.

MRS. WALTER (HAZEL) FLEET, right, and her husband live at 1221 East Street. Their older son, Verne Fleet, resides with his wife and two children in San Diego. A younger son, Glenn, 15, is a freshman at KUHS.

MRS. CHET HAMAKER, above, finds her time well occupied with caring for the family home at 1914 Lowell Street, being mother to three children and working with her husband in their rental business. Their eldest child, Heather, is a student at Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. Two at home are students at KUHS, Harlan, a junior, and Judy, a sophomore.

MRS. LADD (RUTH) HOYT resides with her husband and daughter, Karen, at 701 Roseway Drive. Karen attends the eighth grade at Fremont Junior High School. Mrs. Hoyt is secretary in the principal's office at Fairview School.

MRS. JIM (PEGGY) BARNES, above, has given many hours toward community affairs including the school board. This year she is devoting most of her time to her sons, Jerry, 14, freshman at KUHS, and David, 13, seventh grader at Mills School. An older son, Jimmy, has just finished basic training with the Air Force at Lackland AFB. The family home is at 111 Sheldon Street. Photos by Guderian