Saturday results:
Portland State 51, Southern Oregon 41; Eastern Oregon 63, Oregon College 55.

Entering the series Southern Oregon had topped the league. Eastern Oregon is only one-half game behind Portland State after two victories over Oregon College, which still is looking for its first victory this season. The Saturday score was 63-55.

Dischinger, probably destined to spend his college career in Lucas' shadow, has a head-to-head meeting with the big Buckeye All-American on Saturday afternoon when Purdue and top-ranked Ohio State collide at Columbus, Ohio, for the Big Ten lead.

The 6-6 Dischinger, shrugging off a badly cut finger suffered in a chemistry lab accident, scored 19 points as Purdue (9-3) bounced fourth-ranked Iowa off a 10-game winning streak and out of the Big Ten lead with a 47-41 thumping last Saturday night. Talented Terry is expected to be fully recovered by the time the Boiler-makers get at the Buckeyes, their top national ranking, and their national-leading 18-game winning streak.

Purdue first has a conference test at much-beaten Northwestern tonight, but this one doesn't figure to be much more than a warm-up for the big Saturday game.

PCL Prexy Seeking Big Baseball Switch

SEATTLE (UPI) — Dewey Soriano, a fellow who once was a pitcher, general manager, president and chief ticket taker for the Yakima Bears, thinks baseball can stand some changes.

And he's got one.

Now president of the Pacific Coast League, Soriano wants to let the pitchers stick to pitching and allow a manager to name a player to do the stickwork for the hurler.

The plan would be optional and if a manager happened to be blessed with a good-hitting hurler, he merely lets the pitcher bat for himself.

Soriano tossed his bomb into a special meeting of the coast league here Saturday and already it has accomplished one of its purposes—it has fans talking baseball for a change.

An ex-pitcher and so-so hitter himself, Soriano believes the innovation would also help speed up the game.

Three Awkward Swings
"Quite often a guy who is a picture of grace on the mound just walks up to the plate, takes three awkward swings and sits down," says Soriano. "I don't believe it will make the pitcher's job any tougher physically. And they are getting paid to pitch to good hitters."

"Under this plan, a good pitcher could stay in the game longer and we would wind up with more complete games by hurlers. It wouldn't mean the end of relief pitchers but now a manager could keep a top-line starter in the late innings when under today's rules he would be forced to replace him."

Soriano kicked his idea around for several weeks before bringing it to the attention of the directors.

Kicker Backs Idea
Ralph Kiner, the former Pittsburgh power hitter, says he thinks the idea is an excellent one as does Frank Lane, the new general manager at Kansas City.

Baseball, Soriano believes, needs to get out and fight for its share of the sports dollar and that the game can be speeded up.

"Football and basketball have done it," he says. "The last thing baseball did was bring in the gloves off the field."

Whether Soriano's idea catches on is up to the baseball rules committee which is chairmanned by Jim Gallagher of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Soriano is quite willing for his league to experiment with the rule and the board of directors agree all the way.

Pitchers, as everyone knows, aren't supposed to be able to hit anyway.

If Soriano gets his way, they won't have to unless they're good. Like, for example, a pitcher by the name Babe Ruth.

Cincinnati 115, St. Louis 108
Detroit 136, Philadelphia 128

The two hottest clubs in the National Basketball Association today are the Detroit Pistons and the Syracuse Nationals—but both are rushing along on a treadmill.

Each has won five games in a row, yet the Pistons remain 8 1/2 games behind the St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division and the Nationals are third in the Eastern Division, 10 games back of the first place Boston Celtics and 7 1/2 behind the Philadelphia Warriors.

The Pistons cut down the Warriors, 136-127, Sunday and the Nationals turned back the Los Angeles Lakers, 112-109. In the other game, the Cincinnati Royals downed the Hawks, 115-108.

Gene Shue had 32 points for the Pistons and Bailey Howell chipped in with 31. Just as important in the triumph was the fact that the Pistons held Wilt Chamberlain to 28 points.

The triumph was the Pistons' seventh in their last eight starts.

The Nationals trailed the Lakers for three periods and couldn't pull into a tie at 89-all until midway in the fourth period. The lead saw-sawed back and forth until the Lakers went ahead, 109-108 with less than a minute to go.

But then Dick Barnett went to work and plunked in two baskets for the Nationals before time ran out. The triumph was the Nationals' seventh in their last eight games.

The Royals proved finally that they can win without Oscar Robertson. Until Sunday they hadn't won a game all season without the Big O.

Wayne Embry and Jack Twyman supplied most of the Royals' punch in their fast finish in the nationally televised game. Embry finished with 28 points and 18 rebounds, while Twyman dropped in 14 points in the final quarter.

Saturday, Detroit whipped Cincinnati, 130-106; Syracuse turned back Boston, 127-124; St. Louis clipped New York, 145-122, and Philadelphia vanquished Los Angeles, 136-111.

Linfield Nips Pacific 70-66, Cl Defeated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Linfield took over the undisputed lead in the Northwest Conference basketball race by downing Pacific, 70-66, while College of Idaho was losing, 80-77, to Whitman.

Pacific's Gary Moye, the high scorer with 22 points, sparked a second-half rally that all but wiped out a 38-33 Linfield half-time lead. The margin was cut to 67-66 with 27 seconds left but Pacific fouls in desperate efforts to get the ball resulted in Linfield free throws that built up the final margin.

It took Whitman two overtime periods to beat College of Idaho, which had gone into the game tied for first with Linfield.

Mike Monahan's only four points, scored in the second overtime, were the deciders.

The high scorer was Bob Moreno of the losers with 21 points. Doug Grant paced Whitman with 17.

Only one game is scheduled this week among Oregon schools. Linfield will be at Willamette Saturday.

Wildlife Backers Ask Ban

CORVALLIS (AP) — The Oregon Wildlife Federation will ask the state legislature to bar construction of dams that would damage fish runs on any coastal streams south of the Columbia River.

The Trask, Nehalem, Rogue and Illinois rivers were named in a weekend resolution as streams on which power dams have been proposed.

The resolution, passed at the annual convention, said any dams should be constructed so far upstream that spawning areas will not be affected.

The federation asked the state Game Commission to stock Dexter Reservoir with warm water game fish.

More severe penalties were asked for hunting accidents in which a person is shot.

The federation also proposed a mid-summer commercial fishing closure on the Columbia River to allow more steelhead to get up to spawning grounds.

Delegates were told steelhead have declined sharply in the Columbia Basin in the past five years.

J. T. Barnaby of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service said that of the 383,000 spring and summer run of 1959, only 7 per cent or 24,000 fish were left for spawning.

Responsible for this decline, he said, is commercial and sports fishing, dam construction, water pollution, water diversion and watershed deterioration.

FIGHT SLATED TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Harry Campbell, lightweight from San Jose State, faces Flory Olguin of Los Angeles tonight in a 10-round bout here. This marks the first time Campbell, a quarter-finalist in the Olympics last summer, will try to go 10 rounds.

The folks in the midlands who say Terry Dischinger is as good as Olympic teammate Jerry Lucas and that Ohio State is far from invincible get a chance to test their theory this week as college basketball begins to bust out of its mid-term doldrums.

Dischinger, probably destined to spend his college career in Lucas' shadow, has a head-to-head meeting with the big Buckeye All-American on Saturday afternoon when Purdue and top-ranked Ohio State collide at Columbus, Ohio, for the Big Ten lead.

Webfoots' Charley Warren Hits 54 In Weekend Action

By United Press International

The "boss's daughter" is knocking them dead at Oregon.

Charley Warren, son of John Warren who once coached the Ducks, whizzed in 28 points Saturday night while leading Oregon to a 67-63 win over Idaho. This output followed a Friday night splurge in which Charley meshed 26 points during a 60-53 verdict at the expense of Washington State.

In other Saturday action, well-scattered because of examination periods, Washington defeated Stanford, 51-49, in the only Big Five game of the night; Oregon State ran away from Washington State, 72-47; Seattle trimmed Montana State, 80-70; Portland downed Alaska, 73-48 and Pepper defeated San Diego State, 59-48.

Ed Corell won the game for Washington with a field goal in the last three seconds of play. It was the Huskies' second win in Big Five action against four losses. Stanford, which tripped Washington in overtime Friday night, now has a 2-1 record and a second place tie with UCLA. Southern California, idle all last week, heads the Big Five with a 4-0 mark. UCLA also was idle along with California which is in the league basement.

Nine Straight Points
Stanford moved ahead of the Huskies, 48-47, with two and a half minutes to play after scoring nine straight points. Then Clint Names hit with a fielder to put Washington on top but John Hendry's free throw tied it for the Indians.

Dischinger, who beat Lucas in the conference scoring race last year and outscored him in their meetings as sophomores, gets only this one chance against the Bucks.

If it's a show-down Coach Ray Eddy has in mind, he may find Ohio State less inclined to control than the Hawkeyes were over the weekend.

Minnesota Coach John Kundla tried it against Ohio State and it befuddled the Bucks only for 3 minutes. Behind 8-1 at the time, the defending NCAA champions switched into an aggressive, ball-hawking defense, reeled off eight straight points and went on to a 75-56 victory with Lucas scoring 22 points and his starting mates all hitting in double figures.

The Purdue-Ohio State showdown is the feature game on a big program Saturday as basketball swings back into full-time activity.

The schedule dribbles along the first four days this week, with only a dozen major games, before opening up a bit on Friday. Most of the power teams will be back in action either Friday, Saturday or a week from tonight, after completing mid-term examinations.

It'll likely be a vastly shuffled top 10 in the AP poll by the time they return. Although Ohio State, second-ranked St. Bonaventure, and sixth-ranked North Carolina went unbeaten through last week, and three others—Bradley, Duke and St. John's—were idle, the top 10 combined had only a 6-5 won-lost record.

Oregon State 'got off to an 18-5 lead over Washington State with the aid of Jim Woodland whose 24 points were high for the night. Terry Ball countered with 18 for the losers.

Dave Mills and Eddie Miles combined for 63 points to lead Seattle to its 80-70 win over Montana State and the Chieftains fourth straight triumph. Mills scored 34 points and Eddie 29.

Portland's Pilots won their 11th game of the season at the expense of outmanned Alaska. Mike Doherty led the winners with 17 in a game played at Vancouver.

Pepperdine's win against San Diego State was the second straight in non-league action for the Waves who trail the West Coast Athletic Conference with a 0-3 showing.

TV Tiff Matches Sluggers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be puncher against puncher in the Saturday night television fight matching middleweights Rory Calhoun and Florentino Fernandez.

They clash in a ten-rounder—ABC TV, 10 p.m., EST—at New York's Madison Square Garden.

The winner probably will earn a berth in the 160-pound division's top ten although neither is a ranking middleweight now. Fernandez, 24-year-old Cuban, is ranked sixth among the welterweights. In his debut in the middleweights he knocked out Phil Meyer in the fifth round at the Garden last Nov. 12.

Calhoun, of White Plains, N.Y., once was a top-ranking middleweight. The 26-year-old slugger indicated he was on the rise again when he outpointed Hank Casey, fourth-ranking middleweight, on New Year's Day in New Orleans.

Fernandez has a 28-2 record, including 22 knockouts. Calhoun's record is 45-10, including 21 kayos.

Lightweight contender Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., meets newcomer Joe Stable of Cuba in the main ten-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas arena tonight. Cuba, 24, a stablemate of welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret, beat Chico Velez in his U.S. debut at the Garden last month. He has a 12-1 record, including three kayos. Lane, 28, has a 62-9 record including 13 knockouts.

Red Wings Slip Back, Hawks Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Red Wings pulled out the wrong script and today found themselves mired even deeper in fourth place in the National Hockey League race.

Going into Sunday night's action, the Red Wings had a chance of pulling into a third place tie with the Chicago Black Hawks. The Wings had to beat the New York Rangers and the Boston Bruins had to whip the Hawks.

Instead, the Rangers stopped the Red Wings, 5-3, and the Hawks blasted the Bruins, 8-3.

That gave Chicago a healthy four-point bulge in third place and dropped the Wings even deeper into a fourth place.

Dean Prentice scored three goals and Pat Hannigan two in the Rangers' triumph over the Wings.

The Wings took a two-goal lead on scores by Parker McDonald and Jerry Melynk, but couldn't hold it. Hannigan, incidentally, had notched only one goal in 30 previous games.

The Hawks, too, fell two goals behind in the first period. But the Hawks came back with four goals in the second period to put the game on ice. Bobby Hull, last year's scoring champion, blasted some his 22nd and 23rd goals of the season.

Santa Barbara, leader of the California Collegiate Athletic Association chase, faces Long Beach State Friday and San Diego State Saturday.

Bob Rosburg Wins Crosby Links Loot

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Bob Rosburg's long experience with the Pebble Beach course plus a great pressure putt on the final hole brought him the $5,300 first-prize check in Bing Crosby's 20th annual golf tournament.

"I knew I had to make it," Rosburg said of the 14-foot slightly hooking putt he sank for a birdie four on the final hole Sunday for an even-par 72 and a winning 282 for the 72 holes.

Still the ex-Stanford star who won the PGA tournament in 1959 for his last major victory had to wait a half hour to see if Bill Collins was going to beat him. Collins, of Baltimore, needed even par for the final two holes to tie and a birdie on one to win.

"If Collins gets a par on that 17th, he deserves to win," Rosburg commented as a stiff wind from the ocean whipped the course.

Collins went one-over-par on the 17th when his tee shot was trapped on the 218-yard, par three hole. He still could have tied with a birdie four on the 18th and his third shot stopped about 15 feet from the cup. Bill promptly missed two putts, the second from 11,030 for a 286 among the individual pros.

got only $1,625 for a tie for fourth. His 75 gave him a 281.

Deadlocked for second, one stroke off the pace at 283, were Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City and Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla. De Vicenzo shot a 75 final round and Ragan a 74.

Rosburg, 34, a resident of Palo Alto, Calif., who plays out of Overland Park, Kans., needed to make up seven strokes to catch the third-round leader Ted Kroil of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., who had a 293 through 54 holes. Ted blew up with an 81 and a 284.

For a time it appeared Arnold Palmer, golfer-of-the-year in 1960 would take it all here. But a 41 on the final nine and 75 total left him at 284 with Kroil and Gardner Dickinson who was one of three sub-par shooters here Sunday with a one-under 71. Johnny Pott also eclipsed par by a stroke for a 285 total.

Wes Ellis shot only a 289 but he and his partner Frank Tatum Jr., of San Francisco teamed for a best ball of 67-252 that gave the pro a $3,000 first prize. Dow Finsterwald and Fred Kammer of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., were next with 67-254. Finsterwald collected $1,500 there to go with his missed two putts, the second from 11,030 for a 286 among the individual pros.

Sophs, Frosh Drop Games

CENTRAL POINT (Special) — The Klamath Union sophomores and freshmen invaded the home gymnasium of the Crater Comets Saturday and came away with nothing but experience.

The sophomore Wildcats were edged 49-46 and the freshmen absorbed a humiliating 40-20 setback. The Wildcats looked good until three Comet varsity players entered the game, but the frosh were pathetic.

The Wildcats led 25-24 at the half in a close ball game, but in the third quarter varsity players Gary Wald, Mike Glines and Louis Alvarez entered the game for the Comets and the lead vanished. Don Piper and Gail Phelps had 10 points each in the Pelicans' balanced attack, while Fred Kelly and Grover Dahn added 18 between them.

The freshmen, suffering their second loss of the season, were behind most of the way. Marv Yunk led the baby Pelican scorers with eight and Roger Rogers rebounded well.

The scoring summaries: Taylor 4, Piper 10, Kelly 9, Horn 4, Phelps 10, Dahn 9.

Crater (49) — Mason 17, Glines 10, Rivenberg 8, Wald 7, Higginbotham 6, Gardner 2, Alvarez.

Klamath Frosh (20) — Yunk 8, Rogers 6, Enright 4, Holman 2, Workman, Guyer, Jackson, Binney.

Crater (40) — Summerfield 12, Swanson 11, Ryerson 1, Burd 10, Turner 1, Grisson 1, Pepper 1, White.
