Details Complete For Range Bull Sale January 26

Final details for the range bull sale which is sponsored by the Klamath Cattlemen's Association to be held in Klamath Falls Thursday, Jan. 26, have been completed, according to Norman Jacob, chairman of the Bull Sale Committee.

The bulls will arrive at the fairgrounds Wednesday morning and will be checked by the sifting committee in the afternoon to eliminate any individuals with defects of any kind.

Anyone interested in seeing the bulls will find them in their pens Thursday morning. The pens will be clearly labeled so that each lot can be identified by checking lot numbers posted on the pens and the numbers branded on each bull.

Entered in the sale are 32 Horned Herefords, 18 Polled Herefords, eight Angus, and one Short-horn. Breeders consigning bulls to this sale are Alvin Cheyne, Cecil C. Haley, Wilbert Hall, Donald R. Jacob, Norman and Lois Jacob, L. W. and Lila McDonald, Harry Obenchain, W. M. Williams, Frank and Ronald Worden, Scott Warren, Wright Herefords, Island Acres Farm, and Ralph Vaden.

Sale catalogs are now available at the county agent's office and at the fairgrounds.

The Klamath Cow Belles will serve coffee and doughnuts starting at 9 a.m. and hamburgers, pie and coffee will be served at noon the day of the sale for the convenience of those who wish to come early and inspect the bulls that morning.

Bob Rhodes, Klamath Falls, will auctioneer the sale which will start at 1 p.m.
